Baseball, 2d ed. Jonathan Fraser Light, 2016-03-25 More than any other sport baseball has developed its own niche in America's culture and psyche. Some researchers spend years on detailed statistical analyses of minute parts of the game while others wax poetic about its players and plays. Many trace the beginnings of the civil rights movement in part to the Major League's decision to integrate and the words and phrases of the game for example pinch hitter and out in left field have become common in our everyday language. From AARON HENRY onward this book covers all of what might be called the cultural aspects of baseball as opposed to the number rich statistical information so widely available elsewhere. Biographical sketches of all Hall of Fame players owners executives and umpires as well as many of the sportswriters and broadcasters who have won the Spink and Frick awards join entries for teams owners commissioners and league presidents Advertising agents drafts illegal substances minor leagues oldest players perfect games retired uniform numbers superstitions tripleheaders and youngest players are among the thousands of entries herein. Most entries open with a topical quote and conclude with a brief bibliography of sources for further research. The whole work is exhaustively indexed and includes 119 photographs.

Holmes on the Range Dan Holmes, Sam Skinner, 2013-04 Demons We all have them. They take various forms and affect us in different ways. Some are obvious like drugs and alcohol. Loneliness and depression and self doubt are not so apparent if that is all you've known until college. In Holmes on the Range Dan Holmes Esquire wakes up one morning and realizes he is living his childhood dream. Wife children houses cars jewelry and cash flow from his legal practice are his. What he doesn't realize is that the demons that haunted him when he was growing up did not disappear as his career blossomed. Then life threw Dan a typical business oriented speed bump that he handled by building it into a mountain he could never scale. Those long silent core emotions led him with eyes wide open to risk his profession his marriage his community standing and his soul to keep things going. Lie built upon lie larger thefts compounded smaller ones time was purchased with ever bigger crimes against the community he served while he ignored his family life. Just live long enough for one more economic upturn and a few good deals to come along everything will be fine. Or win the lottery. FBI agents came calling first. After pleading guilty ex attorney Dan Holmes entered the federal prison system for a ninety six month stay not knowing if he could survive in a world he had seen only in the media. Penal rehabilitation turns out to be a life lived with four hundred other minimum security types in an open campus where any inmate can walk off the property. Accountants lawyers physicians drug dealers stock brokers priests the mentally retarded the mentally ill odd pranksters clever scammers and people more resembling barking dogs than human beings are all around him. The staff people are there in prison too and everyone has mostly nothing to do and a lot of time to do it. In middle school without teachers a way wicked wild world so few get to know close up. About the Authors Sam Skinner was born and raised in Florida. He graduated from college and began a career in banking where he rose to Vice President Construction Loans. Then he changed career paths and worked as Chief Operating Officer for a real estate developer in Virginia. It was then that his life took a turn for the worse. He decided to be loyal to his employer when the employer committed bank fraud to try to secure takeout financing for his upside down real estate portfolio Sam did not call 911 and report the felonies as soon as he saw them which is the letter of the law His loyalty to an individual he liked and admired trumped his moral compass When everything collapsed Sam was indicted and pled guilty when the developer did not stand up and take responsibility for the frauds he alone had committed and authorized Dan Holmes grew up in Philadelphia Pennsylvania and went to law school after graduating college He worked hard and became successful in his trade and was on his way to enjoying the fruits of his labor Unfortunately Dan wasn't prepared for the many trials that life makes you endure and in his moment of testing Dan failed miserably How the Ship Changed My Life

Goran Žganec, 2025-01-03 Due to the difficulty to find a job in his city Goran chooses the type of career that changed his life He started to work on a cruise ship in the hospitality industry in 2013 He has three contracts in three different cruise ships He considers this experience the most difficult but also the most valuable that life has taught him Working on a vessel requires huge sacrifices like being miles away for more than half a year from family and friends working with different nationalities and cultures brutally heavy pace of minimal ten working hours every day and often even more without normal sleeping hours but on the other hand a piece of relaxation that makes it very special such as travelling to various attractive world tourist destinations and creating unforgettable friendships and adventures Because of his soccer dream he left the cruiser in 2016 together with Elizabeth from Peru back then his girlfriend today his wife and since 2017 they live in Munich Germany From the first day spent on the ship during all the rich experiences and adventures until the last disembarkation through magical Peru and a special proposal on the beautiful Machu Picchu to the current life in Germany he continues to explore new places and shares his soccer passion Ship life inspired him to write this book and motivate people in achieving their biggest goals because he strongly believes that everything is possible if the person really wants it The American Gas Light Journal, 1894 The British Encyclopedia William Nicholson, 1818 Diary of a Physician in California James Lawrence Tyson, 1850 Dr James L Tyson sailed from Baltimore for California in January 1849 crossing the Isthmus and sailing on to San Francisco Diary of a physician in California 1850 recounts his 1849 tour of the Northern Mines in search of a likely place for his medical practice and his hospital at Cold Spring where his patients included a number of Oregonians Tyson closes his hospital at the end of the summer sailing from San Francisco as a ship's physician crossing the Isthmus and landing in the United States in December 1849 His diary pays special attention to miners health and working conditions

Scientific American, 1895 American Furniture in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Frances Gruber Safford, 2007 The Metropolitan Museum's preeminent collection of early colonial furniture is expertly documented in this long awaited publication It covers the full spectrum of furniture forms made during the 17th and early 18th centuries from chairs and other seating to tables boxes various types of chests and cupboards and desks Each of the 141 objects is thoroughly described with detailed information on provenance construction condition inscriptions dimensions and materials

Photographed anew in color for this volume each piece is explicated in terms of the styles and craftsmanship of the period and is evaluated in light of comparative pieces in public and private collections throughout the country One appendix contains photographic details of construction and decorative elements and another has drawings of joints and moldings
