Manual of Smoking Cessation Andy McEwen, Peter Hajek, Hayden McRobbie, Robert West, 2008-06-09 Manual of Smoking Cessation provides the crucial knowledge required if you are involved in helping smokers to stop. The manual provides facts, figures, suggested interventions and sources of further information to assist in providing evidence based treatment for smokers wishing to stop. This manual covers the core content areas and key learning outcomes described in the Standard for Training in Smoking Cessation. Health Development Agency 2003. Manual of Smoking Cessation is structured in two concise parts. Part 1 provides essential information on smoking demographics along with the risks of smoking and the benefits of stopping. Part 2 offers a range of practical advice to implement with clients. The Smoking Cessation Manual is an essential text for all those involved in the provision of smoking cessation services including smoking cessation counsellors, nurses, pharmacists, doctors, health promotion officers, dental professionals and other members of the health care team. The book is an invaluable resource for those learning about smoking cessation and a succinct aide memoire to those already practicing in the field. The authors represent the who's who in the field of smoking cessation and are affiliated to University College London and Cancer Research UK. Many evaders and survivors have reported difficulty in treating injuries and illness due to the lack of training and medical supplies. For some this led to capture or surrender. Survivors have related feeling of apathy and helplessness because they could not treat themselves in this environment. The ability to treat themselves increased their morale and cohesion and aided in their survival and eventual return to friendly forces. One man with a fair amount of basic medical knowledge can make a difference in the lives of many.
