

Reflection Essay

This semester in English 101 I have learned a bountiful amount of tips to help my writing techniques. In high school I always thought of myself as a fairly good writer. The one thing I think I lacked was supporting details. This course has helped me to always think when I make a statement. After my statement I make sure to put extra input or additional definitions to make what I am saying crystal clear. Also, in this course, I have learned how to use rhetoric in my papers. Different rhetoric techniques like ethos, logos, and pathos have made some of my pieces so much better.

Ethos, pathos, and logos were all new to me. Learning about the three has taught me a couple of things. It has taught me different ways to reach different audiences. Sometimes getting to an audience with emotion will do the trick, but in other situations a more factual approach works. Having this new knowledge of the different types of ways to catch the audience's attention has and will in the future improve my writing.

Before this course I was completely unaware of how to write a formal argument. Now I feel that I have the knowledge and the experience to write a very successful argument. I felt confident in writing my final project due to all of the information I have gained from this course.

The readings that we did in class were extremely insightful as well as interesting. They taught me to see different all different groups of people in totally different ways than what might be expected. The readings opened my eyes and allowed me to see the world in different

Beyond Outcomes Richard Haswell, 2001-05-30 Writing assessment programs help place entering and mid career students in composition courses at the appropriate level monitor the progress of those students and assist in placing them in writing courses throughout their undergraduate careers These same universities also have writing instruction programs which might include writing centers writing across the curriculum initiatives and freshman and advanced composition programs At many institutions though writing assessment is not necessarily considered fundamental to writing instruction and there is little communication between the assessment program and the composition program This book demonstrates that writing assessment and instruction programs may be successfully integrated The contributors analyze the development of the writing assessment and instruction program at Washington State University which is nationally recognized for its success In doing so they provide guidance to other institutions planning to develop similar integrated programs The volume argues that writing assessment and instruction should inform and influence each other that they should evolve together and that they should be developed locally By tracing the success of the WSU program the authors directly challenge the use of national packaged assessment programs such as standardized placement tests

Toward More Sustainable Metaphors of Writing Program Administration Lydia Wilkes, Lilian W. Mina, Patti Poblete, 2023-02-15 The field of writing program administration has long been a space rich in metaphor From plate twirling to fire extinguishing parents to dungeon masters and much more the work of a WPA extends to horizons unknown Responding to the constraints of austerity Toward More Sustainable Metaphors of Writing Program Administration offers new lenses for established WPAs and provides aspiring and early career WPAs with a sense of the range of responsibilities and opportunities in their academic and professional spaces This volume presents twelve chapters that reclaim and revise established metaphors offer new metaphors based on sustainable relational or emotional labor practices and phenomena and reveal the improvisational artisanal nature of WPA work Chapters resonate across three sections The first section focuses on organic relationships captured in phrases like putting out fires and seeing forests for the trees alongside unexpected comparisons to ground and light The second describes institutional landscapes featuring generative juxtapositions such as the WPA as a labor activist or a mapper of emotional geography And the third discusses performance crafts like improv comedy and artisanal making Toward More Sustainable Metaphors of Writing Program

Administration offers new and revised ways of thinking and acting for WPAs who are constantly negotiating the paradoxical demands of their work and continually striving to act ethically in conflicted and even fraught situations It will inspire practicing aspiring and former WPAs working in a time of transformation by highlighting more sustainable ways of enacting WPA identity Contributors Jacob Babb John Belk Katherine Daily O Meara Ryan J Dippre Douglas Hesse Andrew Hollinger Rona Kaufman Cynthia D Mwenja Manny Pi a Scott Rogers Robyn Tasaka Alexis Teagarden Christy I Wenger Lydia Wilkes

The Information Literacy Framework Heidi Julien, Melissa Gross, Don Latham, 2020-02-07 This book helps demystify how to incorporate ACRL's Framework for Information Literacy for Higher Education into information literacy instruction in higher education as well as how to teach the new Framework to pre service librarians as part of their professional preparation This authoritative volume copublished by the Association for Library and Information Science Education ALISE demonstrates professional practice by bringing together current case studies from librarians in higher education who are implementing the Framework for Information Literacy for Higher Education as well as cases from educators in library and information science who are working to prepare their pre service students to practice in the new instructional environment Instructional librarians administrators and educators will benefit from the experiences the people on the ground who are actively working to make the transition to the Framework in their professional practice The Qualitative Dissertation Maria Piantanida, Noreen B. Garman, 1999-04-16 This guide is for students working on dissertations that are based on qualitative research The guide attempts to frame the dissertation process as a set of iterative cycles of deliberation which include facing the dissertation moving into the dissertation crafting the research proposal proposing the study living with the study entering into public discourse and adjusting to life after the dissertation The first section consists of 10 chapters focusing on these cycles The second section is comprised of five think pieces more informal and conversational conceptions and misconceptions of deliberation in relation to theoretical perspectives on discourse These pieces are titled What Do We Mean by Deliberation Dissertation Study Groups Cultivating a Community for Discursive Deliberation Knowledge Claims and the Issue of Legitimacy in Educational Research Tuning In to Discourses on Qualitative Inquiry and Text Interpretation Throughout the book insets provide many case examples Contains approximately 250 references DB Teaching Writing through the Immigrant Story Heather Ostman, Howard Tinberg, Danizete Martínez, 2021-12-01 Teaching Writing through the Immigrant Story explores the intersection between immigration and pedagogy via the narrative form Embedded in the contexts of both student writing and student reading of literature chapters by scholars from four year and two year colleges and universities across the country this book engages the topic of immigration within writing and literature courses as the site for extending critiquing and challenging assumptions about justice and equity while deepening students sense of ethics and humanity Each of the chapters recognizes the prevalence of immigrant students in writing classrooms across the United States including foreign born first and second generation Americans and more and the myriad opportunities and challenges

those students present to their instructors These contributors have seen the validity in the stories and experiences these students bring to the classroom evidence of their lifetimes of complex learning in both academic and nonacademic settings Like thousands of college level instructors in the United States they have immigrant stories of their own The immigrant narrative offers a unique framework for knowledge production in which students and teachers may learn from each other in which the ordinary power dynamic of teacher and students begins to shift to enable empathy to emerge and to provide space for an authentic kind of pedagogy By engaging writing and literature teachers within and outside the classroom Teaching Writing through the Immigrant Story speaks to the immigrant narrative as a viable frame for teaching writing an opportunity for building and articulating knowledge through academic discourse The book creates a platform for immigration as a writing and literary theme a framework for critical thinking and a foundation for significant social change and advocacy Contributors Tuli Chatterji Katie Daily Bruckner Libby Garland Silvia Giagnoni Sibylle Gruber John Havard Timothy Henderson Brennan Herring Lilian Mina Rachel Pate Emily Schnee Elizabeth Stone Rhetoric, Uncertainty, and the University as Text Andrew Stubbs, 2007 Resources in Education, 2000-04 Writing Studio Pedagogy Matthew Kim, Russell Carpenter, 2017-02-22 Writing Studio Pedagogy WSP breaks from the tradition of teaching and responding to writing in traditional ways and moves the teaching and learning experience off the page and into engaging spaces in multiple ways which can enhance the composing process Through this collection scholars interested in rethinking approaches to teaching writing pedagogy and innovative learning will find new ways to challenge their own understandings of space place and collaboration WSP involves an attention to space and place in the development of rhetorical acts by focusing on the ways in which they enhance pedagogy This book takes a unique opportunity to return to pedagogy as the foremost priority in any learning space Educators might preference WSP for its emphasis on student centeredness by creating productive interactions intersections and departures that arrive from prioritizing learning WSP acknowledges the centralized role of students and teachers as co facilitators in learning and writing These threads are intentionally broad based as the chapters contained in this book speak to the complexity of WSP across institutions Vernacular Christian Rhetoric and Civil Discourse Jeffrey M. Ringer, 2016-02-05 Vernacular Christian Rhetoric and Civil Discourse seeks to address the current gap in American public discourse between secular liberals and religiously committed citizens by focusing on the academic and public writing of millennial evangelical Christian students Analysis of such writing reveals that the evangelical Christian faith of contemporary college students and the rhetorical practice motivated by it is marked by an openness to social context and pluralism that offers possibilities for civil discourse Based on case studies of evangelical Christian student writers contextualized within nationally representative trends as reported by the National Study of Youth and Religion and grounded in scholarship from rhetorical theory composition studies folklore studies and sociology of religion this book offers rhetorical educators a new terministic screen that reveals the complex processes at work within our students vernacular constructions of religious faith Dialogue, 2000 Undergraduate Announcement University of Michigan--Dearborn, 1983 Reaching All Writers Joanne Baird Giordano, Holly Hassel, Jennifer Heinert, Cassandra Phillips, 2024-02-21 Reaching All Writers brings together decades of writing studies experience research and scholarship to help organize first year writing courses around inclusive teaching practices and foundational concepts that support disciplinary learning for all college writers including students who have been excluded from more selective higher education institutions Using threshold concepts and transfer as a foundation the authors provide an invaluable resource for multiple contexts instructors working off the tenure track and or at multiple institutions two year college programs without a writing program administrator and writing program graduate teaching assistant training courses Each chapter includes an overview of a threshold concept disciplinary background readings practical teaching strategies assignment and learning activity ideas assessment principles examples from student and instructor perspectives and questions for reflection and discussion Reaching All Writers describes effective teaching practices to help all college writing instructors regardless of their institutional contexts make changes that support equitable and inclusive learning opportunities with a focus on teaching students whose backgrounds and learning experiences are different from those with more educational or economic privilege Both new and experienced teachers adapting first year college writing courses will find the book's blend of practical strategies and disciplinary knowledge a useful companion for facilitating new classroom and program needs or designing new teaching assistant training courses Winters Reflection Brittany Winters, 2014-05-06 This book was produced as a final portfolio of a College English Class It includes a variety of essays written for the class Reclaiming Accountability Wendy Sharer, Tracy Ann Morse, Michelle F. Eble, William P. Banks, 2016-04-06 Reclaiming Accountability brings together a series of critical case studies of writing programs that have planned implemented and or assessed the impact of large scale accreditation supported initiatives The book reimagines accreditation as a way to leverage institutional or programmatic change Contributions to the volume are divided into three parts Part 1 considers how specialists in composition and rhetoric can work most productively with accrediting bodies to design assessments and initiatives that meet requirements while also helping those agencies to better understand how writing develops and how it can most effectively be assessed Parts 2 and 3 present case studies of how institutions have used ongoing accreditation and assessment imperatives to meet student learning needs through programmatic changes and faculty development They provide concrete examples of productive curricular part 2 and instructional part 3 changes that can follow from accreditation mandates while providing guidance for navigating challenges and pitfalls that WPAs may encounter within shifting and often volatile local regional and national contexts In addition to providing examples of how others in the profession might approach such work Reclaiming Accountability addresses assessment requirements beyond those in the writing program itself It will be of interest to department heads administrators writing program directors and those involved with writing teacher education among others Contributors Linda Adler Kassner William P Banks Remica
