Reformed Theology S Deformed Exegesis:

Reformed Theology's Deformed Exegesis Gil VanOrder, 2015-01-01 Reformed theology was developed by taking verses out of context by using poor and dishonest exegesis by creating things that don't exist by contradicting clear teachings of the Scriptures by making false assumptions and non sequiturs and by merging pagan philosophy with Christianity The result is a theology that was never taught by the apostles or the early church It is a theology that stresses God's sovereignty at the expense of His compassion It creates a God more interested in displaying His majesty than in sharing His agape love It turns the Good Shepherd into a bad shepherd Belief in Calvinism requires the abandonment of any sane understanding of justice free will or the heart of God Ultimately the God Calvinists believe in is a monster and their gospel is anything but Good News for those who are not selected by God to be saved

Engaging Westminster Calvinism Mark W. Karlberg, 2013-04-26 This collection of writings contains articles and book reviews that are not readily accessible to most readers Many of them are written for a wider audience of informed lay students of Scripture as well as seminarians They have been brought together here in a fresh way with other new writings As a result this study is somewhat unique drawing upon the author's career in theology and church music Over the course of four decades of scholarly research and writing Mark Karlberg has also been engaged in the music ministry of the church serving as organist and choir director Chief influences in his study and practice of music in the church have been Robert Elmore and Gerre Hancock leading organists choral masters and composers of our generation In the course of their stellar careers Elmore and Hancock have served in different ecclesiastical settings Moravian Presbyterian Southern Baptist and Anglican What they both share in common is their exceptional skill in the art of improvisation Part of their accompaniment was off the written musical score resulting in service playing that was creative and engaging In the spirit of their artistic expression we offer this collection of writings bearing as its theme the great Song of Redemption composed by the singing Christ Heb 2:12

Christian Faith as Religion Paul E. Capetz, 2011-05-26 Christian Faith as Religion investigates the theologies of John Calvin and Friedrich Schleiermacher with respect to the questions What is Religion and What is Christian Religion The author argues that the classical and liberal exemplars of Protestant theology are best compared when these two questions are thoroughly examined and calls into question the contention of neo orthodox theologians Karl Barth and Emil Brunner that Schleiermacher's theological use of the category religion signifies a departure from the tradition of the Reformation He offers a revised comparative framework that discloses the material and formal similarities between Calvin and Schleiermacher with respect to their employment of the categories religion and revelation and allows the historical theologian to delineate the trajectory that accounts for both continuity and discontinuity in the transition from classical to modern Protestant theology This allows the systematic hermeneutical question of a contemporary Protestant theology informed by the historical and philosophical study of religion to be taken up anew Genesis \(Brazos Theological Commentary on the Bible\) R. R. Reno, 2010-01-01 The Brazos Theological Commentary on the Bible enlists leading theologians to read and interpret Scripture for the twenty first century just as the church fathers the Reformers and other orthodox Christians did for their times and places In this addition to the well received series esteemed theologian R R Reno offers a theological exegesis of Genesis This commentary like each in the series is designed to serve the church providing a rich resource for preachers teachers students and study groups and demonstrate the continuing intellectual and practical viability of theological interpretation of the Bible

Reforming the Christian Faith Mark W. Karlberg, 2017-10-12 Central to the mission of the church with each passing generation is the elucidation of the gospel of Christ which is the heart of the Christian message Witness to God's saving word in Scripture comes in response to discussions and debates arising over the course of church history Our study highlights some of the unity and disunity found within the Reformed tradition Reformation and modern Beginning with the subject of the development of doctrine over the course of church history we take up the foundational issue of biblical hermeneutics the question of how we are to interpret the Bible The year 2017 marks the Protestant Church's 500th anniversary October 31 We consider secondly Protestantism's two leading theological principles the formal the doctrine of Scripture and the material the doctrine of justification by faith alone In the final section we critique departures from the teaching of historic federalism found within contemporary Reformed orthodoxy which strikes at the very heart of what it means to be Reformed in theology Crucial in this long standing and ongoing dispute is the interpretation of the Mosaic Covenant as in some sense a republication of the original Covenant of Works with Adam at creation Covenant and justification are the focal doctrines under study

A Commentary on Galatians William Perkins, 1989 Federalism and the Westminster Tradition Mark W. Karlberg, 2006-10-15 More than any other theological tradition Reformed federalism has recognized the importance of the biblical teaching on the covenants in its system of doctrine This tradition came to mature confessional status in the writing of the Westminster Confession of Faith and Catechisms The place of the Westminster tradition within the stream of Christian history and theology is remarkable indeed Westminster not only gained recognition as the epitome of Calvinist teaching at the close of the Protestant Reformation the middle of the seventeenth century it also earned the reputation for precision and comprehensiveness in doctrinal formulation It became the measure by which biblical interpreters defended their systems of doctrine either in agreement or disagreement with the theology of the Westminster divines These writings are the climax of three decades of research and study and they appear as the third in the series of collections published by Wipf and Stock beginning with Covenant Theology in Reformed Perspective followed by Gospel Grace The Modern day Controversy The critical teaching in dispute in each of these studies is the classic Protestant antithesis between the Law and the Gospel what serves as the basis for the Reformed doctrine of the twofold covenants the Covenant of Works and the Covenant of Grace Protestant Reformed Orthodoxy now stands at the crossroads the plight of Westminster Seminary East and West is merely illustrative of the depth and the intensity of the contemporary theological dispute one impacting the future of Protestant evangelicalism as a whole The battle is between historic Reformed Protestantism and modern day revisionism of a radical sort The rapid rise of postmodernism or nonfoundationalism is indicative of the rapidly changing mood and posture in evangelical biblical scholarship at the opening of this third millennium of Christian interpretation Without question the modern church continues to loose her biblical moorings Forsaking the basic theological convictions of the Protestant Reformation it has attempted to subject the Word of God to vigorous academic i e scientific investigation the return of rationalism In doing so it has abandoned the Scripture principle which recognizes the uniquely authoritative and inerrant character of the Word of God Lost in the shuffle is the uncompromising proclamation of the one true Gospel the Gospel of justification by grace through faith alone Lost also is the doctrine of the perspicuity of Scripture Nothing less than a new Reformation in our day will halt travel down the road leading to destruction From the Preface

Living Water Manitza Kotzé, Kobus van der Walt, 2023-02-23 Water will undoubtedly become an ever more crucial locus of academic reflection as Christiana Peppard s concern that wars of the future will be fought over water not oil 2014 stresses Increasing water shortages worldwide and global warming of water in particular the salt water of the oceans beg further reflection from natural and agricultural sciences the legal field and also from theology As a basic human right water is also closely connected to peace and justice issues This book is an interdisciplinary undertaking looking at water as a theological symbol in the fields of theology natural and agricultural sciences and law Providing reflections from a variety of disciplines within theology as well as from other disciplines such as natural sciences and law from the South African context this book makes a valuable contribution to knowledge in this field

Dictionary for Theological Interpretation of the Bible Kevin J. Vanhoozer, 2005-11 This groundbreaking reference tool introduces key names theories and concepts for interpreting Scripture The Prophetic Call to Love and Justice Arnold H. De Graaff, 2025-06-20 Scripture's compelling message of love and justice is powerfully relevant for today The implications of the Amsterdam way of interpreting Scripture are evident throughout the book It is both a personal and timely way of speaking to our disintegrating society The Prophetic Call to Love and Justice provides a meaningful and radical yet simple way of re connecting with the Bible As one of the founders of the Amsterdam way of interpretation Karel Deurloo stated The opportunity to learn anew and understand the language of the Bible has been taken away Often the focus is on the assumed origin and history of a text a historical literary approach or a fundamentalist view creating a fragmented moralistic and doctrinaire emphasis which has alienated many from churches Instead Deurloo and others focused on the prophetic meaning that speaks to all of us as the living word of God today This alternative is rooted in the Hebrew Scriptures Its abiding prophetic message of love and justice is reiterated in the Gospels and apostolic letters Hence the choice of subtitle Rediscovering the Old Testament It is a joyful journey of discovery finding new meaning in the Bible for our lives The Westminster, 1904 Responsive Becoming: Moral Formation in Theological, Evolutionary, and Developmental Perspective Angela Carpenter, 2019-04-18 This volume offers an interdisciplinary study of Reformed sanctification and human development providing the foundation for a constructive account of Christian moral formation that is attentive both to divine grace and to the significance of natural embodied processes Angela Carpenter's argument also addresses the impressions that such theologies give namely either solitude in the face of adversity or sheer passivity Through careful examination of the doctrine of sanctification in three Reformed theologians John Calvin John Owen and Horace Bushnell Carpenter argues that human responsiveness in the context of fellowship with the triune God provides a basic framework for a theological account of moral transformation Her relational approach brings together divine and human agency in a dynamic process where both are indispensable Supplying an account of moral formation located within Christian salvation while also being attentive to embodied human nature and the sciences this book is vital to all those interested in spiritual formation and the human capacity for love Berkouwer and Catholicism Eduardo Echeverria, 2013-04-28 Gerrit Cornelis Berkouwer 1903 1996 was a great master of dogmatic and ecumenical theology He was a Reformed Protestant thinker with roots in Dutch neo Calvinism a holder of the Chair in Dogmatics 1945 1974 at the Free University Amsterdam a position previously held by his two illustrious neo Calvinist predecessors Abraham Kuyper 1837 1920 and Herman Bavinck 1854 1921 Echeverria provides a much needed in depth analysis and critique of his theology particularly his evolving relationship with Catholicism in light of Vatican II His contention is that Berkouwer's careful and nuanced examination of Catholic theology as well as possible responses to his critiques offers important clues for the contemporary ecumenical project The Heart of Piety: An Encouraging Study in Calvin's Doctrine of Assurance Timothy A.
