La plupart des sujets sont accompagnés d'une carte et d'une légende hiérarchisée correspondant à la preuve écrite de l'ESCP-HEC. L'ensemble va au-delà des preuves des classes préparatoires économiques et commerciales et peut constituer un instrument d'apprentissage pour tous les candidats aux concours administratifs ENA, des IEP ou des écoles de journalisme.

The Latest Catastrophe Henry Rousso, 2016-07-06 The writing of recent history tends to be deeply marked by conflict by personal and collective struggles rooted in horrific traumas and bitter controversies. Frequently today's historians can find themselves researching the same events that they themselves lived through. This book reflects on the concept and practices of what is called contemporary history: a history of the present time and identifies special tensions in the field between knowledge and experience, distance and proximity and objectivity and subjectivity. Henry Rousso addresses the rise of contemporary history and the relations of present-day societies to their past, especially their legacies of political violence. Focusing on France, Germany, the United Kingdom and the United States, he shows that for contemporary historians the recent past has become a problem to be solved. No longer unfolding as a series of traditions to be respected or a set of knowledge to be transmitted and built upon, history today is treated as a constant act of mourning or memory, an attempt to atone. Historians must also negotiate with strife within this field as older scholars who may have lived through events clash with younger historians who also claim to understand the experiences. Ultimately The Latest Catastrophe shows how historians at times against their will have themselves become actors in a history still being made.
