The Plural Practice of Adoption in Pacific Island States Jennifer Corrin, Sue Farran, 2018-12-11 This book deals with adoption laws and practices in small island developing states in the Pacific It commences with an introductory chapter giving an overview of relevant laws and practices and pulling together the common themes and issues raised in the book Each of the following chapters deals with adoption law and practice in a small South Pacific country The countries in question all have plural legal systems with systems of adoption and its closest customary law equivalent operating side by side In most cases there is an insufficiently developed relationship between the two systems which has resulted in a number of problems Additionally international law adds another layer of complexity Size and remoteness in the small states under discussion have a profound impact on local practices

Redefining Education and Development Kaitano Dube, 2024-10-18 The book aligns with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals SDGs particularly Goal 4 which focuses on quality education It explores the evolving role of education as a critical driver for achieving all 17 SDGs by providing a platform for discussing innovative educational models and theories that foster sustainable development The book takes an interdisciplinary approach merging educational theory developmental practice and human psychology to address complex global challenges hindering sustainable development The book includes case studies and empirical research such as exploring student entrepreneurship in the agricultural sector and the factors bridging the gap between entrepreneurial intention and venture creation These examples provide readers with practical applications of theoretical concepts and demonstrate the real world impact of educational innovations which is at the core of education delivery for all and how education touches on other areas of the SDGs The book offers valuable insights for policymakers educators and development practitioners by presenting research and theory based analyses It suggests ways to improve the academic environment to foster entrepreneurship and innovation which are key to economic development and job creation especially in regions with high youth unemployment rates The content suggests educational reforms that are responsive to the changing societal and economic landscapes The book's blend of theory and practice targets a broad audience including academic scholars students development agencies non governmental organisations and policymakers It seeks to engage these diverse readers in a conversation about the future of education and its role in achieving sustainable development In summary the book seeks to provide a comprehensive exploration of the nexus between education development and human needs in the context of the SDGs offering innovative perspectives and practical solutions to equip readers to contribute to sustainable global development

Republic of Fiji International Monetary Fund. Asia and Pacific Dept, 2016-02-22 Fiji is enjoying a strong growth momentum due to accommodative policies robust tourism and strong remittances and an improvement in the terms of trade The smooth and peaceful elections in September 2014 marked the return to democracy leading to a normalization in relations with development partners further boosting investor and consumer confidence While addressing infrastructure gaps and further improving the business climate will be critical to ensure strong sustainable and more inclusive growth this must be balanced against the need to consolidate fiscal policy Risks are tilted to the downside related to external developments and prolonged accommodative policy settings
