G.W.M. Reynolds Reimagined Jennifer Conary, Mary L. Shannon, 2023-04-21 This essay collection proposes that G W M Reynolds's contribution to Victorian print culture reveals the interrelations between authorship genre and radicalism in popular print culture of the nineteenth century As a best selling author of popular fiction marketed to the lower classes and a passionate champion of radical politics and the industrious classes Reynolds and his work demonstrate the relevance of Victorian Studies to topics of pressing contemporary concern including populism working class fiction the concept of originality and the collective scholarly endeavour to widen and undiscipline Victorian Studies Bringing together well known and newly emerging scholars from across different disciplinary perspectives the volume explores the importance of Reynolds Studies to scholarship on the nineteenth century This book will appeal to students and scholars of the nineteenth century press popular culture and of authorship as well as to Victorian Studies scholars interested in the translation of Victorian texts into new and indigenous markets

Ancestry Reimagined Kostas Kampourakis, 2023 Recent social and political psychological research indicates that increased access to ancestry testing has strengthened the notion of genetic essentialism among some groups or the idea that our biology ties us to particular ethnic identities Using research from both the social sciences and the genetics literature as support Ancestry Reimagined establishes realistic expectations about what we can learn from our DNA as a foundation for examining the psychological impact of ancestry testing including the differences between how this information is perceived versus its reality

Fairy Tales Reimagined Susan Redington Bobby, 2014-01-10 Although readers and filmgoers are strongly familiar with Disney's sanitized child centric fairy tales they are quick to catch on to reworkings of classic tales into a contemporary context The rise in such retellings seems to indicate that readers are hungry for a new narrative one that hearkens back to the old yet moves the storyline forward to reflect conditions of the modern world No mere escapist fantasies the reimagined fairy tales of the late 20th and early 21st centuries reflect social political and cultural truths Sixteen essays consider fairy tales recreated through short stories novels poetry and the graphic novel from both best selling and lesser known writers applying a variety of perspectives including postmodernism psychoanalysis Marxism feminism queer theory and gender studies Along with the classic fairy tales fiction from writers such as Neil Gaiman Stardust and Gregory Macquire Wicked is covered

Cretomania Alexandre Farnoux,2017-07-05 Since its rediscovery in the early 20th century through spectacular finds such as those by Sir Arthur Evans at Knossos Minoan Crete has captured the imagination not only of archaeologists but also of a wider public This is shown among other things by its appearance and uses in a variety of modern cultural practices from the innovative dances of Sergei Diaghilev and Ted Shawn to public and vernacular architecture psychoanalysis literature sculpture fashion designs and even neo pagan movements to mention a few examples Cretomania is the first volume entirely devoted to such modern responses to and uses of the Minoan past Although not an exhaustive and systematic study of the reception of Minoan Crete it offers a wide range of intriguing examples and represents an original contribution to a thus far underexplored aspect of Minoan studies the remarkable effects of Minoan Crete beyond the narrow boundaries of recondite archaeological research The volume is organised in three main sections the first deals with the conscious unconscious and coincidental allusions to Minoan Crete in modern architecture and also discusses archaeological reconstructions the second presents examples from the visual and performing arts as well as other cultural practices illustrating how Minoan Crete has been enlisted to explore and challenge questions of Orientalism religion sexuality and gender relations the third focuses on literature and shows how the distant Minoan past has been used to interrogate critically more recent Greek history

Writing India Anew Krishna Sen, Rituparna Roy, 2025-10-01 This groundbreaking study assesses the genre of Indian English fiction in the first decade of the twenty first century Some of the most prominent scholars in the field including Rimi B Chatterjee Bill Ashcroft and Shirley Chew explore a range of themes that extend from the re mapping of mythology and history to reassessing the globalised India of today Together they contend that the current body of work of Indian English literature is so varied and vibrant that it can no longer be dismissed as derivative or dispossessed Instead they regard this new corpus of writing to be a major aspect of contemporary Anglophone literature Ultimately the contributors contend that the current body of work in Indian English fiction is so varied and vibrant that it can no longer be dismissed as derivative or dispossessed or even as mere postcolonial writing back or compensatory national allegory

Bloody Living Rhona Trench, 2010 This book deals with the process of negotiation with the past in the present through the plays of Marina Carr The title frames the work connoting the path towards destruction and the sense of lethargy acquired along the way The book offers an in depth and extensive reading of Carr s plays In doing so it surveys some of the destructive issues represented in the works and provides a series of social and cultural contexts to which the concerns in the works are related Carr is best known for her trilogy The Mai Portia Coughlan and By the Bog of Cats and more recently Woman and Scarecrow The Cordelia Dream and Marble The plays are regularly concerned with notions of identity in the context of self destruction self estrangement and displacement This book applies Julia Kristeva s theory of abjection to Carr s plays in an effort to structure the loss the author identifies in the works Themes of memory history and myth are examined in the context of these concerns in provocative and confrontational ways

Care at the End of the World Jina

B. Kim, 2025-03-21 In Care at the End of the World Jina B Kim develops what she calls crip of color critique bringing a disability lens to bear on feminist and queer of color literature in the aftermath of 1996 US welfare reform and the subsequent evisceration of social safety nets She examines literature by contemporary feminist queer and disabled writers of color such as Jesmyn Ward Octavia Butler Karen Tei Yamashita Samuel Delany and Aurora Levins Morales who each bring disability and dependency to the forefront of their literary freedom dreaming Kim shows that in their writing liberation does not take the shape of the unfettered individual or hinge on achieving independence Instead liberation emerges by recuperating dependency cultivating radical interdependency and recognizing the numerous support systems upon which survival depends At the same time Kim demonstrates how theories and narratives of disability can intervene into state authored myths of resource parasitism such as the welfare queen In so doing she highlights the alternate structures of care these writers envision and their dreams of life organized around reciprocity and mutual support Duke University Press Scholars of Color First Book Award
