Reinhold Messner My Life At The Limit Legends Lore:

Reinhold Messner Reinhold Messner,2014-09-19 Reveals the long view from an icon who with age has added wisdom to his list of accomplishments Messner climbing firsts the world's fourteen peaks taller than 8000 meters Everest solo Everest without supplemental oxygen Author of more than 60 books Reinhold Messner My Life at the Limit the newest book by the famed mountaineer is a conversation between Messner and interviewer Thomas H etlin an award winning German journalist It reveals a more thoughtful and conversational Messner than one finds in his previous books with the talk between Messner and H etlin covering not only the highlights of Messner's climbing career but also his treks across Tibet the Gobi and Antarctica his five year stint as a member of the European Parliament his encounter with and study of the yeti his thoughts on traditional male female roles and much more Readers learn about Messner's childhood his thoughts about eating ice cream with girls against politics mostly liberal and his technique for killing chickens sharp scissors Messner is known as one of history's greatest Himalayan mountaineers a man who pushed back the frontiers of the possible for a whole generation of climbers While the interest in My Life at the Limit is that it exposes much more of the man than his climbing career that career is still utterly remarkable and Mountaineers Books is proud to present this book which is core to our mission to audiences across North America For a limited time donors to our Legends and Lore series will receive a signed copy of My Life at the Limit Click here to learn more

Night Naked Erhard Loretan,2016-09-07 Loretan is often credited with bringing fast and light style to the highest mountains New foreword by bestselling writer David Roberts On October 5 1995 Erhard Loretan became the third person to climb all fourteen 8000 meter peaks and the second to climb them without supplemental oxygen He also became one of only a handful of individuals to climb Everest via the Hornbein Couloir he and Jean Troillet completed the roundtrip climb in only 43 hours An influential climber Loretan's story has never before been told in English He writes with humor often deprecating his own accomplishments and he is shockingly honest On Cho Oyu for instance his climbing partner Pierre Alain Steiner fell hundreds of meters Loretan called out to what he assumed would be a corpse Unexpectedly Steiner called back Loretan writes knowing that what he is about to share is terrible that he felt no joy on hearing his friend's voice because rescue was impossible in so remote a place This title is part of our LEGENDS AND LORE series Click here to learn more

Food on Foot Demet Güzey,2017-04-01 What did great adventurers eat during their expeditions to the far corners of the world How did they view the role of food in their survival and wellbeing What about hikers and backpackers today who set out to enjoy nature pushing their own boundaries of comfort for adventure How does food impact their experience And what do they have in common with pilgrims and soldiers Food is a significant element of our relationship with nature Whether a historical expedition or a weekend camping trip a journey made on foot requires sustenance Without mastering our relationship with food we would have not been to the South Pole or summited Mt Everest or expanded to the west of America However in the reporting of these expeditions so far food has rarely taken a central role

It is possible to take a different stance and look at our time on trails with food as the leading character Here Demet G zey offers a fun and interesting read on the social and cultural history developments and challenges in food on trails and in the wild She explores personal accounts news articles and anecdotes to highlight how food has accompanied us in mountaineering desert travel and pilgrimage in the army or on the street From tinned foods to foraging in the wild worm infested hardtack to palate dulling army rations loss of appetite in high altitude to starvation at the trenches no stone is left unturned in this tour of how we manage food on foot and how disasters happen when we do not manage it so well Readers will delight in both the stories of many of the famous explorations and the more current journeys Moon Grand
