The Public Image of Eastern Orthodoxy Heather L. Bailey, 2020-06-15 Focusing on the period between the revolutions of 1848-1849 and the First Vatican Council 1869-1870 The Public Image of Eastern Orthodoxy explores the circumstances under which westerners concerned about the fate of the papacy the Ottoman Empire Poland and Russian imperial power began to conflate the Russian Orthodox Church with the state and to portray the Church as the political tool of despotic tsars As Heather L. Bailey demonstrates in response to this reductionist view Russian Orthodox publicists launched a public relations campaign in the West especially in France in the 1850s and 1860s The linchpin of their campaign was the building of the impressive Saint Alexander Nevsky Church in Paris consecrated in 1861 Bailey posits that as the embodiment of the belief that Russia had a great historical purpose inextricably tied to Orthodoxy the Paris church both reflected and contributed to the rise of religious nationalism in Russia that followed the Crimean War At the same time the confrontation with westerners' negative ideas about the Eastern Church fueled a reformist spirit in Russia while contributing to a better understanding of Eastern Orthodoxy in the West economics Arbitration in Argentina Fabricio Fortese, 2020-11-17 This publication is the most comprehensive international book on arbitration in Argentina. It provides a complete description and analysis of the historical and contemporary structure of arbitration law and practice in the country which is based on the UNCITRAL Model Law. Its chapters are authored by many of the most regarded Argentine authorities, many of whom are responsible for drafting Argentina's current arbitration regulation. Throughout its thirty-one chapters, the book covers an ample number of topics in commercial and investment arbitration and an exhaustive analysis of arbitration in different specific fields: energy, sports, consumers, among others. Some of the topics addressed in this book include the following: regulatory framework of arbitration in Argentina; arbitration agreements; arbitral proceedings and the applicable law; issues of arbitrability; interim measures; costs and financing of arbitrations; validity, recognition and enforcement of awards; arbitration and the MERCOSUR. This publication also includes some particular studies, for example, those related to the tensions between investment arbitration and human rights, as well as the relationship between the country and the ICC and the PCA. Although mainly focused in Argentina, the discussions contained in several contributions exceed such geographical boundaries. Given that the law and practice of arbitration in Argentina has seen remarkable changes in recent decades, this book is an essential tool for arbitrators, judges, in-house counsels, global law firms, large and medium-sized companies doing transnational business, interested academics and international arbitration centres. Because this publication draws from the teachings and experience of leading academics and practitioners, arbitration specialists will find in it all the guidance needed to identify and assess the different theoretical and practical legal avenues available when working on arbitrations with a seat in Argentina or with an Argentine element.

Political Islam Khalad Hroub, 2012-06-15 This volume offers a comprehensive discussion of the contemporary debates within political Islam, providing an in-depth analysis of the specific movements, countries and regions in the Arab world and Israel. The contributors contend that the evolution of Islamic movements is contextual rather than ideological. Therefore, Islamic movements are best understood individually within their own historical, socio-political and cultural setting. Political Islam is an essential reference for academics, researchers and the media, as well as general readers with an interest in Islamic political debates. Contributors include Abdullah Baabood, Youcef Bouandel, Abdelwahab El Affendi, Kamal Helbawy, Roel Meijer, Ibrahim Moussawi, Tariq Ramadan, Tilde Rosmer, Murad Batal al Shishani, Sara Silvestri and Camille Tawil. J. van den Berg, 2011-01-01 Advocacy in international arbitration is the focus of this collection of articles emanating from the twentieth Congress of the International Council for Commercial Arbitration (ICCA) held in Rio de Janeiro in 2010. The volume also contains a new approach to expert evidence the Protocol on Expert Teaming and closes with a proposal for an International Code of Ethics for Lawyers Practicing Before International Arbitral Tribunals Livres de France ,2010 Includes 1982 1995 Les Livres du mois also published separately Current Law Index ,2007 Islam and the Arab Revolutions Usaama Al-Azami,2022-05-01 The Arab revolutions of 2011 were a transformative moment in the modern history of the Middle East as people rose up against long standing autocrats throughout the region to call for bread freedom and dignity With the passage of time results have been decidedly mixed with tentative success stories like Tunisia contrasting with the emergence of even more repressive dictatorships in places like Egypt with the backing of several Gulf states Focusing primarily on Egypt this book considers a relatively understudied dimension of these revolutions the role of prominent religious scholars While pro revolutionary ulama have justified activism against authoritarian regimes counter revolutionary scholars have provided religious backing for repression and in some cases the mass murder of unarmed protestors Usaama al Azami traces the public engagements and religious pronouncements of several prominent ulama in the region including Yusuf al Qaradawi Ali Gomaa and Abdullah bin Bayyah to explore their role in either championing the Arab revolutions or supporting their repression He concludes that while a minority of noted scholars have enthusiastically endorsed the counter revolutions their approach is attributable less to premodern theology and more to their distinctly modern commitment to the authoritarian state Bibliographie internationale de la littérature périodique dans les domaines des sciences humaines et sociales ,2007
