Redeem Sunday School Manual 2015:

Christianity and Controversies over Homosexuality in Contemporary Africa Ezra Chitando, Adriaan van Klinken, 2016-05-12 Issues of homosexuality are the subject of public and political controversy in many African societies today. Frequently these controversies receive widespread attention both locally and globally such as with the Anti Homosexuality Bill in Uganda. In the international media these cases tend to be presented as revealing a deeply rooted homophobia in Africa fuelled by religious and cultural traditions. But so far little energy is expended in understanding these controversies in all their complexity and the critical role religion plays in them. Complementing the companion volume Public Religion and the Politics of Homosexuality in Africa this book investigates Christian politics and discourses on homosexuality in sub-Saharan Africa. The contributors present case studies from various African countries from Nigeria to South Africa and from Cameroon to Uganda focusing on Pentecostal Catholic and mainline Protestant churches. They critically examine popular Christian theologies that perpetuate homophobia and discrimination but they also discuss contestations of such discourses and emerging alternative Christian perspectives that contribute to the recognition of sexual diversity, social justice and human rights in contemporary Africa.

Transnational Religious Spaces Philip Clart, Adam Jones, 2020-07-06 This volume bringing together work by scholars from Europe, East Asia, North America and West Africa investigates transnational religious spaces in a comparative manner by juxtaposing East Asian and African examples. It highlights flows of ideas, actors and organizations out of, into or within a given continental space. These flows are patterned mainly by colonialism or migration. The book also examines cases where the transnational space in question encompasses both East Asia and Africa, notably in the development of Japanese new religions in Africa. Most of the studies are located in the present, a few go back to the late nineteenth century. The volume is rounded off by Thomas Tweed's systematic reflections on categories for the study of transnationalism. His chapter Flows and Dams critically weighs the metaphorical language we use to think, speak and write about transnational religious spaces.

Excerpt from Missions in the Sunday School A Manual of Methods No Sunday school can live within four square walls To attempt it is suicidal The Church Sunday school or individual for that matter whose Christian life is self centered has already started on a fatal decline There is absolutely no exception to this rule On the other hand the opposite is true that the Church Sunday school or individual with a world view of the kingdom of Jesus Christ and recognizing responsibility thereto will grow in spirituality and power We have forgotten all too long that the way to have plenty at home is to make a little cake for God first Never have I held a book in my hand with greater joy than this volume Never was a book more greatly needed especially in the Sunday school world It deals with fundamentals The very foundation of our success is here treated with a master hand and in the simplest and most practical manner The more our Sunday schools know about missions the more they will desire to help the cause The more they help the greater will be their interest in their home work About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
