

Character Reference Letter for School

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing in reference to {Name's} application to the {name of school} graduate program.

I have had the privilege of knowing {Name} because of {his/her} involvement with {school, place of employment, etc.}, and I am excited about the prospect of {him/her} continuing {his/her} education with a graduate degree.

{Name} is exactly the type of student you want in your program. {He/she} is dedicated to {type of program study}, and is constantly seeking new methods of learning, and then finding interesting ways to apply that knowledge. {He/she} never presumes to have all the information, but is rather interested in hearing from all kinds of different sources in {his/her} quest to form an opinion or prove a hypothesis.

{Name} is also a conscientious team player who cares as much about the education and success of those around {him/her} as {he/she} does about {his/her} own.

{Name} would be a welcome addition to your program, and I hope you will strongly consider admitting {him/her}.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions.

Sincerely,

{Sender}

A Charter School Principal Story Barbara J. Smith, 2024-03-18 What happens when a Canadian principal guided by the teachings of Fullan and Hargreaves takes on the role of school leader in an inner city charter school in the United States This inside story of a principal in the DC charter school system reveals much about the desire for educators and students to experience more than a life of multiple choice testing that tends to be so commonplace in these schools While such a case adds to the mound of research that supports the change takes time findings it nevertheless demonstrates the reality on a day to day basis of what s worth fighting for in schools Student and teacher engagement and empowerment matter and to get to such ends a school must fiercely focus on targets well beyond test scores
