hinder the easy transition of international students still remain unchanged.

An international student's experience of transition from high school to college is complex and multifaceted. Along with this, I find adjusting to the change in food and meal times very hard."

International students also face sociocultural challenges. Arriving from another country, they face problems even in their daily lives and are exposed to a different reality. The first thing they have to deal with is learning to survive in a new community. Perceptions of academic stress and coping strategies might differ across countries, but having a support system helps make any transition easier. However, for international students, there is rarely something they can call a
