Reflect And Learn Cps Chicago:

The Course Reflection Project Nicole Schonemann, Emily Metzgar, Andrew Libby, 2015-05-01 Service learning is entering a post initiatory phase At tertiary institutions of all types and sizes service learning programs are common and service learning requirements for graduation are growing in popularity Taken together alongside continued faculty interest in effective teaching these factors have raised the visibility and popularity of service learning Now the greater need in service learning is not to prove the need for or efficacy of service learning but to turn the focus squarely back on practice Following established best practice is not enough instructors also need to reflect on how this fits within the specific context and application of each unique course and service learning partnership While there are many excellent resources that detail best practice and showcase exemplary service learning courses faculty reflection and course revision often goes unmentioned In response to the lack of attention on the role of reflection and course revision we convened groups of faculty from a variety of disciplines to reflect deeply on their courses paying specific attention to obstacles and challenges These conversations were converted to articles for this edited collection each chapter representing the process of reflection and revision and serving as a guide to develop effective practice in varied curricular contexts This text contributes to the body of literature on service learning in a unique and practical manner Faculty teaching or interested in teaching service learning classes would benefit from this text as well as university administrators and community service directors involved in service learning at a programmatic and institutional level This book should be marketed to faculty teaching disciplinary service learning classes and service learning pedagogy classes and administrative offices involved in service learning This could be a supplementary text for graduate level pedagogy courses Higher education institutional libraries would benefit from this text as well as the national and state campus compact offices

Yoon,2012-03-07 Prevention research has traditionally focused on preventive interventions tied to specific disorders e g substance abuse conduct disorders or criminality This produced silos of isolated knowledge about the prevention of individual disorders but not about interventions that work across disorders This handbook is the first to comprehensively describe current research and practice in mental health prevention programs that is organized around comprehensive prevention systems that reach across all disorders and all institutions within a community Throughout the book preventive interventions are seen as a necessary component of effective mental health programs not as a replacement for therapeutic interventions Provided by publisher

Preparing Leaders for Deeper Learning Marjorie E. Wechsler,Steven K. Wojcikiewicz,2023-10-03 An astute assessment of the educational leadership skills and leadership development practices that align with deeper learning in K 12 schools Preparing Leaders for Deeper Learning spotlights educational leaders as key actors in the urgent task of readying students for college careers and citizenship in an evolving world Marjorie Wechsler and Steven Wojcikiewicz argue that in response to new understandings of learning and development and emerging societal needs K 12 school leaders must be able to shift institutions toward deeper learning models in which collaboration critical thinking and project based learning are fundamental concepts Through detailed case studies Wechsler and Wojcikiewicz demonstrate how educational leadership development programs can prepare principals to guide their schools teachers and students toward deeper learning and equity They highlight the approaches of five exemplary leadership preparation programs the University of Illinois at Chicago Long Beach Unified School District Arkansas Leadership Academy National Institute for School Leadership and the University of California Berkeley which together serve educational leaders at all career levels from initial training for candidates through in service professional development for seasoned school principals They identify school structures and classroom practices that enable these programs to confer the skill set needed for deeper learning leadership and they describe the education policy priorities that can support school leaders in acquiring these necessary skills This book shows that targeted leadership development is a vital component of transforming schools to create deeper learning opportunities for all students Transforming Teacher Education through Service-Learning Virginia M. Jagla, Joseph A. Erickson, Alan S. Tinkler, 2013-12-01 Transforming Teacher Education through Service Learning provides a fresh look at educational reform through the lens of teacher preparation It poses the question Why service learning now as it discusses the meaningful ways service learning pedagogy can transform the approaches used to prepare teachers to educate tomorrow s children The pedagogy of service learning has significant implications for teacher education Its transformative aspects have far reaching potential to address teacher candidate dispositions and provide deeper understanding of diversity Knowledge of the pedagogy and how to implement it in candidates future classrooms could alter education to a more powerful experience of democracy in action and enhance the civic mission of schools The current and ongoing research found within this volume is meant to continue support of the notion of educational reform Because the vision we hold becomes the reality we experience it is imperative to consider the question Why service learning now as we adjust teacher preparation programs to promote engaging opportunities for today s youth Deeper Competency-Based Learning Karin Hess, Rose Colby, Daniel Joseph, 2020-05-06 The roadmap for your school s CBE journey The one size fits all instructional and assessment practices of the past no longer equitably meet the needs of all students Competency based education CBE has emerged not only as an innovation in education but as a true transformation of the approaches to how we traditionally do school In Deeper Competency Based Learning the authors share best practices from their experiences implementing CBE across states districts and schools Leaving no stone unturned readers are guided step by step through CBE implementation and validation phases beginning with defining your WHY and collaborative development of the competencies describing deeper learning The CBE readiness tools and reflections inside will help your team Build the foundation for organizational shifts by examining policies leadership culture and professional learning Dig in to shifts in teaching and learning structures by addressing rigorous learning goals competency based assessment evidence based grading and body of evidence validation Take a deep dive into the shift to student centered classrooms through personalized instructional strategies that change mindsets regarding teacher student roles responsibilities and classroom culture Discover how your students can demonstrate deeper learning of academic content and develop personal success skills by maximizing time place and pace of learning with this roadmap for your CBE journey

Examining Productivity ,1998 Looking Like a Language, Sounding Like a Race Jonathan Rosa, 2019 Looking like a Language Sounding like a Race examines the emergence of linguistic and ethnoracial categories in the context of Latinidad The book draws from more than twenty four months of ethnographic and sociolinguistic fieldwork in a Chicago public school whose student body is more than 90% Mexican and Puerto Rican to analyze the racialization of language and its relationship to issues of power and national identity It focuses specifically on youth socialization to U S Latinidad as a contemporary site of political anxiety raciolinguistic transformation and urban inequity Jonathan Rosa s account studies the fashioning of Latinidad in Chicago s highly segregated Near Northwest Side he links public discourse concerning the rising prominence of U S Latinidad to the institutional management and experience of raciolinguistic identities there Anxieties surrounding Latinx identities push administrators to transform at risk Mexican and Puerto Rican students into young Latino professionals This institutional effort which requires students to learn to be and importantly sound like themselves in highly studied ways reveals administrators attempts to navigate a precarious urban terrain in a city grappling with some of the nation s highest youth homicide dropout and teen pregnancy rates Rosa explores the ingenuity of his research participants responses to these forms of marginalization through the contestation of political ethnoracial and linguistic borders
