Reflection Principles And Practice For Healthcare Professionals:

Reflection: Principles and Practices for Healthcare Professionals 2nd Edition Tony Ghaye, Sue Lillyman, 2014-10-07 In this newly updated edition of the bestselling Reflections Principles and Practice for Healthcare Professionals the authors reinforce the need to invest in the development of reflective practice not only for practitioners but also for healthcare students. The book discusses the need for skilful facilitation, high quality mentoring and the necessity for good support networks. The book describes the 12 principles of reflection and the many ways it can be facilitated. It attempts to support with evidence the claims that reflection can be a catalyst for enhancing clinical competence, safe and accountable practice, professional self confidence, self regulation and the collective improvement of more considered and appropriate healthcare. Each principle is illustrated with examples from practice and clearly positioned within the professional literature. New chapters on appreciative reflection and the value of reflection for continuing professional development are included, making this an essential guide for all healthcare professionals. Reflection Tony Ghaye, 2000 Theory and Practice of Nursing Lynn Basford, Oliver Slevin, 2003 This is a comprehensive guide to the theory and practice of nursing, addressing the nursing theory and skills specific to clients and patients' needs. Each chapter has learning outcomes, study activities and reflection to prompt readers to learn as they read. The Business Side of Learning Design and Technologies Shahron Williams van Rooij, 2017-09-22 The Business Side of Learning Design and Technologies provides a ready reference with actionable tools and techniques for recognizing the impact of learning design technology decisions at the project, business unit and organizational levels. Written for early and mid career learning designers and developers as well as students and researchers in instructional learning design and technology programs, this volume focuses on the business issues underlying the selection, design, implementation and evaluation of learning opportunities. Using scholarly and practitioner research, interviews with Learning and Development thought leaders and the author's own experience, readers will learn how to speak the language of business to demonstrate the value of learning design and technologies. Developing the Reflective Healthcare Team Tony Ghaye, 2008-04-15 Team working and learning through reflection are both fundamental to quality healthcare. This book is the first to explore the use of the practices of reflection to develop health care teams that can deliver sustainable, high quality, personalised care. Developing the Reflective Healthcare Team is structured in three parts which are about new views of reflective practice, improving team working and the use of the TA2LK facilitative reflective process to develop high performing teams. Doing Practitioner Research Mark Fox, Gill Green, Peter Martin, 2007-03-21 Doing Practitioner Research focuses on helping practitioners conduct research in their own organisations and attention is given to the best methods for doing this effectively and sensitively. The authors also attend to the theoretical, political and organisational context of doing research as well as addressing the ethical and practical issues of undertaking research. The authors cover in detail the range of skills and techniques necessary to make a successful start to the process of becoming an effective practitioner researcher This is an ideal text for growing number of practitioners working in health education and social care who are undertaking research Fox et al have provided the perfect introduction to why practitioners are in the unique position to conduct research that actually improves professional practice This book will be essential reading for those professionals practitioners engaged in research in their own organisation or undertaking a post graduate qualification in Health Social Care or Education
