

REFLECTIVE JOURNAL

The main aim of this journal is to keep a record of my thoughts, notes, reflections and questions about this subject, and some implementation activities related to this subject that I have carried out in my classes. All the information we can find in this journal is connected, however I have decided to classify them by topics.

❖ Balanced Assessment System.

Balanced Assessment System (B.A.S.) refers to the strategy of using formative and summative assessment and the benchmarks to know if students are or not learning and improving. It is really useful to address immediate students' needs, informs ongoing instructional adjustments, and guides long-term educational improvement. B.A.S. focuses on both strengths and weaknesses and, because of that, a variety of assessment types are carried out to fit each student we have in the class.

❖ Formative and summative assessment in B.A.S.

In order to get the best formative and summative assessment in B.A.S. it is important to take into account some steps, they are as follows:

1. Think about the students' needs and interests.
2. Design the instruction.
3. Let students know the learning target.
4. Give feedback to the students.
5. Guide and take care of the students' progress.
6. Reflect on their progress and make them do it.

On the other hand, it is also relevant to determine the level of the students achievement after having studied a topic, or after the term, etc.

❖ The Seven Strategies (7S).

1. Provide students with a clear and understandable vision of the learning target. Let them know what they are learning and why they are doing it. It is important to use a clear language that should be

Howell, Shawn A. Faulkner, Jeanneine Jones, Jan Carpenter, 2018-05-01 Over the last decade significant changes have occurred in how schools are organized how educators are prepared and certified how accreditation policies have shifted both curriculum and content as well as changes to the demographics of middle school classrooms This volume Preparing Middle Level Educators for 21st Century Schools Enduring Beliefs Changing Times Evolving Practices provides a review of current research focused on middle level educator preparation at all levels Our enduring beliefs about young adolescents have not changed e g need for developmentally responsive instruction caring adults who understand them and are prepared to teach them opportunities to explore their interests but the political and sociocultural climate of schools and schooling has In light of changing times this volume allows researchers and teacher educators to share research from their context and inform the evolving practices of educator preparation for the middle level. The research presented in this volume is organized into three sections with an introduction provided for each. The authors grounded their work in the Association for Middle Level Education's teacher preparation standards 2012 and tenets of This We Believe NMSA 2010. By doing so they examine topics that hold potential for meeting the learning needs of teachers and students in middle level schools. The first section includes chapters from individuals working to ensure that the enduring beliefs of middle level education continue to guide the structures of their middle level teacher preparation programs. The second set of chapters closely examines how changing times are shaping the work of teacher educators. Finally the last section spotlights evolving practices that continue to develop in response to the changes impacting our classrooms, schools and communities. This text provides readers with researched based practices and information to help them continue the tradition of middle level teacher education. The enduring beliefs of preparing teachers who understand respect and honor the many talents, gifts and contributions of the young adolescent student will guide teacher educators as they respond to the changing times of education and the evolving practices of teachers, teacher educators and schools.
