The Tacit Dimension Lara Schrijver, 2021-05-03 In architecture tacit knowledge plays a substantial role in both the design process and its reception The essays in this book explore the tacit dimension of architecture in its aesthetic material cultural design based and reflexive understanding of what we build Tacit knowledge described in 1966 by Michael Polanyi as what we can know but cannot tell often denotes knowledge that escapes quantifiable dimensions of research Much of architecture's knowledge resides beneath the surface in nonverbal instruments such as drawings and models that articulate the spatial imagination of the design process Awareness of the tacit dimension helps to understand the many facets of the spaces we inhabit from the ideas of the architect to the more hidden assumptions of our cultures Beginning in the studio where students are guided into becoming architects the book follows a path through the tacit knowledge present in materials conceptual structures and the design process revealing how the tacit dimension leads to craftsmanship and the situated knowledge of architecture in the world Contributors Tom Avermaete ETH Zürich Margitta Buchert Leibniz Universität Hannover Christoph Grafe Bergische Universität Wuppertal Mari Lending The Oslo School of Architecture and Design Angelika Schnell Academy of Fine Arts Vienna Eireen Schreurs Delft University of Technology Lara Schrijver University of Antwerp

CA²RE+ 3 – Frameworks of Design-Driven Research Borrego, Ignacio, Pasel, Ralf, Weidinger, Jürgen, 2023-03-02 After the six conferences for artistic and architectural research CA RE has contributed substantially to the fact that design driven research today is a widely established and scientifically accepted research method on most European countries and the number of involved universities is an indicator for a rapidly growing community in the field of practice based research This big effort has meant an interchange of knowledge and at the same time the construction of an international net with very valuable connections We have created a collective learning environment where we have developed a multidisciplinary approach to a design driven methodology on scientific research along six steps observation sharing comparison reflection reformulation and recommendation that arrive now to an end or at least to a preliminary evaluation after this three year journey In this final book we collect and share the results of the last two events Ljubljana and Delft and the recommendations and conclusions from all partners participating in the whole process Nach den sechs Konferenzen zu Themen der künstlerischen und architektonischen Forschung hat CA RE wesentlich dazu beigetragen dass Design Driven Research heute eine weithin etablierte und wissenschaftlich akzeptierte Forschungsmethode in den meisten europäischen Ländern ist Die Zahl der beteiligten Universitäten ist ein Indikator für eine schnell wachsende Gemeinschaft im Bereich der praxisorientierten Forschung Diese Anstrengung hat einen Wissensaustausch und gleichzeitig den Aufbau eines internationalen Netzwerkes mit wertvollen Verbindungen hervorgebracht Wir haben ein kollektives Lernumfeld geschaffen in dem wir einen multidisziplinären Ansatz für eine gestaltungsorientierte Methodik der wissenschaftlichen Forschung in sechs Schritten entwickelt haben Beobachtung Austausch Vergleich Reflexion Neuformulierung und Empfehlung Diese Entwicklung kommt nun nach drei Jahren zu einem Ende oder zumindest zu einer vorläufigen Bewertung In diesem abschließenden Buch werden die Ergebnisse der letzten beiden Veranstaltungen Ljubljana und Delft sowie die Empfehlungen und Schlussfolgerungen aller am gesamten Prozess beteiligten Partner zusammengefasst

Epistemic Artefacts Matthias Ballestrem, Lidia Gasperoni, 2022-09-05 Epistemic Artefacts A Dialogical Reflection on Design Research in Architecture Edited by Matthias Ballestrem and Lidia Gasperoni Architectural artefacts are negotiated as epistemic objects an autonomous and innovative form of knowledge capable of inaugurating and institutionalising architectural research The backbone of this publication is a dialogue between the architect Matthias Ballestrem and the philosopher and architectural theorist Lidia Gasperoni In a vibrant discussion they consider the epistemic value of the architectural artefact the role of research practices in making this knowledge explicit and accessible and the criteria for qualifying as design based research Alex Arteaga Fabrizia Berlingieri Peter Bertram Helga Blocksdorf Anelka Bnin Bninski Marta Fernandez Guardado Joerg Fingerhut Anke Haarmann Rolf Hughes Rachel Hurst Daniel Norell Tomas Ooms Claus Peder Pedersen Tim Simon Meyer and Philip Ursprung have added short comments and images to enrich the arguments with criticism extensions associations and references An afterword by Marcelo Stamm provides a theoretical reflection on a possible taxonomy of epistemic artefacts

Design Research in Architecture Murray Fraser, 2021-07-28 What is the role of design research in the types of insight and knowledge that architects create That is the central question raised by this book It acts as the introductory overview for Ashgate's major new series Design Research in Architecture which has been created in order to establish a firm basis for this emerging field of investigation within architecture While there have been numerous architects scholars since the Renaissance who have relied upon the interplay of drawings models textual analysis intellectual ideas and cultural insights to scrutinise the discipline nonetheless until recently there has been a reluctance within architectural culture to acknowledge and accept the role of design research as part of the discourse However in many countries around the world one of the key changes in architecture and architectural education over the last decade has been the acceptance of design as a legitimate research area in its own right and this new series provides a forum where the best proponents of architectural design research can publish their work This volume provides a broad overview on design research that supports and amplifies the different volumes coming out in the book series It brings together leading architects and academics to discuss the more general issues involved in design research At the end there is an Indicative Bibliography which alludes to a long history of architectural books which can be seen as being in the spirit of design research

Spatial Transformation Milad Abassiharofteh, Jessica Baier, Angelina Göb, Insa Thimm, Andreas Eberth, Falco

Knaps,Vilja Larjosto,Fabiana Zebner,2022 What can be understood by spatial transformation how does it manifest itself and what are the characteristics of transformation processes This Research Report addresses these questions and presents current research projects and approaches from an academic and practical planning perspective A central point of reference is the concept of a Great Transformation which stems from an expert report by the German Advisory Council on Global Change WBGU It outlines the profound changes in the economy and society towards sustainability that will become necessary in the future describing them as a Great Transformation Likewise social upheavals also manifest themselves in space enabling spatial changes to be understood as spatial transformations However on a detailed level it remains unclear what is to be understood by spatial transformation processes and how they manifest themselves Against the background of this need for further research this Research Report addresses concrete issues in the research and shaping of spatial transformation processes The aim is to systematise the largely unordered or disordered knowledge of spatial transformation processes and to contribute to a common understanding of the associated concepts which can form the basis for further research and for the steering of these processes The articles on the following topics show how spatial and social transformation processes are mutually dependent and what opportunities and challenges inter and transdisciplinary research designs can offer in this context Perspectives on transformation processes Social and settlement structures in change Regional development and innovation Transformation processes in the so called Global South New challenges for planning processes and stakeholders Research on transformation The contributions to theoretical methodological and practical approaches are intended to stimulate a critical discussion on spatial transformation that is open to new interdisciplinary perspectives

Architectural Research Addressing Societal Challenges Manuel Jorge Rodrigues Couceiro da Costa, Filipa Roseta, Joana Pestana Lages, Susana Couceiro da Costa, 2019-08-08 The escalating interdependency of nations drives global geopolitics to shift ever more quickly Societies seem unable to control any change that affects their cities whether positively or negatively Challenges are global but solutions need to be implemented locally How can architectural research contribute to the future of our changing society How has it contributed in the past The theme of the 10th EAAE ARCC International Conference Architectural Research Addressing Societal Challenges was set to address these questions This book Architectural Research Addressing Societal Challenges includes reviewed papers presented in June 2016 at the 10th EAAE ARCC International Conference which was held at the facilities of the Faculty of Architecture of the University of Lisbon The papers have been further divided into the following five sub themes a Changing Society In Transit Global Migration Renaturalization of the City Emerging Fields of Architectural Practice and Research on Architectural Education The EAAE ARCC International Conference held under the aegis of the EAAE and of the ARCC is a conference organized every other year in collaboration with one of the member schools universities of those associations alternatively in North America or in Europe

Expanding Fields of Architectural Discourse and Practice Matthew Butcher, Megan O'Shea, 2020-11-27 Expanding Fields of Architectural Discourse and Practice presents a selection of essays architectural experiments and works that explore the diversity within the fields of contemporary architectural practice and discourse Specific in this selection is the question of how and why architecture can and should manifest in a critical and reflective capacity as well as to examine how the discipline currently resonates with contemporary art practice It does so by reflecting on the first 10 years of the architectural journal P E A R 2009 to 2019 The volume argues that the initial aims of the journal to explore and celebrate the myriad forms through which architecture can exist are now more relevant than ever to contemporary architectural discourse and practice Included in the volume are architectural practitioners design researchers artists architectural theorists historians journalists curators and a paleobiologist all of whom contributed to the first seven issues of the journal Here they provide a unique presentation of architectural discourse and practice that seeks to test new ground while forming distinct relationships to recent and more longstanding historical legacies Praise for Expanding Fields of Architectural Discourse and Practice The story told by the authors of this work can thus be considered as the central tool of an architectural transgression Critique d art
