pandemic and highlights academic issues and region specific challenges The reflections presented in this book offer insights for other staff and students as well as academic policy makers regarding the pandemic experiences of those within academia It also offers practical suggestions as to how we as a global community can move forward post pandemic Psychological Studies of Science and Technology Kieran C. O'Doherty, Lisa M. Osbeck, Ernst Schraube, Jeffery Yen, 2019-08-24 This book provides a significant contribution to scholarship on the psychology of science and the psychology of technology by showcasing a range of theory and research distinguished as psychological studies of science and technology Science and technology are central to almost all domains of human activity for which reason they are the focus of subdisciplines such as philosophy of science philosophy of technology sociology of knowledge and history of science and technology To date psychology has been marginal in this space and limited to relatively narrow epistemological orientations By explicitly embracing pluralism and an international approach this book offers new perspectives and directions for psychological contributions The book brings together leading theorists and researchers from around the world and spans scholarship across a variety of traditions that include theoretical psychology critical psychology feminist psychology and social constructionist approaches Following a historical and conceptual introduction the collection is divided into three sections Scoping a New Psychology of Science and Technology Applying Psychological Concepts to the Study of Science and Technology and Critical Perspectives on Psychology as a Science The book will interest interdisciplinary scholars who work in the space of Science and Technology Studies and psychologists interested in the diverse human aspects of science and technology Research Methods for Social Justice and Equity in Education Kamden K. Strunk, Leslie Ann Locke, 2019-02-26 This textbook presents an integrative approach to thinking about research methods for social justice In today's education landscape there is a growing interest in scholar activism and ways of doing research that advances educational equity This text provides a foundational overview of important theoretical and philosophical issues specific to this kind of work in Section I In Section II readers engage with various ways of thinking about collecting and analyzing data including qualitative quantitative and mixed methods approaches Finally in Section III through case studies and research narratives readers will learn about real scholars and their work This book takes a wide ranging approach to ways that various modalities and practices of research can contribute to an equity mission The SAGE Handbook of Grounded Theory Antony Bryant, Kathy Charmaz, 2010-01-21 Grounded Theory is by far the most widely used research method across a wide range of disciplines and subject areas including social sciences nursing and healthcare medical sociology information systems psychology and anthropology This handbook gives a comprehensive overview of the theory and practice of Grounded Theory taking into account the many attempts to revise and refine Glaser and Strauss original formulation and the debates that have followed Antony Bryant Kathy Charmaz bring together leading researchers and practitioners of the method from the US the UK Australia and Europe to represent all the major standpoints within Grounded Theory demonstrating the richness of the approach The contributions cover a wide range of perspectives on the method covering its features and ramifications its intricacies in use its demands on the skills and capabilities of the researcher and its position in the domain of research methods The SAGE Handbook of Grounded Theory is an indispensable reference source for academics and researchers across many disciplines who want to develop their understanding of the Grounded Theory method

An Introduction to Qualitative Research Maria K. E. Lahman, 2024-04-15 This engaging introduction to all aspects of qualitative research challenges students to consider how their research can be culturally responsive The first part of the book introduces the foundations including theory ethics and reflexivity with an emphasis on multiple methodologies from traditional to critical and cutting edge The second part covers practical guidance from writing proposals to data collection and includes a chapter dedicated to creating a culturally responsive relationship with research participants Finally readers engage with how the quality of research is enhanced how data are analyzed and how research accounts are created and disseminated Areas vital to the health of qualitative research are addressed including systemic racism and cultural humility with cutting edge suggestions offered in areas like hybrid research harnessing technology and use of social media Multiple identities are centered in examples throughout including race gender and those who are hard to reach or seldom heard in research Textboxes featuring scholars student researchers and community members invite readers into dialogue in an area that is contested swiftly shifting and always vibrant with potential Resources for instructors are available on a website to accompany the book

Collaborative Methods Kaylan C. Schwarz, Claudia Mitchell, Rebekah Hutten, 2025-10-16 Collaborative Methods explores the intersections between participatory data analysis and feminist research traditions that complement each other but are rarely examined together The chapters highlight two key approaches methods where participants help analyze the data they contributed to and non hierarchical collaborative methods involving research teams Contributors demonstrate how to choose an approach that best aligns with one's research questions study context and participant availability and interest They also encourage scholars to thoroughly describe their methodological designs decision points and processes rather than keeping the focus only on their findings Through a feminist lens the authors present a range of perspectives resisting a singular approach Instead they engage with the fluid and contested nature of feminist research each author drawing on different feminist traditions to shape their work The volume encourages scholars to think critically about the co production of knowledge making it an essential resource for social science researchers and students who are invested in feminist and participatory methodologies Contributors Nesa Bandarchian Rashti Emma C Cognet L Rebeca Esquivel Jessica Fields Sarah Flicker Geetanjali Gill Jillian Grace Goyeau Nadha Hassen Rebekah Hutten Terra L ger Goodes Meegwun Logan Catherine Malboeuf Hurtubise Mitchell McLarnon Claudia Mitchell Milka Nyariro Kathryn Kendal Ryan Kaylan C Schwarz Grace Skahan Catherine Vanner Angelina Weenie Dawn Wiseman 4theRecord Team
