Homeopathy Medicine for (Better Health) Ram Babu Sao, 2025-06-28 The book Homeopathy Medicine for Better Health is a very fascinating and yet an exasperating book Please note that if there is any serious injury or trauma to the eyes then professional help should be sought These remedies are for simple non complicated eye problems If the problem persists please visit your eye doctor or obtain emergency care Its simplicity its vastness and its apparent similarity of symptoms in different drugs throw a tremendous challenge to the People The author says that there is no royal road to a perfect understanding of Homeopathic treatment One can realize its vast extent of diseases and guiding symptoms In its present compact form it contains the maximum number of reliable Homeopathic facts in the minimum space This book provides insight into the principles in homoeopathic practice supported by clinical references all throughout An account of remarkable relief's from ill health and miraculous cures affected further justifies its superiority over other fields of medicine and the need for propagation of the nature's way of healing In this scientific era of health consciousness the time has come that for the treatment of any disease which does not respond to any particular line of treatment one must take a homeopathic opinion immediately Often patients lose their early time going to one specialist to another helplessly without permanent relief and approach homeopathy only when other medicines fail

Handbook of Research on Creating Spaces for African Epistemologies in the Inclusive Education Discourse

Maguvhe, Mbulaheni Obert, Masuku, Mfundo Mandla, 2021-12-31 Students with disabilities who are not able to perform to the best of their abilities often find themselves learning in inaccessible environments and subjected to increased stress levels due to the haphazard provisioning of education characterized by physical communicative and unsuitable teaching and learning approaches Very often this is a result of various shortcomings including unfair assessment practices Misconceptions and a lack of knowledge with regard to the implementation of inclusive education detract from the successful admission of students with disabilities and their retention and active participation The Handbook of Research on Creating Spaces for African Epistemologies in the Inclusive Education Discourse explores the concept of inclusive education in an African context It advocates for the monitoring and evaluation of inclusive education and proposes interventions where reasonable accommodation or lack of accessibility is a reason for students with disabilities to not benefit from this system Covering topics such as barriers to learning rural schools and student support this major reference work is an essential resource for administrators advocates for students with disabilities policymakers researchers pre service teachers educators academicians and students

Routledge Handbook of Urban Planning in Africa Carlos Nunes Silva, 2019-10-28

This handbook contributes with new evidence and new insights to the on going debate on the de colonization of knowledge on urban planning in Africa African cities grew rapidly since the mid 20th century in part due to rising rural migration and rapid internal demographic growth that followed the independence in most African countries This rapid urbanization is commonly seen as a primary cause of the current urban management challenges with which African cities are confronted This importance given to rapid urbanization prevented the due consideration of other dimensions of the current urban problems challenges and changes in African cities The contributions to this handbook explore these other dimensions looking in particular to the nature and capacity of local self government and to the role of urban governance and urban planning in the poor urban conditions found in most African cities It deals with current and contemporary urban challenges and urban policy responses but also offers an historical overview of local governance and urban policies during the colonial period in the late 19th and 20th centuries offering ample evidence of common features and divergent features as well on a number of facets from intra urban racial segregation solutions to the relationships between the colonial power and the natives to the assimilation policy as practiced by the French and Portuguese and the Indirect Rule put in place by Britain in some or in part of its colonies Using innovative approaches to the challenges confronting the governance of African cities this handbook is an essential read for students and scholars of Urban Africa urban planning in Africa and African Development Anxious

Joburg Nicky Falkof, Cobus van Staden, 2020-10-01 An interdisciplinary account of the life of Johannesburg South Africa's global south city Anxious Joburg focuses on Johannesburg the largest and wealthiest city in South Africa as a case study for the contemporary global South city Global South cities are often characterised as sites of contradiction and difference that produce a range of feelings around anxiety This is often imagined in terms of the global North's anxieties about the South migration crime terrorism disease and environmental crisis Anxious Joburg invites readers to consider an intimate perspective of living inside such a city How does it feel to live in the metropolis of Johannesburg what are the conditions intersections affects and experiences that mark the contemporary urban Scholars visual artists and storytellers all look at unexamined aspects of Johannesburg life From peripheral settlements to the inner city to the affluent northern suburbs from precarious migrants and domestic workers to upwardly mobile young women and fearful elites Anxious Joburg presents an absorbing engagement with this frustrating dangerous seductive city It offers a rigorous critical approach to Johannesburg revealing the way in which anxiety is a vital structuring principle of contemporary life The approach is strongly interdisciplinary with contributions from media studies anthropology religious studies urban geography migration studies and psychology It will appeal to students and teachers as well as to academic researchers concerned with Johannesburg South Africa cities and the global South The mix of approaches will also draw a non academic audience The Statesman's Yearbook 2017 Palgrave Macmillan, 2017-02-28 Now in its 153rd edition The Statesman's Yearbook continues to be the reference work of choice for accurate and reliable information on every country in the world Covering political economic social and cultural aspects the Yearbook is also available online for subscribing institutions www.statesmansyearbook.com

Johannesburg, 1999 Nancy Fraser and Participatory Parity Vivienne Bozalek, Dorothee Hölscher, Michalinos Zembylas, 2020-05-17 Nancy Fraser and Participatory Parity provides a philosophical framework based on the work of Nancy Fraser examining how her ideas can be used to analyse contemporary issues in higher education and reimagine higher education practices Providing a forum for considering Fraser's work in relation to participatory parity in higher education the book shows how her political philosophy is relevant to higher education pedagogies scholarship and practice The recent student protests in South Africa in 2015 and 2016 has created an impetus to think about how to do things differently in higher education in response to economic cultural and political inequities This South African experience is aptly used as a prime example of rethinking issues of coloniality and social injustice in higher education The contributors use of Nancy Fraser's theories provides their analyses and reflections with a particularly sharp lens and clear focus The book also puts her work into conversation with other contemporary writers on social justice and explores the resonances and differentiations of the various approaches This book will be of great interest for academics researchers and post graduate students in the fields of social justice in education and educational policy Getting Skills Right: South Africa OECD, 2017-07-10 This report identifies effective strategies to tackle skills imbalances in South Africa Language and Institutional Identity in the Post-Apartheid South African Higher Education Leketi Makalela, 2022-03-21 This book examines the intersections between education identity formation and language in post apartheid South Africa with specific attention to higher education It does so against the backdrop of the core argument that the sector plays a critical role in shaping re producing and perpetuating sectoral class sub national and national identities which in turn in the peculiar South African setting are almost invariably analogous with the historical fault lines determined and dictated by language as a marker of ethnic and racial identity The chapters in the book grapple with the nuances related to these intersections in the understanding that higher education language policies overt and or covert largely structure institutional cultures or what has been described as curriculum in higher education institutions Together the chapters examine the roles played by higher education by language policies and by the intersections of these policies and ethnolinguistic identities in either constructing and perpetuating or deconstructing ethnolinguistic identities upon which the sector was founded The introductory chapter lays out the background to the entire book with an emphasis on the policy and practice perspectives on the intersections The middle chapters describe the so called White Universities Black Universities and Middle Man Minorities Universities The final chapter maps out future directions of the discourses on language and identity formation in South Africa s higher education
