The Red Book Deborah Copaken Kogan, 2012-04-03 The Big Chill meets The Group in Deborah Copaken Kogan's wry lively and irresistible new novel about a once close circle of friends at their twentieth college reunion Clover Addison Mia and Jane were roommates at Harvard until their graduation in 1989 Clover homeschooled on a commune by mixed race parents felt woefully out of place Addison yearned to shed the burden of her Mayflower heritage Mia mined the depths of her suburban ennui to enact brilliant performances on the Harvard stage Jane an adopted Vietnamese war orphan made sense of her fractured world through words Twenty years later their lives are in free fall Clover once a securities broker with Lehman is out of a job and struggling to reproduce before her fertility window slams shut Addison's marriage to a writer's blocked novelist is as stale as her so called career as a painter Hollywood shut its gold plated gates to Mia who now stays home with her four children renovating and acquiring faster than her director husband can pay the bills Jane the Paris bureau chief for a newspaper whose foreign bureaus are now shuttered is caught in a vortex of loss Like all Harvard grads they've kept abreast of one another via the red book a class report published every five years containing brief autobiographical essays by fellow alumni But there s the story we tell the world and then there s the real story as these former classmates will learn during their twentieth reunion weekend when they arrive with their families their histories their dashed dreams and their secret yearnings to a relationship changing score settling unforgettable weekend The Last Quinn Standing Thomas E.

Simmons,2022-11-22 A young man journeys from rural Mississippi to the battlefields of WWI to discover his family s bloody legacy in this sequel to By Accident of Birth On May 7 1915 the passenger ship RMS Lusitania was sunk by a German U Boat Among the many casualties was Beverly Bethany Quinn an American woman whose entire life was marked by the forces of bloodshed For Ansel Quinn the single event holds a grim double meaning With his beloved aunt gone he is the last of his family line And now his country is on the brink of joining the war overseas When Ansel discovers his Aunt Bethany s diary the shocking revelations within set him on an epic quest for family honor and self discovery President Wilson had vowed to keep America out of another war Ansel had sworn to serve his country Fate s cards trumped them all From the American South to the trenches of Verdun nothing will ever be the same again John Lyly Ruth Lunney,2017-03-02 John Lyly is the first collection of essays dedicated solely to the work of this University Wit celebrity prose writer and playwright to the court of Elizabeth Lyly s energy and wit inspired his contemporaries to follow new directions in prose fiction and stage comedy and his writings still illuminate sixteenth century culture for the modern reader The twenty four essays in this selection include some older classics but most date from 1990 onwards and reflect current critical concerns with politics and sexuality class and audience Both Euphues books and the eight plays receive some detailed attention The essays are grouped into four sections Lessons in Wit Courting the Queen Playing with Desire and Performing Lyly A biographical summary and critical survey are provided in the introduction other voices and insights are alluded to in the notes and listed in the wide ranging bibliography A New English Dictionary on Historical Principles James Augustus Henry Murray, Henry Bradley, Sir William Alexander Craigie, Charles Talbut Onions, 1910 Adventure, 1917 Houser H. Newbrun,2011-11-01 Catherine Bauer was a leading member of a small group of idealists who called themselves housers because of their commitment to improving housing for low income families In her lifetime she changed dramatically the concept of social housing in the United States and inspired a generation of urban activists to integrate public housing into the emerging welfare state of the mid twentieth century In the first book length biography of Bauer H Peter Oberlander and Eva Newbrun trace her fascinating life and career Their account is lively spanning two continents and dotted with famous names in modern art and architecture In the late 1920s Bauer spent time in Paris where she befriended Fernan L ger Man Ray and Sylvia Beach Back in New York she fell under the spell of American urban critic Lewis Mumford who as a mentor and lover profoundly influenced her life It was at his urging that she became involved with the architects of change in post First World War Europe among them Ernst May Andr Lur at and Walter Gropius Convinced that good social housing could produce good social architecture and moved by the visible ravages of the Depression she became a passionate leader in the fight for housing for the poor She co authored the Housing Act of 1937 and advised five presidents on urban strategies Her book Modern Housing published in 1934 is still regarded as a classic Houser is a rich contribution to the literature on modern housing urban planning and women s studies In the three and a half decades since her death urbanization has radically changed landscapes the world over Housing as a basic human right has slipped from the public agenda and the homeless have become a visible symbol of society s indifference Catherine Bauer s visionary teachings about the symbiotic relationship between good housing and a healthy society are thus as relevant as ever Northumbria Robert

Colls,2019-02-26 The North East is probably England s most distinctive region A place of strong character with a very special sense of its past it is as William Hutchinson remarked in 1778 truly historical ground This is a book about both the ancient Anglian kingdom of Northumbrian which stretched from the Humber to the Scottish border and the ways in which the idea of being a Northumbrian or a northerner or someone from the North East persisted in the area long after the early English kingdom had fallen It examines not only the history of the region but also the successive waves of identity that that history has bestowed over a very long period of time Successful nations write about themselves in these terms so why not regions Northumbria existed before England began but is still with us in name and in the way we think about ourselves A series of sections entitled Christian Kingdom Borderland and Coalfield New Northumbria Cultural Region and Northumbrian Island explore the region on the grand scale from the very beginning and bring a sharp sense of history to bear on the various threads that have influenced the making of modern regional identity The book is a work of exceptional scholarship Never before have so many acclaimed historians addressed together the issues which have affected this special region Clearly written and rich in ideas chapters explore the physical origins of Northumbria and consider just how the pressing political and military claims of adjoining states shaped and tempered it There are further chapters on art music mythology dialect history economy poetry politics religion antiquarianism literature and settlement They show how Northumbrians have lived and died and looked forward and back and these accounts of the North East s past will surely help in the shaping of its future

Companion to the Short Story in English includes alphabetically arranged entries for 50 English language short story writers from around the world. Most of these writers have been active since 1960 and they reflect a wide range of experiences and perspectives in their works. Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes biography, a review of existing criticism, a lengthier analysis of specific works, and a selected bibliography of primary and secondary sources. The volume begins with a detailed introduction to the short story genre and concludes with an annotated bibliography of major works on short story theory.

Magill's Survey of Cinema--English Language Films, First Series Frank Northen Magill, 1980. A survey of over 500 movies from The Jazz Singer to Kramer vs. Kramer, giving an account of the story line along with an examination of the directing, acting, cinematography, editing, etc. in each.

Outlaw Christian Jacqueline A. Bussie, 2016-04-19. Winner of the 2017 Illumination Award. Jacqueline Bussie knows that too many Christians live according to unspoken laws that govern the Christian life: 1. Never get angry at God. 2. Never doubt. 3. Never question. 4. Never tell your real story. 5. Always speak in clichés about evil and suffering. 6. Always believe hope comes easy for those who truly love God. Living according to these rules is killing real Christian life. Outlaw Christian proposes a rebellious life giving authentic alternative. Through captivating stories and with disarming honesty, Bussie gives concrete practical strategies to help readers cultivate hope, seek joy, practice accompaniment, compost their pain, and rediscover the spiritual practice of lament. Tackling difficult questions without political divisiveness, Bussie speaks to both progressive and conservative Christians in ways that unite rather than divide. And in doing so, she provides a new way to handle the most difficult and troubling questions of life in a broken world that God will never abandon.
