Catalog Number ... North, Ernest Dressel, firm, booksellers, New York, 1928 Promissio Oswald Bayer, 2025 Bayer dates Luther's reformational breakthrough to the early spring of 1518 when he discovered the sacramentality of the word that the word is not simply informative but performative and constitutive of the sacraments The preached word is prior to faith creates faith and is the only source of certainty in the Christian life Surging Democracy Adriana Cavarero, 2021-08-31 What does a truly democratic experience of political action look like today In this provocative new work Adriana Cavarero weighs in on contemporary debates about the relationship between democracy happiness and dissent Drawing on Arendt's understanding of politics as a participatory experience but also discussing texts by mile Zola Elias Canetti Boris Pasternak and Roland Barthes along with engaging Judith Butler Cavarero proposes a new view of democracy based not on violence but rather on the spontaneous experience of a plurality of bodies coming together in public Expanding on the themes explored in previous works Cavarero offers a timely intervention into current thinking about the nature of democracy suggesting that its emergence thrives on the nonviolent creativity of a widespread participatory and relational power that is shared horizontally rather than vertically From digital democracy to selfies to contemporary protest movements Cavarero argues that we need to rethink our focus on individual happiness and turn toward rediscovering the joyful emotions of birth through plural interaction Yes let us be happy she urges but let us do so publicly politically together Italian Literature since 1900 in English Translation 1929-2016 Robin Healey, 2019-03-07 Providing the most complete record possible of texts by Italian writers active after 1900 this annotated bibliography covers over 4 800 distinct editions of writings by some 1 700 Italian authors Many entries are accompanied by useful notes that provide information on the authors works translators and the reception of the translations This book includes the works of Pirandello Calvino Eco and more recently Andrea Camilleri and Valerio Manfredi Together with Robin Healey's Italian Literature before 1900 in English Translation also published by University of Toronto Press in 2011 this volume makes comprehensive information on translations from Italian accessible for schools libraries and those interested in comparative literature The Last Lions , 2011-02-15 A symbol of mythic potency the African lion has ruled the human imagination for millennia But in Botswana's Okavango Delta the world's most awe inspiring hunters are challenged not only by their waterlogged territory but also by their formidable prey the buffalo who wield their massive horns with deadly accuracy Pulsing with ancient rhythms of wild Africa this harsh and eternal struggle is compelling powerful and poignant Award winning filmmakers and National Geographic Explorers in Residence Beverly and Dereck Joubert give us an unforgettable glimpse of this iconic drama in the official companion book to their feature film The Last Lions and warn that due to declining numbers of lions in the wild it may soon end forever In fascinating text and breathtaking images the Jouberts reveal both the beauty and danger of the Okavango Delta and its inhabitants We follow a lone lioness Ma di Tau Mother of Lions and three newborns as they flee a ferocious rival pride Braving the Delta despite their instinctive hatred of water the lioness and her cubs head for an island lost in a labyrinth of streams She and two cubs escape successfully a lurking crocodile snatches the third Soon their refuge is invaded by a vast buffalo herd aggressive unafraid a constant threat yet the lions only prey But even as Ma di Tau hones her tactics and stalking skills she is trapped between throngs of buffalo and a rival lion pride So she does what all of her kind must adapt or die The Last Lions is a story of family and hope in a world of wild beauty and relentless predation that is a superbly photographed sharply detailed intimate portrait of one dauntless mother struggling to protect her young and preserve her bloodline It is a vivid universal vision of the fate of lions everywhere isolated on tiny islands amid a sea of humanity Can we rescue them or have we already heedlessly met the last lions For decades the Jouberts have lived among great cats in the wild observing documenting and often discovering unsuspected facets of lion behavior A key message is that the inexorably rising tide of human population will soon drown what remains of that world unless we act now The book draws attention to the numbers 500 000 in the 1950s to only 25 000 lions today and highlights projects that have been enacted to help preserve wilderness for lion habitat Our International Education Sherry Marx, Monica Housen, Christine

Tapu, 2015-12-17 What makes a person pack up and move to another country What does she or he hope to gain from the experience How do children fit into the picture Our International Education presents the stories of three American women a university professor a high school math teacher and a high school English as a second language teacher who move to Hungary for a year to teach Each woman brings her young children and enrolls them in local Hungarian public schools though none of them speak Hungarian at the beginning of the experience The autoethnographic stories that make up Our International Education weave together the personal and professional dimensions of life abroad illuminating not only the realities of negotiating work school and family life in another country but also the complexities of cultural adjustment and second language acquisition First person storytelling makes this book a compelling read for those considering a move abroad with their family and an excellent supplemental narrative for those studying second language acquisition acculturation autoethnography and international education These interconnected stories of three women and their children living in Hungary offer an alternately uplifting and heartrending look at what families face when overseas The co authors present a deeply personal and vivid account of their bold adventure from the initial thrill to the gradual revelation that life abroad is not always the carefree romp that some might perceive Our International Education masterfully demonstrates the unequivocal impact of cross cultural understanding Eleni Kounalakis United States Ambassador to Hungary 2010 2013 and author of Madam Ambassador Three Years of Diplomacy Dinner Parties and Democracy in Budapest The Critic, 1890

British Books, 1904 The Critic Jeannette Leonard Gilder, Joseph Benson Gilder, 1890 The Nation, 1878
