Sales Management Paolo Guenzi,Susi Geiger,2017-09-16 Sales Management offers a global perspective on the opportunities and issues facing today's sales managers Current textbooks have failed to move beyond the US context Sales Management provides unique access to European and international experts with globally relevant case studies Sport Promotion and Sales Management Richard L. Irwin,William Anthony Sutton,Larry M. McCarthy,2008 This is a guide to promotion and sales in the sport industry Experts from the classroom and sports field offer insights and experiential data on the skills needed to succeed in sports promotion and sales Sales Management Earl D. Honeycutt,John B. Ford,Antonis C. Simintiras,2003 Designed to prepare upper level undergraduate and graduate business students for work in the exciting field of global sales management this text focuses upon the managerial and cross cultural aspects necessary for leading the global sales force Personal Selling M. C. Cant,C. H. van Heerden,2005-09 Outlining 10 steps in the personal selling process from prospecting for new business to closing a deal this guide explains the art of the sale The importance of listening to customers clarifying the difference between selling a product and a service and emphasizing the importance of business ethics are revealed Descriptions of the options available to those seeking a career in sales are included as is an exploration of the impact of the sales profession on the economy and a reminder that all jobs require some amount of selling The Oxford Handbook of Strategic Sales and Sales Management David W. Cravens,Kenneth Le Meunier-FitzHugh,Nigel F. Piercy,2012-11-22 The Oxford Handbook of Strategic Sales and Sales Management is an unrivalled overview by leading academics in the field of sales and marketing management Sales theory is experiencing a renaissance driven by a number of factors including building profitable relationships creating delivering brand value strategic customer management sales and marketing relationships global selling and the change from transactional to customer relationship marketing Escalating sales and selling costs require organisations to be more focused on results and highlight the shifting of resources from marketing to sales Further the growth in customer power now requires a strategic sales response and not just a tactical one The positioning of sales within the organisation the sales function and sales management are all discussed The Handbook is not a general sales management text about managing a sales force but will fill a gap in the existing literature through consolidating the current academic research in the sales area The Handbook is structured around four key topics The first section explores the strategic positioning of the sales function within the modern organisation The second considers sales management and recent developments The third section examines the sales relationship with the customer and highlights how sales is responding to the modern environment Finally the fourth section reviews the internal composition of sales within the organisation The Handbook will provide a comprehensive introduction to the latest research in sales management and is suitable for academics professionals and those taking professional qualifications in sales and marketing Proceedings of the 1995 World Marketing Congress K. Grant,I. Walker,2015-06-29 This volume includes the full proceedings from the 1995

Brown, Carlton,2019-10-25 Businesses today face many obstacles but one major hurdle is optimizing sales performance and achieving peak levels of execution In recent years there has been a significant decline in sales performance among businesses internationally Many professionals attribute this disparity to the lack of attention towards certain business techniques including Sales Peak Performance and Business to Business Strategies like this lack empirical validity and further investigation on the implementation of these approaches could significantly impact the business world Achieving Peak Sales Performance for Optimal Business Value and Sustainability is a collection of innovative research on the methods and applications of various elements that influence sales peak performance including personal organizational and symbiotic determinants While highlighting topics including emotional intelligence personal branding and customer relationship management this book is ideally designed for sales professionals directors advertisers managers researchers students and academicians seeking current research on insights and advancements of business sustainability and sales peak performance

The Handbook of Technology Management, Supply Chain Management, Marketing and Advertising, and Global Management Hossein Bidgoli,2010 The discipline of technology management focuses on the scientific engineering and management issues related to the commercial introduction of new technologies Although more than thirty U S universities offer PhD programs in the subject there has never been a single comprehensive resource dedicated to technology management The Handbook of Technology Management fills that gap with coverage of all the core topics and applications in the field Edited by the renowned Doctor Hossein Bidgoli the three volumes here include all the basics for students educators and practitioners Strategic Customer Management Nigel F Piercy,Nikala Lane,2009-03-12 A revolution is taking place in the way companies organize and manage the front end of their organization where it meets its customers Traditional concepts of sales management account management and customer service are being overtaken by initiatives like customer business development the strategic sales organization and strategic customer management This book aims to provide insights into how this revolution is unfolding and to provide a framework for executives and management students to address the issues involved The book focuses on the transformation of the traditional sales organization into a strategic force leading the strategic customer management process in companies Traditionally the area of sales management has mainly been treated as a tactical operational topic in the conventional marketing literature simply part of the communications mix within the planned marketing programme However the emergence of major customers as dominant buyers in many sectors as a result of pressures towards consolidation and enhanced scale of operations is changing the way in which sales issues are addressed in supplier organizations The growth of new forms of buyer seller relationship based on collaboration and partnering has encouraged organizations to reconsider the sales and account management operation as an important source of competitive differentiation in commoditized markets Increasingly sales is being perceived as a central part of business strategy and attention given to the challenges in better aligning sales processes with strategy This has many implications for the design of the sales organization and its management strategy which go far beyond the confines of conventional marketing views
