Prayer For Kindergarten Graduation:

In Need of Your Prayers and Patience Mary Lou Shea, 2015-07-14 The Church of the Nazarene embraces American attachments to democratic rule individual initiative efficiency and a strong sense of responsibility as a city on a hill It is also present in more than 150 world areas These attributes are reflected in the astounding story of one of the founders of the denomination H F Reynolds who has been long hidden in the shadow of his early colleague Phineas Bresee While the church points to Bresee as its founding father Reynolds lived and served for an additional two decades following Bresee s death shaping the role of the General Superintendency clarifying and expanding the church s Manual to meet the needs of the growing denomination and establishing mission policies and practices that took it from a US church to a global presence Reynolds maintained a lively devotion to Christ as he survived train wrecks war dread disease and the sheer volume of meetings correspondence and explosive scandal that came with the nurturing of a new church His vision and methods have profoundly influenced a denomination that does not know his name This volume is designed to make the introduction A House of Prayer for All Peoples Sheryl A. Kujawa-Holbrook, 2002-12-31 Contrary to the oft repeated truism there are churches in America where Sunday is not the most segregated day of the week as Sheryl Kujawa Holbrook convincingly demonstrates in her compelling exploration of congregations tackling racial justice issues Yet the truism continues to haunt many congregations and Kujawa Holbrook reveals through story and thoughtful analysis what it means to create and live out multiracial community Focusing on six congregations from different denominations geographical regions and settings the author shows us the joys and struggles in their intentional pursuits of a more diverse and just community The stories in A House of Prayer for All Peoples will inspire leaders to explore their congregation s history study their community s demographics and most of all search their souls for ways they can develop and celebrate the diversity in their midst The book is capped by an extensive annotated resource list for readers who want to explore the topic further Creating Caring and Nurturing Educational Environments for African American Children Vivian Morris, Curtis Morris, 2000-01-30 The history of the education of African American children in one Alabama town is reconstructed over a period of 100 years from the First Reconstruction period to the Second Reconstruction period Governor George Wallace s stand in the schoolhouse door Lessons learned from this case study in addition to 15 years of desegregated education in the community provides a perspective for educational policymakers to consider as they attempt to plan effective schools in the 21st century for all children in America Many have viewed segregated schools for African American students as dens of educational pathology with poor teachers and administrators poorly operated academic programs and activities dilapidated school buildings and scarce resources Until the last two decades little had been written about the internal functioning of these schools or the positive impact of their efforts from the perspective of their students families teachers or administrators Despite being underfunded understaffed and issued second hand books and equipment this school and community worked together as did many other African American schools and communities to create effective schooling for children This study addresses four major questions 1 What kinds of educational experiences did teachers and principals view as important for the successful education of African American children 2 How did the school interact with parents and the community 3 How did the educational environment change when African American children began attending desegregated schools 4 What can we learn from this successful school for African American children as well as their experiences in the desegregated setting that will provide a perspective for educational policymakers as we plan effective schools for all children in this country The findings from this case study present a perspective on which educational policymakers can build as we plan caring nurturing and equitable learning environments for children in schools in all communities Raising Freethinkers Dale McGowan, Molleen Matsumura, Amanda Metskas, 2009 Faith Ed Linda K. Wertheimer, 2016-08-23 An intimate cross country look at the new debate over religion in the public schools A suburban Boston school unwittingly started a firestorm of controversy over a sixth grade field trip The class was visiting a mosque to learn about world religions when a handful of boys unnoticed by their teachers joined the line of worshippers and acted out the motions of the Muslim call to prayer A video of the prayer went viral with the title Wellesley Massachusetts Public School Students Learn to Pray to Allah Charges flew that the school exposed the children to Muslims who intended to convert American schoolchildren Wellesley school officials defended the course but also acknowledged the delicate dance teachers must perform when dealing with religion in the classroom Courts long ago banned public school teachers from preaching of any kind But the question remains How much should schools teach about the world's religions Answering that question in recent decades has pitted schools against their communities Veteran education journalist Linda K Wertheimer spent months with that class and traveled to other communities around the nation listening to voices on all sides of the controversy including those of clergy teachers children and parents who are Muslim Jewish Christian Sikh or atheist In Lumberton Texas nearly a hundred people filled a school board meeting to protest a teacher's dress up exercise that allowed freshman girls to try on a burka as part of a lesson on Islam In Wichita Kansas a Messianic Jewish family's opposition to a bulletin board display about Islam in an elementary school led to such upheaval that the school had to hire extra security Across the country parents have requested that their children be excused from lessons on Hinduism and Judaism out of fear they will shy away from their own faiths But in Modesto a city in the heart of California's Bible Belt teachers have avoided problems since 2000 when the school system began requiring all high school freshmen to take a world religions course Students receive comprehensive lessons on the three major world religions as well as on Sikhism Hinduism Buddhism and often Shintoism Taoism and Confucianism One Pentecostal Christian girl terrified by idols including a six inch gold Buddha learned to be comfortable with other students' beliefs Wertheimer's fascinating investigation which includes a return to her rural Ohio school which once ran weekly Christian Bible classes reveals a public education system struggling to find the right path forward and offers a promising roadmap for raising a new generation of religiously
