An Invitation You Cannot Live Without Rev. Dr. Stanley Griggs, 2022-08-01 When Moses conversed with God at the burning bush he asked God Who shall I say sent me God replied Tell them I am sent me In our burning bush prayer time when we talk to God will we take time to listen to what he wants to say When we pray it is also important to listen to what God wants to say to us There s a saying We have two ears and one mouth We therefore should listen twice as much as we talk There is purpose in our being God has a plan for each of us Prayer time with God is a time for talking and listening How can we know what God wants us to do if we never take time to listen to what he has to say If we are about God s business we should try to find out the what and the why of his business There is only one way to the Father through Jesus Christ and there is only one way we can discover what he wants and expects us to do And that is through prayer and Scripture The Scripture says This is the day that the Lord has made let us rejoice and be glad in it There are twenty four hours in a day Can we not spare him time in prayer Jesus knew what his father wanted him to do because he kept in touch with his Father in prayer God has called on us and left a message for us to call him see Jeremiah 33 3 He s waiting to hear from us This is an invitation we can t live without

The Complete Works of Charles Spurgeon, Volume 55 Spurgeon, Charles H., Volume 55 Sermons 3125 3177 Charles Spurgeon 19 June 1834 31 January 1892 is one of the church s most famous preachers and Christianity s foremost prolific writers Called the Prince of Preachers he was one of England s most notable ministers for most of the second half of the nineteenth century and he still remains highly influential among Christians of different denominations today His sermons have spread all over the world and his many printed works have been cherished classics for decades In his lifetime Spurgeon preached to more than 10 million people often up to ten times each week He was the pastor of the congregation of the New Park Street Chapel later the Metropolitan Tabernacle in London for 38 years He was an inexhaustible author of various kinds of works including sermons commentaries an autobiography as well as books on prayer devotionals magazines poetry hymns and more Spurgeon was known to produce powerful sermons of penetrating thought and divine inspiration and his oratory and writing skills held his audiences spellbound Many Christians have discovered Spurgeon s messages to be among the best in Christian literature Edward Walford wrote in Old and New London Volume 6 1878 quoting an article from the Times regarding one of Spurgeon s meetings at Surrey Fancy a congregation consisting of 10 000 souls streaming into the hall mounting the galleries humming buzzing and swarming a mighty hive of bees eager to secure at first the best places and at last any place at all After waiting more than half an hour for if you wish to have a seat you must be there at least that space of time in advance Mr Spurgeon ascended his tribune To the hum and rush and trampling of men succeeded a low concentrated thrill and murmur of devotion which seemed to run at once like an electric current through the breast of every one present and by this magnetic chain the preacher held us fast bound for about two hours It is not my purpose to give a summary of his discourse It is enough to say of his voice that its power and volume are sufficient to reach every one in that vast assembly of his language that it is neither high flown nor homely of his style that it is at times familiar at times declamatory but always happy and often eloquent of his doctrine that neither the Calvinist nor the Baptist appears in the forefront of the battle which is waged by Mr Spurgeon with relentless animosity and with Gospel weapons against irreligion cant hypocrisy pride and those secret bosom sins which so easily beset a man in daily life and to sum up all in a word it is enough to say of the man himself that he impresses you with a perfect conviction of his sincerity More than a hundred years after his death Charles Spurgeon s legacy continues to effectively inspire the church around the world For this reason Delmarva Publications has chosen to publish the complete works of Charles Spurgeon The Best of "The Spirit of Medjugorje" June Klins,2007-09-24 In 1981 a beautiful lady appeared to 6 young people in the village of Medjugorje in what is now Bosnia Herzegovina She told them that She was the Blessed Virgin Mary the Queen of Peace and came with a message of peace She has continued to appear since 1981 to give messages to the world of peace love and joy She is confiding ten secrets to each visionary some are chastisements for the world and promises to leave a visible sign at the place of the apparitions in Medjugorje for all humanity This time this period of grace is for conversion and deepening faith After the visible sign those living will have little time for conversion Many books have been written about Medjugorje but this one and Volume I of this series are different They both include not only information about Medjugorje and talks and interviews with the visionaries but also heartfelt testimonies of those who have been healed and changed through Medjugorje as well as advice written from the heart on how to live the messages This book is for EVERYONE all Our Lady s children Catholic and non Catholic If you have not heard about Medjugorje it will tell you everything you need to know If you have been following the messages of Medjugorje or have been one of the millions of people blessed to have been there this book will light your fire all over again I desire to lead you all on the way of holiness Live my messages and put into life every word that I am giving you May they be precious to you because they come from Heaven Our Lady of Medjugorje 6 25 02 The Believer's Daily Remembrancer, Or Pastor's Evening Visit James Smith,1846 Lessons on the Church Catechism
