Strengthening Maritime Security Through Cooperation I. Chapsos, C. Kitchen, 2015-07-30 Seventy percent of our planet is covered by water and even in today's world of instant communication the global community is still heavily reliant on sea based transport The maritime domain has always been one of NATO's key strengths but concerns about maritime security have taken on renewed importance in recent years and NATO has been forced to re-examine some of its fundamental assumptions about the post Cold War security environment This book shares some of the research debates and findings from a NATO Advanced Research Workshop ARW Building Trust to Enhance Maritime Security held in Geneva Switzerland in November 2014 The chapters in the book deal extensively with lessons learned by NATO from a wide range of policies operations and situations This maritime experience has been amassed from the Atlantic and Mediterranean to the Baltic and the Black Sea and even into the Indian Ocean as well as from the four decades spent defending NATO allies on the high seas during the Cold War The single most profound lesson learned over the years has concerned the importance of efficient coordination Structures and mechanisms have been created not least in recent counter piracy operations which enable a vast array of actors to work together in an efficient way and which could prove invaluable in future efforts to counter terrorism and aggression worldwide The safety of the maritime domain is essential to the freedom and security of all nations and this book will be of interest to all those whose work involves maintaining that freedom and security The Uganda Gazette Uganda,2016-05 Foster on EU Law Nigel Foster,2019 Nigel Foster provides a concise and clear explanation of EU law covering both institutional aspects and key substantive areas offering an accessible entry point to the subject Constraining the Court James B. Kelly,2024-05-01 When the Supreme Court of Canada makes a decision that invalidates a statute it creates a constitutional moment But does that have a direct and observable impact on public policy Constraining the Court explores what happens when a statute involving a significant public policy issue French language rights in Quebec supervised consumption sites abortion or medical assistance in dying is declared unconstitutional James B Kelly examines the conditions under which Parliament or provincial territorial legislatures attempt to contain the policy impact of judicial invalidation and engage in non compliance without invoking the notwithstanding clause He considers the importance of the issue the unpopularity of a judicial decision the limited reach of a negative rights instrument such as the Charter the context of federalism and the mixture of public and private action behind any legislative response While the Supreme Court s importance cannot be denied this rigorous analysis convincingly concludes that a judicial decision does not necessarily determine a policy outcome Remedies in EU Competition Law Damien Gerard,Assimakis Komninos,2020-07-10 By their nature remedies are central to competition law enforcement and represent the yardstick against which the efficiency of the overall system can be measured Yet very rarely have remedies been treated in a horizontal and comprehensive manner from the combined perspectives of substance process and policy The present volume developed in partnership with the College of Europe s Global Competition Law Centre GCLC provides coherent practical and authoritative commentaries by leading experts from the GCLC s incomparable network The contributions originally presented at the 2019 GCLC annual conference examine remedies to assess the overall effectiveness of competition law enforcement in merger antitrust and State aid matters The overall topic is presented under five headings objectives and limitations of remedies types of remedies in competition law enforcement implementation and process ex post assessment of remedies and policy lessons and national and international approaches The high profile and wide ranging group of authors includes the Director General of the European Commission s competition department lawyers from major international firms and well known economists and academics specialising in competition law With a sharp focus on how to make competition rules work well in today s digital environment this systematic and coherent analysis illuminates an issue that we need to fully grasp and understand in order to make sense of competition policy law and enforcement in the years and decades to come Transnational Intellectual Property Law Robert P. Report 2017 Office of the Undersecretary for Civilian Security, Democracy, and Human Rights, 2017-08-18 The 2017 Trafficking in Persons Report highlights the successes achieved and the remaining challenges before us on this important issue. The primary focus is to showcase the responsibility of governments to criminalize human trafficking and hold offenders accountable. This year's report theme is increasing criminal accountability of human traffickers and addressing challenges in prosecution, an essential component of the 3P paradigm of prosecution, protection, and prevention. It provides an overview of the type of human trafficking offenses that are taking place around the world in violation of human rights. The text includes side bars of situational human trafficking experiences to allow the reader to understand the different types that occur throughout the world. High school students and above may find this report helpful for research and writing essays about human rights and law enforcement of human trafficking. American citizens, policy analysts and decision makers, law enforcement personnel, and human rights policy activists and advocates, and world leaders may refer to this report as a reference on these crimes. Challenges in the Management of People Convicted of a Sexual Offence Kasia Uzieblo, Wineke J. Smid, Kieran McCartan, 2022-01-01 This book provides an up to date analysis of major issues in the field of sexual abuse, both established and emerging, and asks how we can develop the most evidence based fit for purpose approach in responding to and preventing it. Sexual abuse is a multi disciplinary international issue that exists at the crossroads of theory, practice and research. Therefore the book is future facing and asks the reader to critically reflect upon current and future research and practice and to ask what next. In doing this the book examines the theory, research and practice on a range of topics including grooming behaviors, risk management, risk assessment, sexual fantasies, professional engagement and policy development. These and other essential topics for effective and efficient care for people who have committed sexual offenses are addressed as part of the ultimate goal to reduce and even eliminate sexual victimization in the future. Multi-Tier Approaches to the Resolution of International Disputes Anselmo Reyes, Weixia Gu, 2021-12-16 Multi tier dispute resolution (MDR) entails an early attempt at mediation followed by arbitration or litigation if mediation is unsuccessful. Seemingly everyone acknowledges MDR's attractiveness as a means of resolving disputes due to its combination of the flexibility and informality of mediation with the rigour and formality of arbitration or litigation. Yet the question is why except in China and some Asian jurisdictions MDR is not resorted to around the world and MDR clauses in commercial contracts remain relatively uncommon. This book responds to that question by 1) surveying global regulatory approaches, frameworks for MDR, 2) comparing MDR trends in Asia and the wider world, 3) identifying MDR's strengths and weaknesses, and 4) prescribing ways to address MDR's weaknesses: the enforceability of MDR clauses, the difficulties arising when the same person acts as mediator and decision maker in the same dispute, and the enforcement of mediated settlement agreements resulting from MDR. Radio's Second Century John Allen Hendricks, 2020-03-13 Winner of the 2022 Broadcast Education Association Book Award One of the first books to examine the status of broadcasting on its one hundredth anniversary Radio's Second Century investigates both vanguard and perennial topics relevant to radio's past present and future As the radio industry enters its second century of existence it continues to be a dominant mass medium with almost total listenership saturation despite rapid technological advancements that provide alternatives for consumers Lasting influences such as on air personalities audience behavior fan relationships and localism are analyzed as well as contemporary issues including social and digital media Other essays examine the regulatory concerns that continue to exist for public radio commercial radio and community radio and discuss the hindrances and challenges posed by government regulation with an emphasis on both American and international perspectives Radio's impact on cultural hegemony through creative programming content in the areas of religion ethnic inclusivity and gender parity is also explored Taken together this volume compromises a meaningful insight into the broadcast industry's continuing power to inform and entertain listeners around the world via its oldest mass medium radio

Children, Care and Crime Alison Gerard, Andrew McGrath, Emma Colvin, Annette Gainsford, 2022-11-02 The historical context of colonisation situates the analysis in Children Care and Crime of the involvement of children with care experience in the criminal justice system in an Australian jurisdiction New South Wales focusing on residential care policing the provision of legal services and interactions in the Children's Court While the majority of children in care do not have contact with the criminal justice system this book explores why those with care experience and Indigenous children are over represented in this system Drawing on findings from an innovative mixed method study court observations file reviews and qualitative interviews the book investigates historical and contemporary processes of colonisation and criminalisation The book outlines the impact of trauma and responses to trauma including inter generational trauma caused by policies of colonisation and criminalisation It then follows a child's journey through the continuum of care to the criminal justice system examining data at each stage including the residential care environment interactions with police the provision of legal services and experiences at the Children's Court Drawing together an analysis of the gendered and racialised treatment of women and girls with care experience in the criminal justice system the book particularly focuses on legacies of forced removal and apprenticeship which targeted Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander women and girls Through analysing what practices from England and Wales might offer the NSW context our findings are enriched by further reflection on how decriminalisation pathways might be imagined While there have been many policy initiatives developed to address criminalisation in all parts of the study little evidence was found of implementation and impact To conclude the book

examines the way that hope tropes are regularly deployed in child protection and criminal justice to dangle the prospect of reform and even to produce pockets of success only to be whittled away by well worn pathways to routine criminalisation The conclusion also considers what a transformative agenda would look like and how monitoring and accountability mechanisms are key to new ways of operating Finally the book explores strengths based approaches and how they might take shape in the child protection and criminal justice systems Children Care and Crime is aimed at researchers lawyers and criminal justice practitioners police Judges and Magistrates policy makers and those working in child protection the criminal justice system or delivering services to children or adults with care experience The research is multidisciplinary and therefore will be of broad appeal to the criminology law psychology sociology and social work disciplines The book is most suitable for undergraduate courses focusing on youth justice and policing and postgraduates researching in this field A Family Matter Megan Gaucher, 2018-05-15 How do we define family In an attempt to police incoming migrants the Harper government adopted a strict definition of family to limit access to citizenship for certain immigrants Even when immigrants had no intention of sponsoring family members their familial networks affected their entry to Canada resulting in differentiated treatment of families living within and beyond Canadian borders Megan Gaucher analyzes the government's assessment of sexual minority refugee claimants relationship history and common law and married spousal sponsorship applications and its crackdown on marriage fraud concluding that this narrative of citizenship reinforces racialized gendered and sexualized assumptions about the Canadian family As many Western governments ponder more restrictive immigration policies A Family Matter offers a timely examination of family formation as a factor in both granting and refusing citizenship This important work proposes a course for re evaluating how family is defined and for implementing more just assessments of immigrants and refugees
