Routledge Library Editions Archaeology Archaeology In The Holy Land:

Archaeology in the Holy Land Kathleen Mary Kenyon,1985 Archaeology in the Holy Land Kathleen M.

Kenyon,1960 The emphasis in this book is on the first word in its title archaeology It does not claim to be a complete history for in the historical period literary evidence can give a much more detailed political religious and economic picture than has here been attempted But nevertheless a story of Palestine is the framework of the book with the emphasis upon the contribution that archaeology can make Down to c 3000 B C archaeology alone can write the story As the story is gradually merged into history archaeology still plays a very large part Only in the first millennium B C can history provide a reasonably consecutive story and even then it would remain a one sided unbalanced story without the help of archaeology This book therefore aims at showing the evidence that writes the story for the prehistoric period and in the historic periods concentrates on the evidence which supplements the written record using this only as a background for the archaeological material An excellent book has already been written by Professor Albright on the archaeology of Palestine But this appeared in 1949 and gave the picture provided by pre war archaeology for active field archaeology was virtually at a standstill between 1936 and 1952 Since then much has happened for Palestinian archaeology in both Jordan and Israel is an extremely live affair as all branches of archaeology should be The great modifications and amplifications for which fresh discoveries have provided the evidence is the justification for a new book Routledge Library Editions: Victorian Theatre

Various,2021-03-04 Reissuing works originally published between 1971 and 1981 this compact set offers an outstanding collection of scholarship devoted to 19th Century Victorian theatre A small set of performance history and criticism this set includes a biography of Henry Irving a look at the rise of the status of a career as actor and a consideration of the advent of dramatic criticism These volumes present together a lively picture of the development of the contemporary theatre

Routledge Library Editions: Education and Religion Various,2021-07-14 The 10 volumes in this set originally published between 1965 and 1994 draw together research by leading academics in the area of religious education and provides a rigorous examination of related key issues The volumes examine the teaching of world faiths in schools religious education in both primary and secondary schools and the teaching of morality This set will be of particular interest to students of Education and Religious Studies Routledge Library Editions: Language and Literature of the Middle East

Various,2021-06-23 This nine volume set provides an overview of many aspects of Middle Eastern language and literature These books range from discussions of the Arabic language and its publications to translations of some of the region s most important early works to a survey of folk tales and modern literature Routledge Handbook on Middle East Cities

Haim Yacobi,Mansour Nasasra,2019-07-01 Presenting the current debate about cities in the Middle East from Sana a Beirut and Jerusalem to Cairo Marrakesh and Gaza the book explores urban planning and policy migration gender and identity as well as politics and economics of urban settings in the region This handbook moves beyond essentialist and reductive analyses of identity urban politics planning and development in cities in the Middle East and instead offers critical engagement with both historical and contemporary urban processes in the region Approaching Cities as multi dimensional sites products of political processes knowledge production and exchange and local and global visions as well as spatial artefacts Importantly in the different case studies and theoretical approaches there is no attempt to idealise urban politics planning and everyday life in the Middle East which as with many other cities elsewhere are also situations of contestation and violence but rather to highlight how cities in the region and especially those which are understudied revolve around issues of housing infrastructure participation and identity amongst other concerns Analysing a variety of cities in the Middle East the book is a significant contribution to Middle East Studies It is an essential resource for students and academics interested in Geography Regional and Urban Studies of the Middle East

Testing the Canon of Ancient Near Eastern Art and Archaeology Amy Rebecca Gansell, Ann Shafer, 2020 This volume addresses and problematizes the formation and transformation of the ancient Near Eastern art historical and archaeological canon The canon is defined as an established list of objects monuments buildings and sites that are considered to be most representative of the ancient Near East In testing this canon this project takes stock of the current canon its origins endurance and prospects Boundaries and typologies are examined technologies of canon production are investigated and heritage perspectives on contemporary culture offer a key to the future

Cultural Heritage Hani Hayajneh ,2023 Human heritage is an endless mine of knowledge skills ethos and accomplishments which visualize and examine the power of human creativity and innovation throughout the history The contributions cast an insight into the human psyche to perceive its Weltanschauung and its way of thinking and making artefacts associated with knowledge existence and identity in the context of other existing systems in the world They demonstrate the diversity of topics as well as the state of the art of interdisciplinary approaches that participants of the Humboldt Kolleg use in their research on cultural heritage and confirm once again that the strengths of the Alexander von Humboldt Network should be celebrated and honoured The present volume invites us to seek more novel research approaches that aim towards an understanding of the complex nature of human inheritance

Preface Pondering the Spade David B. Schreiner, 2019-04-17 The close relationship between the Old Testament and archaeology goes without saying However the methodological nuances involved are often either underappreciated or ignored Using William Dever's idea of convergence this work attempts to flesh out details on how archaeology and Old Testament studies merge It examines some of the most important archaeological finds to date and determines that whether through a broad or narrow convergence the history of research has shown that these two separate disciplines exhibit a tendency to inform one another In the case of Old Testament studies these convergences may even be paradigm shifting In every case the convergences are historically and culturally informative and therefore illuminate the depth of the biblical text Palestine Across Millennia Nur Masalha,2022-02-24 In this magisterial cultural history of the Palestinians Nur Masalha illuminates the entire history of Palestinian learning with specific reference to writing education literary production and the intellectual revolutions in the country The book introduces this long cultural heritage to demonstrate that Palestine was not just a holy land for the four monotheistic religions Islam Christianity Judaism and Samaritanism rather the country evolved to become a major international site of classical education and knowledge production in multiple languages including Sumerian Proto Canaanite Greek Syriac Arabic Hebrew and Latin The cultural saturation of the country is found then not solely in landmark mosques churches and synagogues but in scholarship historic schools colleges famous international libraries and archival centres This unique book unites these renowned institutions movements and multiple historical periods for the first time presenting them as part of a cumulative and incremental intellectual advancement rather than disconnected periods of educational excellence In doing so this multifaceted intellectual history transforms the orientations of scholarly research on Palestine and propels current historical knowledge on education and literacy in Palestine to new heights The Boundaries of Jewishness in the Southern Levant 200 BCE-132 CE John Van Maaren,2022-06-06 Recent research has considered how changing imperial contexts influence conceptions of Jewishness among ruling elites esp Eckhardt Ethnos und Herrschaft 2013 This study integrates other often marginal conceptions with elite perspectives It uses the ethnic boundary making model an empirically based sociological model to link macro level characteristics of the social field with individual agency in ethnic construction It uses a wide range of written sources as evidence for constructions of Jewishness and relates these to a local specific understanding of demographic and institutional characteristics informed by material culture The result is a diachronic study of how institutional changes under Seleucid Hasmonean and Early Roman rule influenced the ways that members of the ruling elite retainer class and marginalized groups presented their preferred visions of Jewishness These sometimes competing visions advance different strategies to maintain rework or blur the boundaries between Jews and others The study provides the next step toward a thick description of Jewishness in antiquity by introducing needed systematization for relating written sources from different social strata with their contexts Routledge Revivals: Trade, Travel and Exploration in the Middle Ages (2000) John Block Friedman,Kristen Mossler Figg,2017-07-05 First published in 2000 Trade Travel and Exploration An Encyclopedia covers the people places technologies and intellectual concepts that contributed to trade travel and exploration during the Middle Ages from the years C E 525 to 1492 This comprehensive reference work contains entries on a large number of subjects including familiar topics such as the voyages of Columbus and Marco Polo and also information that is more difficult to find for example the traditions of travel among Muslim women and the influence of Viking travel on navigation and geographical knowledge Bringing together more than 175 scholars from a variety of disciplines it minimizes Eurocentric bias and offers extensive coverage of such topics as travel within Inner Asia Mongol society and the spread of Buddhism Including an extensive map program and more than 125 illustrations as well as bibliographies a comprehensive index and see also references Medieval Trade Travel and Exploration is a valuable reference guide for undergraduate and graduate students scholars and also the general reader

The Changing Landscape of Israeli Archaeology Hayah Katz, 2023-07-31 Focused on the connections between archaeology and Israeli society this book examines the development of Israeli archaeological research taking historical sociological and political contexts into account Adopting a Foucauldian framework of power and knowledge the author begins by focusing on archaeological knowledge as a hegemonic discipline buttressing the national Zionist identity after the establishment of the State of Israel The liberalization of political culture in the late 1970s it is argued opened the door for a more democratized archaeological discipline Making use of in depth interviews with archaeologists belonging to various groups in Israeli society as well as documents from the Israel State Archives ISA the book touches on multiple fields of research including Near Eastern archaeology religious Jewish society Israel Palestine relations and the status of women in Israel Moreover although the book deals with the sociology of Israeli archaeology specifically the author's comparative approach which highlights the mirroring of social processes and the archaeological discipline can also be applied to other societies The book will be of interest to researchers and students in the fields of archaeology sociology and Israel Studies as well as to readers with a general interest in the archaeology of the Holy Land Reader's Guide to Judaism Michael Terry, 2013-12-02 The Reader's Guide to Judaism is a survey of English language translations of the most important primary texts in the Jewish tradition The field is assessed in some 470 essays discussing individuals Martin Buber Gluckel of Hameln literature Genesis Ladino Literature thought and beliefs Holiness Bioethics practice Dietary Laws Passover history Venice Baghdadi Jews of India and arts and material culture Synagogue Architecture Costume The emphasis is on Judaism rather than on Jewish studies more broadly Literary Gazette and Journal of Archaeology, Science, and Art, 1857 The Routledge Handbook of Jews and Judaism in Late Antiquity Catherine Hezser, 2024-01-24 This volume focuses on the major issues and debates in the study of Jews and Judaism in late antiquity third to seventh century C E providing cutting edge surveys of the state of scholarship main topics and research questions methodological approaches and avenues for future research Based on both Jewish and non Jewish literary and material sources this volume takes an interdisciplinary approach involving historians of ancient Judaism scholars of rabbinic literature archaeologists epigraphers art historians and Byzantinists Developments within Jewish society and culture are viewed within the respective regional political cultural and socioeconomic contexts in which they took place Special focus is given to the impact of the Christianization of the Roman Empire on Jews from administrative legal social and cultural points of view The contributors examine how the confrontation with Christianity changed Jewish practices perceptions and organizational structures such as for example the emergence of local Jewish communities around synagogues as central religious spaces Special chapters are devoted to the eastern and western Jewish Diaspora in Late Antiquity especially Sasanian Persia but also Roman Italy Egypt Syria and Arabia North Africa and Asia Minor to provide a comprehensive assessment of the situation and life experiences of Jews and Judaism during this period The Routledge Handbook of Jews and Judaism in Late Antiquity is a critical and methodologically sophisticated survey of current scholarship aimed primarily at students and scholars of Jewish Studies Study of Religions Patristics Classics Roman and Byzantine Studies Iranology History of Art and Archaeology It is a valuable resource for anyone interested in Judaism and Jewish history

Society and Death in Ancient Egypt Janet E. Richards, 2005-03-07 Janet Richards considers social stratification in Middle Kingdom Egypt exploring the assumption that a middle class arose during this period By focusing on the entire range of mortuary behavior she shows how Middle Kingdom Egyptian practices and landscapes relating to death reveal information about the living society
