Fight the Power Clarence Taylor, 2018-12-20 A story of resistance power and politics as revealed through New York City's complex history of police brutality The 2014 killing of Michael Brown in Ferguson Missouri was the catalyst for a national conversation about race policing and injustice The subsequent killings of other black often unarmed citizens led to a surge of media coverage which in turn led to protests and clashes between the police and local residents that were reminiscent of the unrest of the 1960s Fight the Power examines the explosive history of police brutality in New York City and the black community's long struggle to resist it Taylor brings this story to life by exploring the institutions and the people that waged campaigns to end the mistreatment of people of color at the hands of the police including the black church the black press black communists and civil rights activists Ranging from the 1940s to the mayoralty of Bill de Blasio Taylor describes the significant strides made in curbing police power in New York City describing the grassroots street campaigns as well as the accomplishments achieved in the political arena and in the city's courtrooms Taylor challenges the belief that police reform is born out of improved relations between communities and the authorities arguing that the only real solution is radically reducing the police domination of New York's black citizens

Justice as Improvisation Sara Ramshaw, 2013-03-05 Justice as Improvisation The Law of the Extempore theorises the relationship between justice and improvisation through the case of the New York City cabaret laws Discourses around improvisation often imprison it in a quasi ethical relationship with the authentic singular other The same can be said of justice This book interrogates this relationship by highlighting the parallels between the aporetic conception of justice advanced by the late French philosopher Jacques Derrida and the nuanced approach to improvisation pursued by musicians and theorists alike in the new and emerging interdisciplinary field of Critical Studies in Improvisation CSI Justice as Improvisation re imagines justice as a species of improvisation through the formal structure of the most basic of legal mechanisms judicial decision making offering law and legal theory a richer more concrete understanding of justice Not further mystery or mystique but a negotiation between abstract notions of justice and the everyday practice of judging Improvisation in judgment calls for ongoing practical decision making as the constant negotiation between the freedom of the judge to take account of the otherness or singularity of the case and the existing laws or rules that both allow for and constrain that freedom Yes it is necessary to judge yes it is necessary to decide but to judge well to decide justly that is a music lesson perhaps best taught by critical improvisation scholars

Reports of cases decided in the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court of the State of New York. 3d series ,2007 Policing Empires Julian Go,2024 The police response to protests erupting on America s streets in recent years has made the militarization of policing painfully transparent Yet properly demilitarizing the police requires a deeper understanding of its historical development causes and social logics Policing Empires offers a postcolonial historical sociology of police militarization in Britain and the United States to aid that effort Julian Go tracks when why and how British and US police departments have adopted military tactics tools and technologies for domestic use Go reveals that police militarization has occurred since the very founding of modern policing in the nineteenth century into the present and that it is an effect of the imperial boomerang Policing Empires thereby unlocks the dirty secret of police militarization Police have brought imperial practices home to militarize themselves in response to perceived racialized threats from minority and immigrant populations
