International Books in Print, 1995 Barbara Hopkinson,[Anonymus AC01401231],1995 Learning, Work and Practice: New Understandings Paul Gibbs,2012-08-14 This book's original contribution to a crowded literature on work and learning will attract strong international interest Its focus on the philosophy of learning at work brings a fresh perspective on a topic normally viewed through psychological anthropological and sociological eyes It assembles a host of internationally recognized scholars who reflect on the various philosophies of work based learning Full of distinctive and original contributions that provide perceptive insights into the subject the work will be a practical support to teachers trainers and researchers at the same time as it gives readers a clear philosophical grounding in learning at work It is however not simply a book about philosophy but a gazetteer of approaches to education in work that will sustain and inspire those who provide engage in and support the learning of new knowledge and skills in the workplace With adaptability to new employment opportunities so vital to existing workers the authors stand behind continued provision of work based learning in the face of tightening economic constraints Deportation and the Confluence of Violence within Forensic Mental Health and Immigration Systems Ameil J. Joseph,2016-04-29 The practices and technologies of evaluation and decision making used by professionals police lawyers and experts are questioned in this book for their participation in the perpetuation of historical forms of colonial violence through the enforcement of racial and eugenic policies and laws in Canada For a Church to Come Peter C. Blum,2013-03-05 Taking a cue from one of the most famous postmodern thinkers Friedrich Nietzsche the essays in this book put forth experiments in thought rather than arguments for fixed conclusions Blum brings John Howard Yoder to the same table with Nietzsche Michel Foucault and Jacques Derrida and provides a provocative glimpse of what the resulting conversation might look like As Anne Lamott and others have recently insisted faith is not the opposite of doubt but of certainty Blum's essays explore some of our commonly held ways of talking about knowledge meaning commitment and action He suggests that some postmodern theoretical work often dismissed or assumed to be anti Christian is well worth bringing into contemporary Anabaptist Mennonite conversations about discipleship and corporate life Part of the Polyglossia series this book is intended for conversation among academics ministers and laypersons regarding knowledge beliefs and practices of the Christian faith Mangrove Ecology, Silviculture and Conservation Peter Saenger,2013-06-29 Mangroves are a fascinating group of plants that occur on tropical and subtropical shorelines of all continents where they are exposed to saltwater inundation low oxygen levels around their roots high light and temperature conditions and periodic tropical storms Despite these harsh conditions mangroves may form luxuriant forests which are of significant economic and environmental value throughout the world they provide coastal protection and underpin fisheries and forestry operations as well as a range of other human activities This book provides an up to date account of mangrove plants from around the world together with silvicultural and restoration techniques and the management requirements of these communities to ensure their sustainability and conservation All aspects of mangroves and their conservation are critically re examined Those activities which threaten their ongoing survival are identified and suggestions are offered to minimise their effects on these significant plant communities Toni Morrison's 'Beloved' Justine Tally,2008-11-18 This work expands the scope of Morrison s project to examine the ways and means of memory in the preservation of belief systems passed down from the earliest civilizations both the Classical Greek and the Ancient Egyptian as a challenge to the sterility of modernity Moreover this research explores the author s specific use of Foucauldian theory as a vehicle for her narrative which reclaims the very origins of civilization s primal concerns with life procreation and regeneration springing from the very Heart of Africa Despite the weight of white authority and the disparaging of blackness Beloved s multiple ghosts conjure up a legacy so potent that no authoritarian discourse has been able to entirely erase it a legacy that still speaks to us from a heritage we no longer acknowledge yet that nevertheless remains and sustains us

The Boom Femenino in Mexico
Nuala Finnegan, Jane E. Lavery, 2010-04-16

The Boom Femenino in Mexico Reading Contemporary Women's Writing is a collection of essays that focuses on literary production by women in Mexico over the last three decades In its exploration of the boom femenino phenomenon the book traces the history of the earlier boom in Latin American culture and investigates the implications of the use of the same term in the context of contemporary women's writing from Mexico In this way it engages critically with the cultural historical and literary significance of the term illuminating the concept for a wide range of readers It is clear that the entry of so many women writers into an arena traditionally reserved for men has prompted discussion around concepts such as women's writing and the very definition of literature itself Many of the contributors grapple with the theoretical tensions that such debates provoke offering an important opportunity to think critically about the texts produced during this period and the ways in which they have impacted on the Mexican and international cultural spheres The project is comprehensive in its scope and for the first time brings together scholars from Mexico the U S and Europe in a transnational forum The book posits that despite certain aesthetic and thematic commonalities the increased output by women writers in Mexico cannot be appraised as a unified literary movement Instead it embraces a wide range of different generic forms and the subjects under study in the essays in the book include the best selling work of Angeles Mastretta Elena Poniatowska and Laura Esquivel as well as the social and political preoccupations of journalists Rosanna Reguillo and Cristina Pacheco Contributors offer readings of the aesthetic visions of writers as diverse as Carmen Boullosa

Ana García Bergua and Eve Gil while other essays examine the nuances of contemporary gender identity in the work of Ana Clavel Sabina Berman Brianda Domecq and María Luisa Puga There are essays devoted to poetry by indigenous Mayan women and an analysis of the complex place of poetry within the broader framework of literary production The problems that emerge as a result of literary cataloguing based on gender politics are also considered at length in a number of essays that take a panoramic view of literary production over the period Various critical approaches are employed throughout and the collection as a whole demonstrates that academic interest in Mexican women's writing of the boom femenino is thriving Above all the essays here provide a space in which the location of women within prevailing cultural paradigms in Mexico and their role in the mapping of power in evolving textual canons may be interrogated It is clear from the collection that interest in such issues is still alive and that the debate is far from over

Genealogies for the Present in Cultural Anthropology

Bruce M. Knaft, 2013-09-13 In the wake of tensions between modern and postmodern sensibilities what larger directions now emerge in cultural anthropology In this major work Bruce Knaft takes stock of important recent initiatives in cultural and critical theory By combining critical reviews and ethnographic engagements with fresh readings of major figures and approaches the work develops a larger vantage point for considering the dispersing influence of practice theories postmodernism cultural studies postcolonial studies modern post positive feminism and multicultural criticisms

Subtropical Mountain Forests of Las Yungas: Vegetation and Bioclimate Gabriela S. Entrocassi, Rosario G. Gavilán, Daniel Sánchez-Mata, 2019-11-15 The vegetation addressed in this book is biologically one of the most diverse on Earth with many characteristic taxa offering refuge and food sources for many resident and migratory animals Yet the forests of Las Yungas remain poorly known from a floristic and vegetation point of view This book seeks to fill that gap by studying the distribution of forest along an altitudinal but also a bioclimatic gradient The richness in species demonstrates that these forests are substantially more diverse than other subtropical mountain woodlands 103 diagnostic characteristic or indicator species were selected of which 29 are dominant 67 are exclusive selective preferential or differential and 7 are stenotic In addition 13 communities were identified and characterized These forests can be attributed to the Bolivian Tucumán biogeographical province South Andean Region Neotropical Sub Kingdom They are seasonal semi deciduous or evergreen micro and mesowoodlands growing on foothills hillsides ravines gorges and the edges of mountain ranges terrestrial communities as well as river terraces and beaches riparian communities Thanks to the range of new findings the content presented here will benefit experts in related fields such as geographers ecologists and botanists but also teachers nature guides those involved in the management of forest or conservation areas and policymakers
