The Movies of Racial Childhoods Celine Parreñas Shimizu, 2023-12-08 In The Movies of Racial Childhoods Celine Parre as Shimizu examines early twenty first century cinematic representations of Asian and Asian American children Drawing on psychoanalysis and her own perspective as a mother grieving for a deceased child Shimizu considers how cinema renders Asian American children through sexualized racial difference infantilization and premature adultification She looks at how Asian American childhood is characterized in film through experiences of alienation and trauma and contends that childhood development requires finding freedom and self sovereignty through agentic attunement In analyzing films that focus on queer Asian American youth such as Spa Night 2016 and Driveways 2019 and those that explore the trauma of being an immigrant like Yellow Rose 2019 and The Half of It 2020 Shimizu demonstrates that films can prompt viewers to evaluate their own childhood development They also allow the opportunity to understand the demands placed upon Asian American children particularly in regard to race and sexuality In this way cinema becomes a vehicle for empowering our inner child and the children all around us

The Diary of a Mad Chef Daniel Dellavecchia, 2012-07 This family cookbook morphed into much more for me during the writing process It began by contacting friends and family to collect recipes for what I thought would be a simple process During those conversations and with my own memories a flood of personal history evolved in my mind What began as a repository of food recipes became much more to me and I decided to collect the process in the form of this book The Diary of a Mad Chef to also include photos of those people and selected short stories Food has always been the center of our family

s common narrative thread and I attempted to place the face and the stories of my friends and family with the recipes as I remember them Along with the feedback and photos from my friends and family it became a two year long effort to compile edit and publish this book
