Community-based Family Planning and Development in Thailand ,1985      Alfonso X of Castile-León Kirstin Kennedy, 2025-10-01 Alfonso X the Learned of Castile 1252 1284 was praised in his lifetime as a king who devoted himself to discovering all worldly and divine knowledge He commissioned chronicles and law codes and composed poems to the Virgin Mary he gathered together Jewish scholars to translate works of Arab astrology and astronomy and he founded a university of Latin and Arabic studies at Seville Moreover according to his nephew Juan Manuel Alfonso was careful to ensure that he had leisure to look into things he wanted for himself The level of his personal involvement in this literary activity marks him out as an exceptional patron in any period However Alfonso s relationship with the arts also had much in common with that of other thirteenth century European royal patrons among them his first cousin Louis IX of France Like his contemporaries he relentlessly used literary works as a vehicle to promote his royal status and advance his claim to the imperial crown His motivation for the foundation of the university at Seville was arguably political rather than educational and instead of promoting institutional learning during his reign Alfonso preferred to direct the messages about his kingship in the lavish manuscripts he patronized to a restricted courtly audience Yet such was the interest of the works he commissioned that those who could obtain copies did so even if these were still incomplete drafts Three codices traditionally held to have been copied for Alfonso in fact show how this learning reserved for the few began to filter out beyond the Learned King s immediate circle Close codicological analysis of particular manuscripts to make new arguments about the existence and organization of the Alfonsine scriptorium and the revision of the list of manuscripts commonly agreed to have been copied for Alfonso himself Close analysis of the iconography of Alfonso to present new arguments about the role of colour and astrological symbolism in the construction of the royal image The conclusion that Alfonso s literary patronage was part of a propaganda campaign directed towards his court circle and was not an attempt to formulate a cultural programme for his kingdoms or a campaign to support educational institutions such as universities      Autocar & Motor ,1989-11
