Crisis and Restructuring in East Asia S. Jeong, 2004-07-20 This book criticizes the widespread view that the 1997 Asian crisis was due to crony capitalism and puts the blame instead on misguided liberalization It analyzes the case of Korea s business conglomerates the chaebol with particular attention to the car industry to show how liberalization contributed to the crisis even at the level of the firm It shows how those firms that had developed innovative capabilities survived the crisis much better than those that had merely expanded into markets opened up by liberalization Global Infectious Disease Surveillance Technologies and Data Sharing Protocols Jiaying Li ,Jie Huang,Xiangqi Meng, 2025-10-08 Virus transmission has no national boundaries and pandemics such as COVID 19 are global challenges The international community needs to be much better prepared and better aligned in responding to possible future pandemics across the entire cycle of detection alarm and response The proposal for an international instrument on pandemic prevention preparedness and response is guided by a spirit of collective solidarity anchored in the principles of fairness inclusiveness and transparency This research topic calls for papers that are related to the research practice and architectural design of Surveillance technologies and Data Sharing protocols that empower infectious disease prevention and preparedness at a global scale We encourage innovative ideas and discoveries in the field of waste water based surveillance innovative contactless technologies that could be deployed in public transportation vehicles especially those across the national and regional borders We also encourage technical papers especially those utilizing artificial intelligence AI and block chain to ensure the real time and transparent data sharing across the globe Once global pandemic situation could be monitored and checked on anyone s smart phone like that for weather and air pollution the lofty ideology of global pandemic prevention will be realized from bottom up
