Performance Projections Film And The Body In Action:

Performance Projections Stephen Barber, 2014-11-15 Film does far more than document performance it actively recreates the time and space of performance and overhauls its rapport with the viewer's eye and body The first book to look in depth at the intersection of film and performance in relation to issues and theories of space Performance Projections travels from the origins of film in Europe and the United States to the world of digital media today exploring the dynamic relationship between these vitally connected ideas Drawing from a wide range of examples including filmic depictions of German and Japanese and Chinese performance art and street cultures Stephen Barber argues that the act of filming has the power to draw distinctively performative dimensions out of unruly human gatherings such as riots and political protests while also accentuating the outlandish and aberrant aspects of performance Spanning the history of film Barber moves from performance in film's formative years such as Edward Muybridge's work in the 1880s to contemporary performance artworks for example Rabih Mroué's investigations of the often lethal camera phone filming of snipers in Syrian cities Proposing that the future conception of filmed performance needs to be radically expanded in response to the transformations of digital film cultures Performance Projections is a critical addition to the literature on both film and art history

Performance art and revolution Sanja Perovic, 2023-10-31 Stuart Brisley is a pioneering multi media and performance artist who developed performance art as a form of social action in the 1960s and 1970s This book assesses his seminal influence on British art through a focus on his lifelong engagement with the histories and imaginaries of revolution Linking revolutionary history with material from a critical dialogue established with Brisley over the last decade the book recognises Brisley's corpus as a fascinating stage for addressing important questions about the relationship of art politics and history How do we make sense of politically committed art in a contemporary context where revolution has supposedly died or is deemed impossible What can the afterlives of performance art tell us about the historical past including the promises and contradictions of revolutionary time

The Space of Sex Shelton Waldrep, 2021-05-20 As film and television become ever more focused on the pornographic gaze of the camera the human body undergoes a metamorphosis becoming both landscape and building part of an architectonic design in which the erotics of the body spread beyond the body itself to influence the design of the film or televisual shot The body becomes the mise en scène of contemporary moving imagery Opening The Space of Sex Shelton Waldrep sets up some important tropes for the book the movement between high and low art the emphasis on the body looking and framing the general intermedial and interdisciplinary methodology of the book as a whole The Space of Sex's second half focuses on how sex gender and sexuality are represented in several recent films including Paul Schrader's The Canyons 2013 Oliver Stone's Savages 2012 Steven Soderbergh's Magic Mike 2012 Lars Von Trier's Nymphomaniac 2013 and Joseph Gordon Levitt's Don Jon 2013 Each of these mainstream or independent movies and several more are examined for the ways they have attempted to absorb pornography if not the pornography industry specifically into their plot According to

Waldrep the utopian elements of seventies porn get reprocessed in a complex way in the twenty first century as both a utopian impulse the desire to have sex on the screen to re eroticize sex as something positive and lacking in shame with a mixed feeling about pornography itself with an industry that can be seen in a dystopian light In other words sex in our contemporary world still does not come without compromise

Screened Stages Rachel Joseph, 2024-02-28 This book is devoted to tracing the variety of ways that theatre theatricality and performance are embedded in Hollywood cinema as screened stages A screened stage is the literal or metaphorical appearance of a stage on screen When the Hollywood style emerged in cinema history it traumatically severed the entwined relationship between film and theatre The book makes the argument that cinema longs for theatre after that separation The histories of stage and screen persistently crisscross one another making their separation problematic The screened stage from the end of the nineteenth century until now offers a miniaturized version of cinema and theatre history Moments of the stage within the screen compress historical styles and movements into saturated representations on film Such examples overflow the cinematic screen into singular manifestations of presentness Screened stages uncover what it means to be simultaneously present and absent This book would be of great interest to students and scholars of theatre film dance and performance

Nonlinear Pedagogy in Skill

Acquisition Jia Yi Chow,Keith Davids,Chris Button,Ian Renshaw,2021-12-30 Nonlinear Pedagogy is a powerful paradigm for understanding human movement and for designing effective teaching coaching and training programmes in sport exercise and physical education PE It addresses the inherent complexity in learning movement skills viewing the learner the learning environment and the teacher or coach as a complex interacting system The constraints of individual practice tasks provide the platform for functional movement behaviours to emerge during practice and performance The second edition includes new materials of practical theoretical and empirical relevance to enhance understanding of how to implement a Nonlinear Pedagogy to support learning in sport PE and physical activity There is updated in depth discussion on the various pedagogical principles that support Nonlinear Pedagogy and how these principles are applicable in learning designs in sports and physical education There is further emphasis on examining how transfer of learning is implicated in practice highlighting its relevance on skill adaptation and talent development The first part of the book updates the general theoretical framework to explain processes of skill acquisition and motor learning This edition draws clearer links between skill acquisition expertise and talent development focusing on how specificity and generality of transfer have a role to play in the development of learners The book defines Nonlinear Pedagogy and outlines its key principles of practice It offers a thorough and critical appraisal of the functional use of instructional constraints and practice design It discusses methods for creating challenging and supportive individualised learning environments at developmental sub elite and elite levels of performance The second part focuses on the application of Nonlinear Pedagogy in sports and PE There is a greater emphasis on helping applied scientists and practitioners understand the impact of Nonlinear Pedagogy on transfer of learning Every chapter is updated to provide relevant contemporary cases and examples from sport and exercise contexts providing guidance on practice activities and lessons Nonlinear Pedagogy in Skill Acquisition is an essential companion for any degree level course in skill acquisition motor learning sport science sport pedagogy sports coaching practice or pedagogy or curriculum design in physical education

Acting and Performance in Moving Image Culture Jörg Sternagel,Deborah Levitt,Dieter

Mersch, 2014-03-15 This volume offers transdisciplinary perspectives on the study of acting and performance in moving image forms. It assembles 26 international scholars from dance, theatre, film, media and cultural studies, art history and philosophy to investigate the art of acting and the presence of the human body in analog and digital film, animation and video art. The volume includes classical case studies and essays devoted to acting history and acting and genres, but its particular emphasis is on introducing a wide range of groundbreaking theoretical approaches from continental and analytic philosophy to new media theory and cognitivist research, all of which interrogate the fundamental conceptions of act and actor that underwrite both popular and academic notions of performance in moving image culture. Preservation, Radicalism, and the Avant-Garde Canon R. Ferreboeuf, F. Noble, T. Plunkett, 2016-04-08 Combining a range of content with self-reflexive examination by scholars and practitioners, this edited volume interrogates the contemporary significance of the avant-garde. Rather than focusing on a particular region, period or movement, the contributors bring together case studies to examine what constitutes the avant-garde canon. The Japanese Cinema Book Hideaki Fujiki, Alastair Phillips, 2020-04-02 The Japanese Cinema Book provides a new and comprehensive survey of one of the world's most fascinating and widely admired filmmaking regions. In terms of its historical coverage, broad thematic approach and the significant international range of its authors, it is the largest and most wide-ranging publication of its kind to date. Ranging from renowned directors such as Akira Kurosawa to neglected popular genres such as the film musical and encompassing topics such as ecology, spectatorship, home movies, colonial history and relations with Hollywood and Europe, The Japanese Cinema Book presents a set of new and often surprising perspectives on Japanese film. With its plural range of interdisciplinary perspectives based on the expertise of established and emerging scholars and critics, The Japanese Cinema Book provides a groundbreaking picture of the different ways in which Japanese cinema may be understood as a local, regional, national, transnational and global phenomenon. The book's innovative structure combines general surveys of a particular historical topic or critical approach with various micro-level case studies. It argues there is no single fixed Japanese cinema but instead a fluid and varied field of Japanese filmmaking cultures that continue to exist in a dynamic relationship with other cinemas, media and regions. The Japanese Cinema Book is divided into seven inter-related sections: Theories and Approaches, Institutions and Industry, Film Style, Genre, Times and Spaces of Representation, Social Contexts, Flows and Interactions.
