A NOVEL

BOB SMITH

"If H. G. Wells had been funny and Oscar Wilde obsessed with time travel they might have mated and produced Bob Smith, who has written the funniest and wildest ride imaginable through the recent past and near future."—Edmund White

Remembrance Of Things I Forgot A Novel:

Proust's In Search of Lost Time Katherine L. Elkins, 2023 With the story of a madeleine dipped in tea Marcel Proust makes famous moments that transport one to an earlier time thought lost forever His In Search of Lost Time announces a quest narrative with lost time as its goal We follow the journey of a young man as he strives to become the writer he longs to be and his journey entails discovering a sense of self in which past and present intertwine The narrator is delayed in his goal by various digressions including journeys into the worlds of the salons and of art For this reason the novel offers far more avenues for philosophical reflection than simply a meditation on time and identity In Search of Lost Time includes reflections on love and jealousy joy and suffering the enchantments of art and the disillusionments of friendship This volume brings together prominent philosophers and critics to illuminate these many themes Eight essays treat a wide range of topics including fiction biography temporality music love jealousy weather and consciousness One of the longest and most complex novels ever written In Search of Lost Time has fascinated philosophers for decades The contributors in this volume build upon earlier approaches to offer new avenues and directions for philosophical thought The Lost Geopoetic Horizon of Li Jieren Kenny Kwok-kwan Ng, 2015-03-10 Engaged with the paradigms of cultural geography local history spatial politics and everyday life The Lost Geopoetic Horizon of Li Jieren unveils a Sichuan writer's lifelong quest an independent historical fiction writing project on Chengdu from the turn of the century through China's 1911 Revolution Kenny Kwok kwan Ng's study illuminates the crisis of writing home in a globalized age by rescuing Li Jieren's repeatedly revised but never finished river novel series written from Republican to Communist China struggling to liberate local memory from the national cum revolutionary currents The book undercuts official historiography and rewrites Chinese literary history from the ground up by highlighting Li's resilient geopoetics of writing that decenters the nation by adopting the place based view of a distant province The Book of Lost Hours Hayley Gelfuso, 2025-08-26 For fans of The Ministry of Time and The Midnight Library a sweeping unforgettable novel moving from pre WWII Germany to Cold War era America to the mysterious time space a library filled with books containing the memories of those who bore witness to history Nuremberg 1938 On the night of Kristallnacht eleven year old Lisavet Levy is hidden by her father from approaching forces in a mysterious place called the time space a library where all the memories of the past are stored inside of books When her father doesn't return for her she becomes trapped spending her adolescence walking through the memories of those who lived before When she discovers that living timekeepers are entering the time space to destroy memories and maintain their preferred version of history Lisavet sets about trying to salvage the past creating her own book of lost memories Until one day in 1949 when she meets an American timekeeper named Ernest Duquesne who is intent on keeping her from her task What ensues sets her on a course to change history and the time space itself forever Boston 1965 Amelia Duquesne is mourning the death of her uncle and guardian Ernest when she's approached by Moira the enigmatic head of the CIA's highly secretive Temporal Reconnaissance

Program Moira tells her about the existence of the time space accessed only by specially designed watches whose intricate mechanisms have been lost to time and enlists her help in recovering a strange book her uncle had once sought But Amelia quickly realizes that the past and the truth are not as straightforward as Moira would like her to believe A sweeping cinematic love story this feat of imagination explores memory time and the lengths we will go to in order to protect the existence of those we love

Faith Lost: Faith Regained James Atkinson,2019-05-21 A holistic positive answer to modernist and post modernist challenges to Christian faith Recent trends in theology have adapted to what has been assumed to be universally valid scientific thinking thereby contributing to the erosion of traditional protestant belief Pointing to parable as a tool of understanding and appealing to aesthetic appreciation as an analogy the author makes an impassioned call for a return to an assured biblical faith The answer lies in a fuller epistemology and a profounder ontology to explain the universe and man s place in it

The Reading of Books Holbrook Jackson,2001 In the third of his delectable books on books Holbrook Jackson focuses on the relationship between author and reader describing reading as the art of extracting essences from books for our own not the author s benefit Books are to be considered not solely as works of art but as one of the means of the art of living Defining bookmanship as the art of adjusting literature to life Jackson describes reading as a courtship ending in a collaboration Attentive readers enter into a creative process with their books integrating the writer s aesthetic observations and designs into their own experiences Through this exquisite synthesis books give pleasure by deepening and refining readers sensibilities and extending the boundaries of their lives As Jackson says reading is not a duty and if it is not a pleasure it is a waste of time Entertaining as well as instructive his books on books provide inveterate readers with all things needful vindication inspiration cogitation and delectation

Reforming Memory Robert Vosloo, 2017-10-12 Although we should acknowledge the fragility of memory we should nevertheless affirm the remarkable ability of memory to reform and transform our identity Our memories and ways of remembering are however often marked by trauma and violence Memory therefore not merely reforms it too is in need of reformation redemption and transformation With this emphasis in mind Reforming Memory grapples with the question what a responsible engagement with the past entails also for Christians and churches associated with the Reformed tradition The history of Reformed churches in South Africa is one can argue a deeply divided and ambivalent one The same figures are heroes to some and villains to others historic events are deeply ambiguous and conflicting views surround different discourses Yet the histories and perhaps futures of these churches and traditions are inextricably interwoven Reforming Memory fundamentally combines an interest in the notion of e memorye with an interest in South African Reformed theology and history Central is the question how should we remember and represent the past responsibly The essays collected in this book engage in different ways with this question attending in the process to some episodes in the history of the Dutch Reformed Church some influential Reformed theologians and some Social Trauma, Narrative Memory, and Recovery in Japanese Literature and Film David Stahl, 2019-07-02 This book provides a comprehensive analysis of major works in Japanese literature and film through the interpretive lens of trauma and PTSD studies. Focusing critical attention on the psychodynamics and enduring psychosocial aftereffects of social trauma, it also evaluates the themes of dissociation, failed mourning, and psychological defence fantasies. Building on earlier studies, this book emphasizes the role of protagonists in managing to effect partial recovery by composing memoirs in which they transform dissociated traumatic memory into articulate narrative memory or bring about advanced recovery by pioneering alternative means of orally communicating, working through, and overcoming debilitating personal histories of traumatization and victimization. In so doing, Stahl also demonstrates that what holds true on the individual and microcosmic level also does so on the collective and macrocosmic level. This new critical approach sheds important new light on canonical Japanese novels and films and enables recognition and appreciation of integral psychosocial aspects of these traumatic narratives. As such, the book will be of huge interest to students and scholars of Japanese film and literature as well as those of trauma studies.
