Theory in School-Based Occupational Therapy Practice Patricia Laverdure, Francine M. Seruya, 2024-06-05. Theory in School Based Occupational Therapy Practice: A Practical Application addresses a critical need in the school based occupational therapy practice community for a model of integrating theory based decision making in school practice. Drs Laverdure and Seruya provide pragmatic information to support the translation and application of theory in occupational therapy practice in school based settings. The text provides an important blueprint for the advancement of occupational therapy practice in the context of educational reform and accountability. What is included in Theory in School Based Occupational Therapy Practice: Evidence based theoretical conceptual models, theories, and frames of reference used by occupational therapy practitioners in school practice. Case examples to prepare occupational therapy students for practice in school settings. Chapters written by theory and practice scholars and case exemplars illustrating the application of the content. Perfect for future and current practitioners in school systems looking to improve student learning and postsecondary outcomes. Theory in School Based Occupational Therapy Practice: A Practical Application fills a gap that will improve the state of occupational therapy practice in educational settings across the country.

Mindful Crafts as Therapy Cynthia Evetts, Suzanne Peloquin, 2017-04-28. Arts and crafts were one of the very first therapies employed by occupational therapists. Today crafts are still employed as effective interventions for clients with mental health disorders, physical dysfunctions, cognitive issues, and sensory concerns in hospitals, outpatient clinics, veterans centers, schools, skilled nursing facilities, or community settings. Step by step, the authors show you how to use a wide range of novel and highly engaging crafts. They explain how to connect the key tasks associated with an activity to functional outcomes and how to modify them to meet the specific needs of individual patients. They also address the issues of documentation and reimbursement.
