Political Cartoons For Eoc:

Breaking Rank Norm Stamper, 2009-04-27 Opening with a powerful letter to former Tacoma police chief David Brame who shot his estranged wife before turning the gun on himself Norm Stamper introduces us to the violent secret world of domestic abuse that cops must not only navigate but which some also perpetrate Former chief of the Seattle police force Stamper goes on to expose a troubling culture of racism sexism and homophobia that is still pervasive within the twenty first century force then he explores how such prejudices can be addressed He reveals the dangers and temptations that cops face describing in gripping detail the split second life and death decisions Stamper draws on lessons learned to make powerful arguments for drug decriminalization abolition of the death penalty and radically revised approaches to prostitution and gun control He offers penetrating insights into the blue wall of silence police undercover work and what it means to kill a man And Stamper gives his personal account of the World Trade organization debacle of 1999 when protests he was in charge of controlling turned violent in the streets of Seattle Breaking Rank reveals Norm Stamper as a brave man a pioneering public servant whose extraordinary life has been dedicated to the service of his community

Popular Culture in Africa Stephanie Newell, Onookome Okome, 2013-11-12 This volume marks the 25th anniversary of Karin Barber's ground breaking article Popular Arts in Africa which stimulated new debates about African popular culture and its defining categories Focusing on performances audiences social contexts and texts contributors ask how African popular cultures contribute to the formation of an episteme With chapters on theater Nollywood films blogging and music and sports discourses as well as on popular art forms urban and youth cultures and gender and sexuality the book highlights the dynamism and complexity of contemporary popular cultures in sub Saharan Africa Focusing on the streets of Africa especially city streets where different cultures and cultural personalities meet the book asks how the category of the people is identified and interpreted by African culture producers politicians religious leaders and by the people themselves The book offers a nuanced strongly historicized perspective in which African popular cultures are regarded as vehicles through which we can document ordinary people's vitality and responsiveness to political and social transformations

Communicative Perspectives on COVID-19 in Ghana Nancy Henaku, G. Edzordzi Agbozo, Mark Nartey, 2023-09-29 This collection explores the communicative dimensions of the COVID 19 pandemic in Ghana redressing the absence of perspectives from Africa and the Global South in pandemic discourses and highlighting the importance of considering the impact of local contexts in global crises The volume critically reflects on the significance of communicative dimensions understood here as the effects of communication on bidirectional flows between senders and receivers on many different aspects of the coronavirus pandemic Grounded in transnational and interdisciplinary perspectives and drawing on data from the Ghanaian experience the book showcases how important it is for local factors to be taken into account by governments medical professionals social commentators and everyday people in communicating during a pandemic when local cultures histories and infrastructures all play a role in shaping communication and the dissemination of knowledge Chapter examines such topics as the role of metaphor the use of social media in disinformation and the range of strategies and channels employed by stakeholders This volume centers the pandemic experience in a Global South context demonstrating the importance of a greater focus on local contexts in understanding communication in a time of pandemic This book will be of interest to students and scholars in intercultural communication crisis communication health communication discourse analysis and African studies Roadmap to the Virginia SOL
