Introduction:

The course encourages reading, thinking, talking, and writing about how political science is political. The focus will be on Scientism of Politics. Throughout this course we will be focusing on five main learning objectives;

- ii. Surveying the landscape –Political Science as a systematic study of all things political (countries-cities-corporations).
- iii. How study of politics uses methodological tools.
- iv. Thinking critically – Theories make us think about politics and evaluate it. Not all Political Scientists come to the same conclusions about politics. Making reasoned arguments about what we think and why.
- v. Communicating effectively - mastering all of the previous objectives won't get us very far if we can't communicate our knowledge and reasoned opinions to others through clear and concise communication.

Course Objectives;

The objective of this course is;

- To provide students with an empirical tool to research in Political Science.
- To learn how political scientists formulate research questions, develop theories to answer those questions, and use empirical techniques to test the validity of those theories.
- To learn how to formulate a theory and test for evidence.
