International Perspectives on Literacies, Diversities, and Opportunities for Learning Cynthia Brock,Beryl Exley,Lester-Irabinna Rigney,2023-07-11 This book explores the conceptual framework opportunities for learning as a transaction between literacy learners mediating agents and the literacy content to be learned within social cultural and historical contexts With contributions from top scholars from around the world the chapters in this book provide a window into the varied ways learners their families educators and researchers have co constructed opportunities for learning in a range of PK 12 classrooms community settings and university classrooms across the globe Building on decades of existing scholarship contributors conceptualize literacy as social practice and discuss a variety of literacies including engineering literacies community literacies and bilingual and multicultural literacies and more through real world and insightful examples By situating literacy learning in the complex social cultural and historical contexts in which students teachers and families live and work chapter authors provide nuanced qualitative and deeply profound views of literacy learning Critical and informative with a myriad of examples on co constructed opportunities for learning this volume is an essential text for graduate courses on literacy education and for literacy researchers teacher educators and teachers

The Art and Craft of Literacy Pedagogy Jennifer Rowsell, 2020-05-18 In tracing community and how art and craft can be harnessed to express and manifest communities this book raises fundamental questions and issues about the nature of literacy in everyday lives Threaded throughout the contributions is an abiding belief in the expansive and flexible nature of literacy which might one moment involve photography in the next drama and in the next invite song coupled with movement Something happens to literacy when it is seen through multiple modalities of meaning and communication it moves from a thing to a thought and a feeling Pedagogically the book offers readers a carousel of places and people to witness literacy with from young children all the way to grandparents This opens up a sense of geography and age proving that literacy really does reside in the centre and corners of our lives With nine chapters by scholars in Canada the United Kingdom and the United States all researching under the umbrella of the same research study the collection provides a unique perspective on human and aesthetic communication and shows differences between social groups This book was originally published as a special issue of Pedagogies An International Journal

Teaching Together, Learning Together Wolff-Michael Roth, Kenneth George Tobin, 2005 Coteaching and cogenerative dialoguing are ways of learning to teach that truly bridge the gap between theory and praxis as new teachers learn to teach alongside peers and more experienced teachers These practices are also means of overcoming teacher isolation and burnout Through cogenerative dialogue sessions new and experienced teachers university supervisors researchers and administrators are able to create local theory for the purpose of improving teaching and learning In this book contributors from four countries report on how coteaching and cogenerative dialoguing worked in their situation
