Bill Israelson, 2014-12-16. Most photographers love photographing people, but they will also readily admit that there are a lot of challenges to making great portraits. In this book, professional portrait photographer Bill Israelson explores the skills that lie at the heart of a successful approach to portrait photography. First, he helps you set your overall objectives for the image and your depiction of the subject, which will determine the equipment you'll need. Then he lays out a simple six-step process designed to help you achieve your objectives from location selection through lighting and posing, and create a great-looking portrait of any subject in any situation. Delving further into the process, he presents individual chapters dedicated to meeting the unique challenges of creating portraits outdoors, in the studio, and at indoor locations. Concluding with tips for editing your images, Israelson charts a simple course to more appealing, more flattering portraits.

Social Identities Between the Sacred and the Secular Abby Day, Giselle Vincett, Christopher R. Cotter, 2016-04-01. Focusing on the important relationship between the sacred and the secular, this book demonstrates that it is not paradoxical to think in terms of both secular and sacred or neither in different times and places. International experts from a range of disciplinary perspectives draw on local, national, and international contexts to provide a fresh analytical approach to understanding these two contested poles. Exploring such phenomena at an individual, institutional, or theoretical level, each chapter contributes to the central message of the book: that the in-between is real, embodied, and experienced every day, and informs and is informed by intersecting social identities. Social Identities between the Sacred and the Secular provides an essential resource for continued research into these concepts, challenging us to re-think where the boundaries of sacred and secular lie and what may lie between.
