Wright,Richard D. Wright,1994-07-01 Building on the principles and practices presented in The Divining Mind Richard Wright s first book on dowsing coauthored by T Edward Ross II authors Richard and Pat Wright define dowsing as the process of uncovering information through the medium of the self The Wrights believe as do many dowsers that the ability to dowse is innate but they also feel that its proper development is contingent upon the parallel unfoldment of the spiritual qualities in our nature Through this process the dowser becomes increasingly cognizant of the interconnectedness of all aspects of life and begins to play his or her part as an agent of healing and positive change Includes detailed information on Responsibility in dowsing Practical dowsing Earth energies Planetary stewardship Healing and prayer The supersensory worlds An indispensable guide for the advanced dowser as well as a beginner s sourcebook Kū Kanaka—Stand Tall George S. Women in Ritual and Symbolic Roles Anita Spring, 2012-12-06 This volume of essays grew out of a symposium organized by Judith Hoch Smith and Anita Spring for the 1974 American Anthropological Association meetings in Mexico City The two part symposium was entitled Women in Ritual and Symbolic Systems I Midwives Madonnas and Mediums II Prostitutes Witches and Androgynes The symposium participants were asked to explore theological ritual and symbolic aspects both positive and negative of the feminine cultural domain using ethnographic materials with which they were familiar The resulting papers have been revised edited and gathered together in Women in Ritual and Symbolic Roles The theoretical importance of these papers for the study of women's participation in culture and society rests on the assumption that religious ideas are paramount forces in social life that relationships between the sexes the nature of female sexuality and the social and cultural roles of women are in large part defined by religious ideas That this proposition remains valid long after religion itself has ceased to be a living truth in the lives of many people can be seen from the tenaciousness of Judeo Christian ideas about women in the contemporary Western world Both the expansion of life options for women and the creation of more positive cultural images of the female are intimately related to changes in the mythological symbolic portraits that people carry around in their heads These portraits are almost exclusively constructed from mythological and religious conceptions inherent in all facets of culture

Romanticism & Esoteric Tradition Paul Davies, 1998 Spiritual quest is at the very heart of poetry but in our materialistic climate as we begin the twenty first century this has been largely forgotten even by those who claim to be experts in interpreting literature How does the worldview common to the main esoteric traditions of East and West correspond to the aims of Romantic poets such as Shelley Keats Blake Coleridge and Wordsworth In Romanticism and Esoteric Tradition Paul Davies maintains that the intended meaning of the poetry and thinking of the Romantics can be understood only in the light of the spiritual teachings of those traditions This is one of the few books that connects the creative nature of poetry to the core teachings of the esoteric tradition It reveals the true meaning of several Romantic writers whose works have been trivialized by a culture that has marginalized the spiritual and bound itself only to material historical and social concerns The author also shows that the Romantics were the first Western poets to imagine the relationship of the self to the environment as personal encounter In this sense the Romantics recalled a long held secret of the esoteric human sciences rather than inventing a new one This book brings the deepest interests of the Romantics directly into contact with issues closest to present day students of the spiritual traditions and holistic perspectives

Connecting with the Arcturians 3 David K. Miller, 2018-12-20 The themes of this book focus on the evolution of humanity the next stage of our planetary development the planetary crisis in general and how we as spiritual lightworkers and starseeds can prepare for our future and for the ascension We look at the relationships between such complex subjects as quantum physics and spirituality and New Age physics to learn how that relates to the higher dimensions and healing techniques that use new terminology such as quantum healing and omega light The Arcturians gladly integrate physics with spirituality Ascension is the transmutation of the physical body into the fifth dimension completing Earth's incarnational cycles They report that the ascension is open to all seekers of higher spiritual truth especially those who are open to cosmic spirituality There is also an extensive glossary to help the reader Overall their messages are hopeful helpful and healing The healings provided through their thinking are relevant personally and planetarily
