

RESTORATIVE CRIMINAL JUSTICE

*Hadar Dancig-Rosenberg & Tali Gal

ABSTRACT

This Article develops a model that integrates restorative justice within the conventional punitive system of criminal responsibility and punishment. Contrary to the conventional wisdom, we demonstrate that restorative justice should form a synergy with retributivism, deterrence, incapacitation, and other punitive goals of criminal law. We show how this synergy can be formed, illustrate its operation and identify its potential contribution to social welfare.

CRIMINAL AND CONSTITUTIONAL LAW IN MALAYSIA: A COMPARATIVE APPROACH HASBOLLAH BIN MAT SAAD, MAIZATUL AZILA BINTI CHEE DIN, MOHD AZIZIE BIN ABDUL AZIZ, 2020-05-07

Criminal Law and Constitutional Law in Malaysia: A Comparative Approach is a solid application oriented text for students taking law subjects. Many new features make this edition a richer and stronger learning resource for students. Several factors motivated the authors to write this book. After having the experience in legal field and teaching for more than 10 years, it became clear that there was a definite need for more detail materials in this area. In addition, there was need for a book which would give full recognition to an easier method and the authors felt it was time for a text which would develop the ideas and methods with this in mind. This book covers a thorough discussion of the development of law in Malaysia, especially criminal and constitutional law matters. A major audience for the book will be students studying the law subjects. The order of topics, however, provides a degree of flexibility so that the book can be of interest to different readers through basic concepts until the advanced concepts, i.e. the discussion of the cases. The purpose of this book is to take the readers on an introduction to Malaysian Criminal and Constitutional Law by which the meaning of such subject at basic level is better understood. Hopefully, this book can be benefited by the readers in their journey to success.

The Routledge Handbook of the Philosophy and Science of Punishment Farah Focquaert, Elizabeth Shaw, Bruce N. Waller, 2020-10-14

Philosophers, legal scholars, criminologists, psychiatrists and psychologists have long asked important questions about punishment: What is its purpose? What theories help us better understand its nature? Is punishment just? Are there effective alternatives to punishment? How can empirical data from the sciences help us better understand punishment? What are the relationships between punishment and our biology, psychology and social environment? How is punishment understood and administered differently in different societies? The Routledge Handbook of the Philosophy and Science of Punishment is the first major reference work to address these and other important questions in detail, offering 31 chapters from an international and interdisciplinary team of experts in a single comprehensive volume. It covers the major theoretical approaches to punishment and its alternatives, emerging research from biology, psychology and social neuroscience and important special issues like the side effects of punishment and solitary confinement, racism and stigmatization, the risk and protective factors for antisocial behavior and victims' rights and needs. The Handbook is conveniently organized into four sections: I Theories of Punishment and Contemporary Perspectives; II Philosophical Perspectives on Punishment; III Sciences; Prevention and Punishment; IV Alternatives to Current Punishment Practices. A volume introduction and a comprehensive index help make The Routledge Handbook of the Philosophy and Science of Punishment essential reading for upper undergraduate and postgraduate students in disciplines such as philosophy law criminology psychology and forensic psychiatry and highly relevant to a variety of other disciplines such as political and social sciences behavioral and neurosciences and global ethics It is also an ideal resource for anyone interested in current theories research and programs dealing with the problem of punishment
