If you meet George Herbert on the road, kill him Justin Lewis-Anthony, 2013-01-17 Priestly ministry in the Church of England needs a radical rethink George Herbert died in 1633 His legacy continues His poems are read and sung and his parish ministry remains the model for the Church of England's understanding of how and where and why its priests should minister But there is a problem The memory of Herbert celebrated by the Church is an inaccurate one and in its inaccuracy is unfair on Herbert himself and his successors in the ordained ministry This is a book of the long view It sets out to assess realistically the context of Herbert's life and to explore the difficulties of parish life today By examining the status and role of parish clergy since Herbert's time and today it draws on the work of historians social anthropologists psychologists and theologians and presents their ideas in a readable and passionate style It argues that the future strength of parochial ministry will be found in a recovery of historic renewed understandings of priestly ministry and concludes by outlining more sustainable patterns of practice for the future In a climate of uncertainty for the future of the church it will be an encouragement for priest and people and welcomed by both If You Meet the Buddha on the Road, Kill Him Sheldon Kopp, 2013-05-22 A fresh realistic approach to altering one's destiny and accepting the responsibility that grows with freedom No meaning that comes from outside of ourselves is real The Buddhahood of each of us has already been obtained We only need to recognize it The most important things that each man must learn no one can teach him Once he accepts this disappointment he will be able to stop depending on the therapist the guru who turns out to be just another struggling human being Using the myth of Gilgamesh Siddhartha The Wife of Bath Don Quixote the works of Buber Ginsberg Shakespeare Kafka Nin Dante and Jung a brilliant psychotherapist guru and pilgrim shares the epic tales and intimate revelations that help to shape Everyman's journey through life Amphibian and Reptile Road Ecology Cheryl S. Brehme, Robert Nathan Fisher, Silviu O. Petrovan, Viorel Dan Popescu, Thomas Edward S. Langton, Kimberly M. Andrews, 2024-05-21 Roads may threaten the persistence of wildlife populations by acting as barriers to movement and or sources of increased mortality across the landscape Amphibians and reptiles have been identified as being particularly susceptible to negative road impacts Many species migrate annually among habitats to support basic life history requirements such as breeding development foraging and overwintering For these species individuals may need to successfully cross roads multiple times each year for the population to persist Many are slow moving and freeze in the presence of danger making it almost impossible for them to avoid oncoming vehicles Although there are a plethora of road mortality location and count data the effects of road mortality on the long term viability of amphibian and reptile populations and metapopulations are mostly unknown due to a lack of information on their abundance vital rates behavior and spatial and temporal dynamics Road Kill Pete Adams, 2022-02-14 Cataclysmic events have occurred in the decorous upper middle class enclave within Southsea Portsmouth on the south coast of England But what were the circumstances that contributed to this violent clash involving a Sherman tank and a bazooka The strange occurrence is Investigated by Lord Everard Pimple a naive upper class twit who not only inadvertently opens a can of worms but has an introduction into the world of womanly wiles Everard s life is about to blow up like an atom bomb he just doesn t know it yet But after the dust settles will he still be standing

Road Kill Dave Ebert,2015-04-15 Road Kill Quest for Freedom bores a window back through time illuminating an era gone by The story focuses on a place and the events of a single Motorcycle Club during a period many call The Golden Age of Motorcycle Clubs The Vietnam War was not the only war fought by these young men Road Kill fought another war one that germinated deep inside his soul This war was spawned by a quest he never fulfills A Quest for Freedom and in the end as this Club looks back many older members tell their younger Brothers Its easy to see this was the most phenomenal period in our Clubs long history

Displaying Death and Animating Life Jane C. Desmond, 2016-08-18 The number of ways in which humans interact with animals is almost incalculable From beloved household pets to the steak on our dinner tables the fur in our closets to the Babar books on our shelves taxidermy exhibits to local zoos humans have complex deep and dependent relationships with the animals in our ecosystems In Displaying Death and Animating Life Jane C. Desmond puts those human animal relationships under a multidisciplinary lens focusing on the less obvious and revealing the individualities and subjectivities of the real animals in our everyday lives

Desmond a pioneer in the field of animal studies builds the book on a number of case studies She conducts research on site at major museums taxidermy conventions pet cemeteries and even at a professional conference for writers of obituaries She goes behind the scenes at zoos wildlife clinics and meetings of pet cemetery professionals We journey with her as she meets Kanzi the bonobo artist and a host of other animal artists all of whom are preparing their artwork for auction Throughout Desmond moves from a consideration of the visual display of unindividuated animals to mourning for known animals and finally to the marketing of artwork by individual animals The first book in the new Animal Lives series Displaying Death and Animating Life is a landmark study bridging disciplines and reaching across divisions from the humanities and social sciences to chart new territories of investigation
