

A rustic still life photograph featuring a glass jar with a black wire handle, filled with a thick, yellowish roasted garlic paste. A metal spoon is partially submerged in the paste. The jar sits on a dark wooden surface. Surrounding the jar are several slices of golden-brown bread, some of which are topped with the garlic paste. A whole head of garlic and several individual garlic cloves are scattered around. In the foreground, a small, round, dark-colored plate holds two more slices of bread, one of which is also topped with the paste. To the right, a small, shallow dish contains a mound of white, coarse salt. The background is dark and out of focus, emphasizing the food items.
