The Library of John Quinn John Quinn, 1923      The Best Short Stories : 1937 Edward Joseph O'Brien, 1937      Ebony, 1965-11 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine      The People of the Book and the Camera Ofra Amihay, 2022-06-30 Amihay offers a pioneering study of the unique nexus between literature and photography in the works of Hebrew authors Exploring the use of photography both as a textual element and through the inclusion of actual images Amihay shows how the presence of visual elements in a textual work of fiction has a powerful subversive function Contemporary Hebrew authors have turned to photography as a tool to disrupt narratives and give voice to marginalized sectors in Israel including women immigrants Mizrahi Israelis LGBTQ individuals second generation Holocaust survivors and traumatized army veterans Amihay discusses standard novels alongside graphic novels challenging the dominance of the written word in literature In addition to providing a poetic analysis of imagetext pages Amihay addresses the social and political issues authors are responding to including gender roles Zionism the ethnic divide in Israel and its Palestinian minority In exploring these avant garde novels and their authors Amihay elevates their significance and calls for a more expansive definition of canonical Hebrew literature      The Best American Short Stories ... and the Yearbook of the American Short Story, 1937      Kipling Interviews and Recollections Harold Orel, 1983-06-18      Virginia Woolf's Rooms and the Spaces of Modernity Suzana Zink, 2018-02-01 This book provides a fascinating account of rooms in selected works by Virginia Woolf Casting them as spaces which are at once material textual and emotional the volume shows Woolf's rooms to be consistently connected to wider geographies of modernity and therefore central to her writing of gender class empire and the nation The discussion moves in and out of rooms from the focus on travel in Woolf's debut novel to the archival function of built space and literary heritage in Night and Day the university as a male space of learning in Jacob's Room the iconic A Room of One's Own and its historical readers interior space as spatial history in The Years and rooms as loci of memory in her unfinished memoir Zink masterfully shows the spatial formation of rooms to be at the heart of Woolf's interweaving of the political and the aesthetic revealing an understanding of space as dynamic and relational      Rudyard Kipling David Alan Richards, Beinecke Rare Book and Manuscript Library, 2007-01-01 This text is organized chronologically beginning with Kipling's birth in India in 1865 and extending to movies plays and new editions of his works that have appeared since his death in 1936 The selected items create a timeline of his life and popular works including The Jungle Books and The Just So Stories      Notes and Queries, 1922      Living in Time Albert Gelpi, 1998-02-19 The Oxford poets of the 1930s W H Auden C Day Lewis Stephen Spender and Louis MacNeice represented the first concerted British challenge to the domination of twentieth century poetry by the innovations of American modernists such as Ezra Pound and William Carlos Williams Known for their radical politics and aesthetic conservatism the Auden Generation has come to loom large in our map of twentieth century literary history Yet Auden's voluble domination of the group in its brief period of association and Auden's sway with critics ever since has made it difficult to hear the others on their own terms and in their own distinct voices Here rendered in eloquent prose by one of our most distinguished critics of modern poetry is the first full length study of the poetry of C Day Lewis a book that introduces the reader to a profoundly revealing and beautifully wrought record of his poetry against the cultural and literary ferment of this century Albert Gelpi explores in three expansive sections the major periods of the poet's development beginning with the emergence of Day Lewis in the thirties as the most radical of the Oxford poets An artist who sought through poetry a way of living in time without traditional religious assurances Day Lewis went further than his friends in seeking to forge a revolutionary poetry out of his commitment to Marxism When Stalinism led to his resignation from the Communist Party Day Lewis in the forties went on to shape a rich fiercely perceptive poetry out of the convergence of the wartime crisis with the explosive events of his own inner life intensified by the erotics of a decade long affair Returning to his Irish roots and meditating on the persistent tension between agnosticism and faith in the work of his third and final period Day Lewis wrote some of the most moving poems in the language about mortality and dying the limits and possibilities of human striving Through the traumatic changes of his life C Day Lewis came increasingly to depend on the intricacies of poetry itself as a way of living in time His abiding belief in the psychological and moral functions of poetry impelled him in his critical writings and in his own poetic practice to delineate a modern poetics that presents an effective alternative to the elitist experimentation associated with Modernism This vital revisionist reading of Day Lewis demonstrates that much of his best work was written after the thirties and establishes him as one of the most significant and accomplished British poets of the modern period
