Masculinity in the Contemporary Romantic Comedy

John Alberti,2013-09-11 This volume addresses the growing obsolescence of traditional constructions of masculine identity in popular romantic comedies by proposing an approach that combines gender and genre theory to examine the ongoing radical reconstruction of gender roles in these films Alberti creates a unified theory of gender role change in the movies that combines the insights of both poststructuralist gender and narrative genre theory avoiding binary approaches to the study of gender representation He establishes the current crises in both gender representation and genre development within romantic comedies as examples of experimentation and change towards narratives that feature more egalitarian and less essentialist constructions of gender

Heightened Genre and Women's Filmmaking in Hollywood Mary Harrod,2021-05-24 Despite the widely publicised prejudice faced by women in Hollywood since around 1990 a significant minority of female directors have been making commercially and culturally impactful films there across the full range of genres This book explores movies by filmmakers Amy Heckerling Nora Ephron Nancy Meyers Catherine Hardwicke Sofia Coppola Kimberly Peirce Kathryn Bigelow and Greta Gerwig including many which are still critically neglected or derided seeing them as offering a new understanding of genre filmmaking That is like many other contemporary films but in a striking proportion within the smaller set of mainstream movies by women this body of work revels in a heightened genre status that allows its authors to simultaneously address intellectual cinephilic pleasures and bodily emotive ones Arguing through close analysis that these films demonstrate the inseparability of such strategies of engagement in contemporary genre cinema Heightened Genre reclaims women s mainstream filmmaking for feminism through a recalibration of genre theory itself
