History for the IB Diploma Paper 2 Evolution and Development of Democratic States (1848-2000) Jean Bottaro, John Stanley, 2015-12-03 Comprehensive second editions of History for the IB Diploma Paper 2 revised for first teaching in 2015 This coursebook covers Paper 2 World History Topic 9 Evolution and Development of Democratic States 1848 2000 of the History for the IB Diploma syllabus for first assessment in 2017 Tailored to the requirements of the IB syllabus and written by experienced IB History examiners and teachers it offers authoritative and engaging guidance through the following detailed studies from around the world South Africa India Germany and the USA Assessment of Reading in International Studies Jenny Lenkeit, Knut Schwippert, 2020-05-21 This book brings together contributions from different scholarly contexts that address a diverse range of focused topics as well as empirical and conceptual perspectives on research with international studies Some chapters focus on technical aspects exploring opportunities for drawing causal inferences from the data and investigating biases originating in distributional scale properties Others are of a more conceptual nature addressing changes in the relevance of socio economic indicators across time and countries examining the exposure of mother tongue and English instruction on performance and investigating the effects of test construction on gender difference The discussion takes a much needed meta perspective on the usefulness of international large scale assessments for educational research and allows reflection upon possibilities and opportunities for their improvement This book was originally published as a special issue of Assessment in Education Text Variability Measures in Corpus Design for Setswana Lexicography Thapelo J. Otlogetswe, 2011-01-18 This book is about the design of a Setswana corpus for lexicography While various corpora have been compiled and a variety of corpora based research has been attempted in African languages no effort has been made towards corpus design Additionally although extensive analysis of the Setswana language has been done by missionaries grammarians and linguists since the 1800s none of this research is in corpus design Most research has been largely on the grammatical study of the language The recent corpora research in African languages in general has been on the use of corpora for the compilation of dictionaries and little of it is in corpus design Pioneers of this kind of corpora research in African languages are Prinsloo and De Schryver 1999 De Schryver and Prinsloo 2000 and 2001 and Gouws and Prinsloo 2005 Because of a lack of research in corpora design particularly in African languages this book attempts to fill that gap especially for Setswana It is hoped that the finding of this study will inspire similar designs in other languages comparable to Setswana We explore corpus design by focusing on measuring a variety of text types for lexical richness at comparable token points The study explores the question of whether a corpus compiled for lexicography must comprise a variety of texts drawn from different text types or whether the quality of retrieved information for lexicographic purposes from a corpus comprising diverse text varieties could be equally extracted from a corpus with a single text type This study therefore determines whether linguistic variability is crucial in corpus design for lexicography New

Curriculum History ,2019-02-11 Rereading the historical record indicates that it is no longer so easy to argue that history is simply prior to its forms Since the mid 1990s a new wave of research has formed around wider debates in the humanities and social sciences such as decentering the subject new analytics of power reconsideration of one dimensional time and three dimensional space attention to beyond archival sources alterity Otherness the invisible and more In addition broader and contradictory impulses around the question of the nation transnational post national proto national and neo national movements have unearthed a new series of problematics and focused scholarly attention on traveling discourses national imaginaries and less formal processes of socialization bonding and subjectification New Curriculum History challenges prior occlusions in the field building upon and departing from previous waves of scholarship extending the focus beyond the insularity of public schooling the traditional framework of the self contained nation state and the psychology of the schooled individual Drawing on global studies historical sociology postcolonial studies critical race theory visual culture theory disability studies psychoanalytics Cambridge school structuralisms poststructuralisms and infra and transnational approaches the volume holds together not despite but because of differences and incommensurabilities in rereading historical records

100 Years of Radio in South Africa, Volume 2 Sisanda Nkoala,Gilbert Motsaathebe,2023-12-27 The book brings together media scholars and practitioners to deliberate on the role and influence of radio broadcasting in South Africa over the past 100 years The publication will add to the existing body of knowledge on radio in this context by being among one of the few to consider radio broadcasting in South Africa Essentially the book will make a distinct contribution focusing on a critique of the medium s role in community building and culture making among others While the book will provide relevant theoretical frameworks it also aims to include the voices of media practitioners who can reflect on the importance of this medium from a more realistic perspective Volume 2 focuses on the impact of digitization on radio in South Africa and considers the future of radio in South Africa

Talking Freedom Karsten Legère,Sandra Fitchat,Femi Akindele,2002

'Along the Routes to Power' Martin Pütz,Joshua A. Fishman,JoAnne Neff-van Aertselaer,2011-12-22 The present volume grew out of the 30th International LAUD Symposium held on April 19 22 2004 at the University of Koblenz Landau in Landau Germany The conference Empowerment through Language was centrally concerned with the concept of power and or empowerment as observed in the status and use of language s and their speakers in bilingual and multilingual communities The book discusses the theoretical issues inherent in the relation between language and power the empowerment strategies involved in language policy and language planning situations and the issue of language endangerment in Africa i e the fate of minority languages and their speakers and the sociopolitical factors perpetuating their exclusion from access to knowledge and skills The volume constitutes a collection of papers by prominent linguists from many countries who explore the exciting interdisciplinary area of language power and linguistic empowerment Broadly speaking the papers focus on the theoretical and sociolinguistic problems related to the role of power in language policy and language planning situations in multilingual settings language choices code switches and associated topics Thus the aim of the volume is to open up language policy and language planning issues as observed in multilingual contexts nations institutions other settings and domains to the wider community of critical sociolinguistics by concentrating on the relationship between language and power More particularly it offers a decidedly sociolinguistic perspective to the study of language and power which likewise has been tackled from other perspectives in the areas of sociology and political science This interdisciplinary relationship is important both for linguistics and for the sociology of language In this way the book is an important contribution to general linguistics sociolinguistics minority issues in multilingual settings as well as the social sciences In honor of his upcoming 80th birthday 2006 Fishman s colleagues and former students are preparing five volumes by him or about him this being one of them

Botswana Herman M. Batibo, Birgit Smieja, 2000 The need of the national language Setswana to participate actively in society politics and democratisation as both national language and lingua franca of Botswana has caused language domination and suffocation on the part of the 25 or so minority languages As a result these languages are now going through a process of language shift and death Consequently their cultures too suffer great losses in order to keep pace with the mainstream society The aim of the book is threefold a to inform the large public both local and international about the sociolinguistic and related issues regarding the minority languages of Botswana b to provide facts about the state and future trends of the minority languages in order to sensitise the public and the relevant authorities about the issues involved and c to present ideas and insights in order to stimulate academic debates on the minority languages Linguists from Botswana as well as from Europe and U S A present their latest field research findings to shed light on the present situation of the minority languages

A 21st Century Employability Skills Improvement Framework for the Construction Industry John Aliu, Clinton Aigbavboa, Wellington Thwala, 2021-04-30 This book will provide readers with an understanding of the employability concept and develop an employability skills improvement model to enhance the employability of built environment graduates to foster economic development The developed model determines the influence of generic skills discipline specific skills work integrated learning emotional intelligence university industry collaboration outcomes and 4IR knowledge in predicting the outcomes of improved graduate employability The model is developed with a theoretical lens on existing frameworks of employability and skills development Whilst drawing comparisons with countries such as the UK USA Australia and Canada the authors present the results of a two stage Delphi survey in South Africa as a case study on the current state of skills development and on the skills of the future The case study is presented in line with the South Africa s long term National Development Plan NDP aimed at developing the key capabilities and skills of its citizens by ensuring quality education on a broader scale by 2030 As automation continues to rapidly advance the pressures on universities to revamp and restructure their curricula have become increasingly necessary This book recommends that higher education institutions urgently need to intensify their efforts by introducing significant modifications to the science and technology curriculum to enable students to develop and acquire competencies in the rapidly emerging areas of artificial intelligence data science robotics advanced simulation data communication system automation real time inventory operations cloud computing and information technologies This implies that universities curriculum should be infused with 4IR thinking within the conventional primary sciences of biology chemistry and physics with greater emphasis on digital literacy to boost 4IR understanding amongst the graduates The book is therefore of interest to researchers and policy makers in the built environment that are placed in academia the construction industry or at consultancy levels it provides significant recommendations for universities as they intensify their efforts to develop graduates for the future
