Cobley, 1990-05-21 This is the first book to discuss the emergence and nature of the black bourgeoisie in South Africa in its historical context as a class in itself and for itself It reveals how by the 1920s the black petty bourgeoisie was emerging in South Africa through the process of capitalist development out of pre existing elites and out of new elites based mainly in the new industrial centers The book then discusses how the black petty bourgeoisie deployed in the 1930s a wide range of class specific social and cultural networks using forms borrowed from the dominant classes as a means of entrenching and reproducing its class position The book details the significant differentiation within the black petty bourgeoisie revealing it to be divided into a more economically secure upper stratum and a much larger lower stratum which was always vulnerable to proletarianisation The book also shows that members of the petty black bourgeoisie virtually monopolized political leadership in black communities up to 1950 and beyond This had very important consequences for the formulation and articulation of black political objectives at both the local and national levels and especially for the developing African nationalist movement Introduction to Tswana Alexander Sandilands, 1953 A contribution to racial understanding dedicated to the memory of a great man Robert Moffat of Kuruman Botswana Notes and Records, 1996 Guide to Microforms in Print, 2009 The National Bibliography of Botswana, 1972 Arts & Humanities Citation Index, 1995 Cattlemen's Concerns Doug Maher, 1976 Dun & Bradstreet Exporters' Encyclopaedia, 1994 Material is arranged geographically For each country there is a country profile followed by information on marketing data communications transportation business travel key contacts and a summary trade regulations and documentation required Also included are brief sections on U S ports U S foreign trade zones World Trade Center Association members U S government agencies providing assistance to exporters foreign trade organizations foreign communications and general
