Florida,2016-05-18 University of Florida has an ambitious goal to harness the power of its faculty staff students and alumni to solve some of society s most pressing problems and to become a resource for the state of Florida the nation and the world Sea levels are rising around the globe and in Florida with its 1 200 miles of coastline and mostly flat topography this is of particular concern The state depends on coastal cities where 75 percent of the population lives and where more than four fifths of its economic activity takes place When economists tally up the likely costs of rising seas they rank Florida as the most vulnerable state in the nation and Miami as one of the most vulnerable major cities in the world When the Seas Rise takes us on an alarming journey from the dying coastal forests where salt killed tree trunks stand like sentinels of a retreating army to the high tide flooded streets of cities from St Augustine to Key West Meet the scientists at the University of Florida researchers in biology geology entomology horticulture urban and regional planning as well as other fields who along with other experts around the state are planning for the sea change already upon us and the greater changes to come They are working around the clock to predict how global climate shifts will affect the state to protect drinking water and slow the effects of flooding to develop new ways to farm to save our butterflies sea turtles Key deer and other endangered creatures to preserve the state s economy and to help coastal dwellers plan future havens for the people and wildlife of Florida The stories chronicled in GATORBYTES span all colleges and units across the UF campus They detail the far reaching impact of UF s research technologies and innovations and the UF faculty members dedicated to them Gatorbytes describe how UF is continuing to build on its strengths and extend the reach of its efforts so that it can help even more people in even more places

Religious Politics in Turkey Ceren Lord,2018-11-08 Since the elections of 2002 Erdogan s AKP has dominated the political scene in Turkey This period has often been understood as a break from a secular pattern of state building But in this book Ceren Lord shows how Islamist mobilisation in Turkey has been facilitated from within the state by institutions established during early nation building Lord thus challenges the traditional account of Islamist AKP s rise that sees it either as a grassroots reaction to the authoritarian secularism of the state or as a function of the state s utilisation of religion Tracing struggles within the state Lord also shows how the state s principal religious authority the Presidency of Religious Affairs Diyanet competed with other state institutions to pursue Islamisation Through privileging Sunni Muslim access to state resources to the exclusion of others the Diyanet has been a key actor ensuring persistence and increasing salience of religious markers in political and economic competition creating an amenable environment for Islamist mobilisation

EU Legal Acts Marise Cremona, Claire Kilpatrick, 2018-02-08 In this collection of essays originally presented at the Academy of European Law in Florence the changing landscape of the EU's legal acts is explored Further to this the changing boundaries between legal acts and processes which may create norms but do not create law in the traditional sense are analysed This landscape is presented in two ways Firstly by focusing on the transformations and challenges to the EU's traditional legal acts in particular since the reconfiguration of the categories of legal acts and the procedures for which they are adopted by the Lisbon Treaty Secondly the collection focuses on those acts found at or beyond the margin of classic EU legal acts including acts of Member States such as inter se treaties self regulation and collective agreements so called soft law and decision making outside the normal legislative procedures The volume endeavours to explain the adaptability of the EU legal order despite the fact that the legal instruments at the Union's disposal have not fundamentally changed since the Treaty of Rome came into force 60 years ago It explores the challenges that new decisional procedures and variations in the legal quality of EU acts pose for the EU's legal order including alterations to institutional balance and the roles of the different institutional actors and challenges to the rule of law

Rise of the Far Right Melody Devries, Judith Bessant, Rob Watts, 2021-07-29 After decades on the social and political margins far right groups and movements are enjoying increasing success and even claiming a place in mainstream electoral politics in many Western political systems Research shows that new media like Twitter YouTube and community sites like 4chan and Reddit are increasingly involved with the mobilization of popular support for far right electoral campaigns and even organized political violence These technologies including other social media discussion websites certain online games chat servers talk radio cable news and print media are making contemporary far right ideologies possible in diverse ways altering methods of recruitment to the extent that they become unrecognizable from far right movements of the past and thus more dangerous The results of these new technological processes can be seen in the increasing normalization of far right values within mainstream culture politics and media ecosystems within countries from the United States Britain Australia Germany and Hungary This book brings together recent academic research exploring how far right groups use new media to recruit followers to extremist beliefs and mobilize political action In doing so the book reveals the complex ways that evolving technologies are used both purposively subtly and in some cases incidentally to recruit and mobilize far right support

Organ Cross Talk and its Impact on the Clinical Course in Multiple Trauma and Critical Illness Klemens Horst, Markus Huber-Lang, Tom E. Mollnes, 2023-05-02

Regional Economic Outlook, Middle East and Central Asia, October 2015 International Monetary Fund. Middle East and Central Asia Dept., 2015-10-21 This issue discusses economic developments in the Middle East North Africa Afghanistan and Pakistan MENAP which continue to reflect the diversity of conditions prevailing across the region Most high income oil exporters primarily in the GCC continue to record steady growth and solid economic and financial fundamentals albeit with medium term challenges that need to be addressed In contrast other countries Iraq Libya and Syria are mired in conflicts with not only humanitarian but also economic consequences And yet other countries mostly oil importers are making continued but uneven progress in advancing their economic agendas often in tandem with political transitions and amidst difficult social conditions In most of these countries without extensive economic and structural reforms economic prospects for the medium term remain insufficient to reduce high unemployment and improve living standards
