Citizenship in a Fragile World Bernard P. Dauenhauer,1996 Traditional conceptions of citizenship have dealt almost exclusively with political life within one state But the internationalization of so much economic cultural and political life today presents new opportunities and problems_including the potential to extinguish human life Taking these new features as a point of departure Dauenhauer exposes the flaws in standard communitarian and liberal democratic theory focusing on the work of Charles Taylor John Rawls and JYrgen Habermas He articulates a concept of complex citizenship that recognizes citizens responsibilities beyond borders and shows its fruitfulness for educating children and dealing with foreign states and their peoples Housing Problems of the Elderly United States. Congress. Senate. Special Committee on Aging,1961

Architecture in Transition Kelly Crossman,1987 The world of Canadian architecture was transformed during the years before 1900 New technologies such as the steel frame changed the way buildings were constructed new styles such as the Richardsonian Romanesque changed the way buildings looked and the development of the Canadian economy meant that new types of buildings were required Many of the public buildings banks houses hotels department stores and factories constructed during these years determined the character of Canadian cities for the next half century Success on the Tenure Track Cathy Ann Trower,2012-08-15 Satisfaction ratings from tenure track faculty at 200 institutions across the country reveal best practices and the key elements of workplace success Landing a tenure track position is no easy task Achieving tenure is even more difficult Under what policies and practices do faculty find greater clarity about tenure and experience higher levels of job satisfaction And what makes an institution a great place to work In 2005 2006 the Collaborative on Academic Careers in Higher Education COACHE at the Harvard Graduate School of Education surveyed more than 15 000 tenure track faculty at 200 participating institutions to assess their job satisfaction The survey was designed around five key themes for faculty satisfaction tenure clarity work life balance support for research collegiality and leadership Success on the Tenure Track positions the survey data in the context of actual colleges and universities and real faculty and administrators who talk about what works and why Best practices at the highest rated institutions in the survey Auburn Ohio State North Carolina State Illinois at Urbana Champaign Iowa Kansas and North Carolina at Pembroke give administrators practical proven advice on how to increase their employee satisfaction Additional chapters discuss faculty demographics trends in employment practices what leaders can do to create and sustain a great workplace for faculty and what the future might hold for tenure An actively engaged faculty is crucial for American higher education to retain its global competitiveness Cathy Ann Trower s analysis provides colleges and universities a considerable inside advantage to get on the right track toward a happy productive workforce
