Portrait Of A Fallen Angel Apocalypse Generation:

Portrait of a Fallen Angel Raoul Hawkins, 2014-11-18 Frank Walker was a godless man He saw no use in worshipping a higher power However he did see the power of religion and the way it could take hold over grand congregations Perhaps that was why he chose to worship the devil so long as it meant a frolic with Bacchus in the woods bonfires wild sex with naked maidens and tumultuous music Soon Frank becomes known as the devil worshipping prophet of a new religion He gains a devoted following who await his every word As he and his followers become further and further debauched by their demonic practices Frank naively believes he can control the beast he has unleashed However Frank is in for an unfortunate surprise He tells his followers their messiah is coming but what will happen if the devil truly arrives Like the mythological Icarus Frank has perhaps flown too close to the sun He begins to feel powerless over his followers and the forces he has summoned as events spiral towards their inevitable climax
