Capitalism: An Unsustainable Future? Malcolm Sawyer, Jonathan Michie, 2022-03-30 The four decades of neoliberalism globalisation and financialisation have produced crises financial and pandemic and rising inequality The climate emergency threatens the future of the planet This book explores many dimensions of the background to these crises There is the development of policy agendas to address the climate emergency The rise in inequality is studied in terms of impacts of financialisation and the relationships between growth and inequality The record of the neoliberal experiment in the USA is critically examined The roles of financial institutions including public banks and micro finance are explored as is the need for improved financial oversight in the Economic and Monetary Union The growth of global value chains has been a major aspect of globalisation and the question is examined of whether such chains provide a ladder for development Globalisation has also featured trade imbalances and large capital flows and their causes and effects are examined with respect to China and South Africa respectively This volume will be of great value to students scholars and professionals interested in political economy economic thought climate change sustainability and business studies The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal International Review of Applied Economics

Depletion Shirin M. Rai, 2024-07-17 When thinking about the work of caring for others we often neglect the human cost born by those performing this care Feminists have long talked about the ways in which unpaid work particularly performed in the home is habitually undervalued by society but the work of caring for people both paid and unpaid can also take a toll on the health of individuals households and communities when we give more than we receive This lopsided gap between outflows and inflows as this book argues is depletion In Depletion Shirin M Rai examines the human costs of care work and how these are reproduced across the boundaries of class race gender and generation Depletion can be physical as measured by the body mass index exhaustion sleeplessness and vital health signs It can also be mental manifesting as self doubt guilt and apprehension and the failure to take time for oneself family friends and community Moreover depletion has effects that extend well beyond the individual to households and communities Including case studies from different parts of the world and building on various methodologies Rai looks at the costs of care work or what she calls social reproduction in several forms biological reproduction unpaid work in the home and cultural and ideological work necessary to maintain social relations beyond the household Various chapters examine the costs of commuting to work and for care the value of unpaid work performed by women of different classes the costs of household work performed by children and the costs to communities when local economies are challenged by corporate interests Lastly Rai argues that depletion must be recognized in order for it to be reversed the struggles to reverse depletion are struggles for a good life generative of new imaginings of how care work both draining and joyful can be reorganized for a better future for all

Ownership and Governance of Companies Jonathan Michie, Vishnu Padayachee, 2021-06-29 Apartheid South Africa was often thought to run in the interests of the business elite Yet 27 years after apartheid those business interests remain largely entrenched Why Did the South African business community play a role in engineering this outcome perhaps recognising the apartheid era was over and jumping ship in time Conversely the mission of the ANC was widely perceived to be to shift wealth and power into the hands of the whole community Yet despite black empowerment measures corporate ownership remains largely in white hands and certainly in the hands of an elite few even though no longer restricted to whites This picture is replicated across the global south where corporate ownership tends to be concentrated in the hands of an elite rather than being more democratically spread Why have alternative corporate forms not been pursued more vigorously with ownership in the hands of customers employees and local communities In the case of South Africa where the majority of customers and employees are black this could have delivered on the ANC's mission to replace the apartheid era with a democratic one in terms of wealth incomes and power as well as in terms of voting and civic rights This edited volume explores all these questions and looks at ways to align corporate forms with economic and social goals The chapters in this book were originally published as special issues of International Review of Applied Economics The Routledge Handbook of Migration and Language Suresh Canagarajah, 2017-02-03 Winner of AAAL Book Award 2020 Shortlisted for the BAAL Book Prize 2018 The Routledge Handbook of Migration and Language is the first comprehensive survey of this area exploring language and human mobility in today's globalised world This key reference brings together a range of interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary perspectives drawing on subjects such as migration studies geography philosophy sociology and anthropology Featuring over 30 chapters written by leading experts from around the world this book Examines how basic constructs such as community place language diversity identity nation state and social stratification are being retheorized in the context of human mobility Analyses the impact of the mobility turn on language use including the parallel multilingual turn and translanguaging Discusses the migration of skilled and unskilled workers different forms of displacement and new superdiverse and diaspora communities Explores new research orientations and methodologies such as mobile and participatory research multi sited ethnography and the mixing of research methods Investigates the place of language in citizenship educational policies employment and social services The Routledge Handbook of Migration and Language is essential reading for those with an interest in migration studies language policy sociolinguistic research and development studies e-Infrastructure and e-Services for Developing Countries Amos Nungu, Bjorn Pehrson, Julianne Sansa-Otim, 2015-04-20 This book constitutes the thoroughly refereed proceedings of the 6th International Conference on e Infrastructure and e Services for Developing Countries AFRICOMM 2014 held in Kampala Uganda November 24 25 2014 The 31 revised full papers were carefully selected from 57 submissions and cover topics such as communication infrastructure health IoT cloud computing and TVWS ICT4D applications access to information and ICT4D miscellaneous Uniting a Divided City Jo Beall, Owen Crankshaw, Susan Parnell, 2014-10-14 For many Johannesburg resembles the imagined spectre of the urban future Global anxieties about catastrophic urban explosion social fracture environmental degradation escalating crime and violence and rampant consumerism alongside grinding poverty are projected onto this city as a microcosm of things to come Decision makers in cities worldwide have attempted to balance harsh fiscal and administrative realities with growing demands for political economic and social justice This book investigates pragmatic approaches to urban economic development service delivery spatial restructuring environmental sustainability and institutional reform in Johannesburg It explores the conditions and processes that are determining the city's transformation into a cosmopolitan metropole and magnet for the continent
