English

Week #2

Monday

- 1) Apostrophes Place ONE apostrophe where it's needed in the following sentence.

Amie's eyes grew huge as she saw all the gifts under the tree and all the stockings bulging with knits.

- 2) AWFUL Conjunctions Write a sentence using an AWFUL conjunction where it WOULD require a comma.

- 3) Weak Thesis The following is the introduction for a paper about an interesting town called Cooper Pedy.

At first glance, the Australian city of Cooper Pedy looks like an abandoned ghost town. It doesn't appear to consist of much more than a few hotels and a peculiar, grassless golf course. As bleak as the may sound, the city of Cooper Pedy is actually quite fascinating. There are even people who live here. These people are underground.

The author did not write an effective thesis for this paper. Which of the following can replace the last two sentences and serve as a more effective thesis for this paper?

- (a) The people who live in Cooper Pedy love their special little city. All of these people have made a decision to live in a unique way.
- (b) It isn't what you can see that makes this city amazing; it's what you cannot see. There are 3,500 people who call Cooper Pedy home, and almost all of them live and work underground.
- (c) Cooper Pedy's interesting history includes miners, people living underground, very hot weather, and media attention. All of this put together makes Cooper Pedy an interesting place to me.
- (d) It isn't because it's abandoned that Cooper Pedy is fascinating; it's because it only looks abandoned since people are really living underground.
